

Reid's Terms of Service

What you can expect from me

I will generally try to deliver your commission in stages for you to look at and approve. I will do my best to get all important details and fix anything pointed out to me. Anything that isn't clarified or left out will be up to my own interpretation. If I feel the project is not something which I can accomplish to the expectations of the client, I will be upfront and honest about it, after which we can discuss alternatives if still interested. I will always try to deliver my best work possible.

WIP & Changes

For every type of commission, you will receive any necessary sketches that need to be approved. After that you will receive a clean lineart version of the sketch before the colouring process begins.

Changes such as body markings, expressions, accessories, etc. can be freely changed during the sketch phase. After the sketching phase, only small changes will be allowed. If I determine that your request will require a substantial amount of changes, an additional fee may apply.

Do note that at any point in the future, if you notice any mistake in your commissioned image that bothers you, you can always send me a message about it and I'll see what I can do to fix it for you.

Refund policy

Refunds will depend on the type of commission and the current stage of the drawing:

Illustration -

You're entitled to 50% of the total value until the end of the line art phase. No refunds will be made if the colouring process has begun.

Headshot -

All payments are final. No refunds will be made.

Exceptions will be made if I, for any reason, cannot complete your commission for whatever reason.
