New Look, Same Great Product

Cosequin is the number one veterinarian-recommended retail joint health supplement brand. True to its reputation, this product is formulated with FCHG49 Glucosamine Hydrochloride, TRH122 Sodium Chondroitin Sulfate, and Methylsulfonylmethane (MSM) to meet your pet's health needs, particularly with their cartilage and connective tissue problems. Available in chicken-flavored chewable tablets, Cosequin Maximum Strength Joint Support has been proven safe and effective and subjected to quality control measures.

2. Zesty Paws 5-in-1 Multivitamin Bites

Healthy from Head-to-Paw!

Known for its formulation of different vitamins and minerals, Zesty Paws 5-in-1 Multivitamin Bites offers chicken-flavored tablets that are sure to give your pets the extra boost they need every day. This product guarantees your pets' soft skin and a shiny coat with hip and joint support to keep them active and energetic. With every take of this supplement, your little pups will have a pleasant digestive activity that prevents diarrhea, constipation, and bloating. Zesty Paws 5-in-1 Multivitamin Bites also provides antioxidants that help keep a healthy heart function for dogs of all ages, breeds, and sizes.

3. PetHonesty 10-for-1 Multivitamin

10 Benefits In 1 Daily Treat

This naturally formulated dog vitamin by PetHonesty is composed of natural ingredients such as Glucosamine, Purforms, Vitamin C, pumpkin, carrot, sweet potato, chicken, and probiotics that help prevent common health problems pets might develop. Specifically, PetHonesty 10-for-1 Multivitamin focuses on ten health areas like the digestive system, immune system, heart, brain, hip, joints, energy, and flexibility.

With just one a day, this multivitamin offers all the essential supplements your dog needs. It comes in a new leaf-like shape and has a veggie-blend base, but still provides the same great taste and results.
