

EARLY MODERN LONDON – NEW WORK AND APPROACHES

THURSDAY 6TH MARCH 2025, 10am – 5pm

COLLABORATIVE CLASSROOM 9, ELMFIELD BUILDING, NORTHUMBERLAND
ROAD, UNIVERSITY OF SHEFFIELD, S10 2TU

10am	Welcome and introductions, tea & coffee
10.15 – 11.15	Lauren Working (York), 'Between ship and library: global networks at the Inns of Court'
	Break
11.30 – 12.30	Emma Rhatigan (Sheffield), 'Room at the Inn: Jurisdiction and Cultures of Belonging in John Donne's Lincoln's Inn Sermons'
	Tom Rutter (Sheffield), 'Jonson's Alchemist in Blackfriars and Southwark'
	Lunch
1.30 – 2.30	John Gallagher (Leeds), 'Translating early modern London'
	Break

2.45 – 3.45	Sarah Hess (Sheffield), 'London's bagnios 1695-1725'
	Phil Withington (Sheffield), 'London as Receptacle'
	Tea & Coffee
4.15 – 5.30	Ian Archer (Oxford), 'Inside London's Bridewell: setting the poor to work, 1550-1700'
	Drinks and chat
7pm	Workshop dinner

FRIDAY 7TH MARCH 2025

ICOSS CONFERENCE ROOM, 219 PORTOBELLO ROAD, SHEFFIELD, S1 4DP

10am – 11.30am We're delighted to say that Ian Archer has kindly agreed to run a methods and concepts seminar on approaches to early modern London titled –

'A journey through early modern London: negotiating institutional, social, and cultural histories'

To register for the workshop, please fill in this short form found here or on the SCEMS website under the 'Events' tab. (<https://scems.sites.sheffield.ac.uk/events>)