Application Section	Application Question
Residential Plumber - Welcome	Welcome to the Online Residential Plumber Application. Before you begin, please review the important information below: There are two methods you may use to become licensed. To apply by one of the available methods you will have to have already completed, or have in your possession verification of the below. Please review the Plumbing Licensing Guide for more detailed information on requirements. NOTICE: Criminal convictions must be reported on every application, even if they have been previously reported. Failure to do so may delay the processing of your application. Residential Plumber by Examination - Completed 3,400 hours of plumbing experience. If you have not obtained this experience yet, do not apply. - Have achieved a passing score on the Residential Plumber examination administered by PSI Testing. If you have not achieved a passing score yet, do not apply. Residential Plumber by Endorsement - Hold or have held an active, state-issued license as a residential plumber or equivalent plumber in another state issued by examination on the current or previous International Plumbing Code (IPC) in use in Colorado at the time of application. If you do not currently hold an equivalent plumber license, do not apply. - Completed 3,400 hours of plumbing experience in no less than 2 years. If you have not obtained this experience yet, do not apply. Basically, if you don't have the above, it is best for you to wait until you can secure it. Otherwise you will not be able to qualify for a Residential Plumber license. We'll ask more specific information later in the application about the above items. Remember, you can stop and cancel this application at any time before submitting. However, if you submit the application, pay the fee and do not provide the information as requested, submit incomplete documentation or do not qualify, your application may be rejected and no refunds or transfers will be given. Still ready to go? OKAY, let's start by selecting the "Next" button below.
Application - Applicant Information	To begin, we need to know a little more about you. The questions below help us to learn about you and provide some information needed in order to process your application as quickly and efficiently as possible. Have you ever had a legal name change, used an alternate name in the past or have you ever practiced under a different name than you registered your account with? If you answer yes, you will be prompted on the next page to provide your other name(s) and upload any necessary name change documentation.
