

Caddy's AN: I'm totally not forcing Mike at whip point to do this. Nope. Nor do I take pleasure in his pain at this defiliment of Legend of Zelda. And we have Shoe now! Again, warning for adult language from the agents/characters we write, and the fic itself.

Mike's AN: I'm still having fun. I'm still having fun. I'm still having fun. I'm still having fun. I'm still having fun. I'm still having fun. I'm still having fun... By the way, this is the Honeymoon chapter, so Lemon is unavoidable.

Shoe's AN: I'm here because I am a glutton for punishment and have been drinking heavily. And am a glutton for punishment. And have been drinking heavily.

Derwin the ghoul was having a good day. "Where is Mister Bubble?" he asked nobody in particular. He was oddly unfazed at being dragged into a theatre - on the contrary, he was ecstatic. As soon as he saw everyone else, he let out a loud, happy noise. "EEEEEE! THE STAPLE PEOPLE ARE HERE!"

Mike turned his head toward the odd voice. "Oh dear Gawd! ZOMBIE! I got this!" At this, he vaulted over his chair and charged the intruder.

Derwin, in a fit of unrestrained glee, caught him in a big hug. "YAY!" He said. "A fuzzy duckie!"

Cadmar looked to Maria. "Five bucks says he gets infected."

"I'm OK! I got it!" Mike pulled his head as far back as possible and brought it down on his captor's head. He stumbled backwards after being freed. "Damn. That usually works."

Derwin smiles, showing a mouth full of jagged, pointy, metallic teeth. "MISTER BUBBLE! I'VE FOUND YOU!"

"Ehhh, ten bucks that he dies." Maria said back to Cadmar.

"Oh, you talk!" Mike said surprised. Calling over his shoulder, "Good news. He's a Ghoul not a zombie!"

"So... no one wins. Damn. Well, come on over... person. You can watch too!" Maria said to Derwin.

"YAY!" Derwin squealed. He ran over to Maria and leapt into her arms. "STORY TIME!"

Cadmar twitched a bit. "Yay indeed," she deadpanned.

As everyone sat down again, the projector resumed.

The Honeymoon

Cadmar: That would be a good title to a horror flick.

Maria: Or a documentary on bees.

Cadmar: BEES! CRAWLING UNDER MY SKIN!

Derwin, who has just had his pills: How would that work?

After a long ride we reached the Great Coast. The Summer Cabin the King had set up for us was along the ocean. Link pulled back on the reins and Epona came to a full stop.

Maria: Didn't Link spend an entire month building them a house in the forest?

Mike: Forget that. If Majora's Mask didn't happen then there is no Great Bay! I'm Mike, by the way. Sorry about the headbutt.

Derwin, in a subdued British accent: 'M Derwin.

Cadmar: Hey, you sound different...

Derwin: Found my pills. They make me sane. Odd thing, being sane. I'm not really used to it...

He helped me down, dismounted himself and took Epona to the stable. After he returned he picked me up into his arms and carried me over the threshold and inside. Once inside my eyes grew as big as saucers. The entire place was furnished. Candles were lit everywhere and a table with a meal already prepared on it was set for two.

Cadmar: I've realized, this actually sounds like a dream. It's too perfect, it needs a calamity, or a war to even it out.

Derwin: It'd be bloody awesome if it were a dream. If anything was crying for a Freddy appearance, it would be this. "Welcome to the internet, BEEYOTCH!"

Mike: Give it time. The author may still learn how to tell a story.

Two candles were lit in the center. And I wondered who could have made the food. Then I remembered that one of the Sages left the reception early. The Sage of Water, Ruto.

Maria: The fish girl travels along the land for miles to make a dinner for them? Wow, does ANYONE who showed interest in Link even want him anymore?

Mike: Amazing they never saw her, eh?

Derwin: I for one think (a new experience for me, mind you, well, thinking coherently is, anyway) that Ruto left to get stinking drunk.

I looked around and saw a small letter on the table by the door. I opened it and it was from Ruto. The letter said: "Link was supposed to marry me, but I was blind to his happiness. As I watched him with you I saw how happy he had become. Now I realize what I had done was wrong. I could not hold Link to something he would not be happy with. I hope your life together brings you both the happiness and peace you both desire.

When you two have your first born please come and see me." Signed -Ruto the Water Sage.

Cadmar: I say Jenna is using liquid happiness on Link, if you know what I mean.

Derwin: "Yes, show me your first-born so that I may kill it, you man-stealing trollop!"

Maria: Of course Ruto lets Link go like that, fighting for him would be silly. Seriously, if you like someone, fight for them.

Mike: I wish she had. That would be fun to watch.

Derwin: Oh, indeed. Would it classify as a cat-fight, though? That's the question - seeing as how one of them is a fish.

Maria: Mmm, fish girl. Yum! licks lips

I closed the letter and held it close. A tear trickled down my cheek as I thought of what Ruto had done for us. Link came up behind me and threw his arms around me. "What is wrong my love?" "Are you feeling ok?" Link's skin seemed to glow under the candlelight and his eyes filled with love

Cadmar: What is love?

Maria: Baby don't hurt me!

Derwin: Don't hurt me!

Mike: No more!

All start to nod their heads to the song

I wiped my face and put the letter down. "I...I'm fine." "I'll be ok." I said as I softly placed my hand against his cheek and looked into his eyes. "I'm glad to be here with you." I said softly. "As am I" Link's smile widened and he took my hand and led me to the table.

Mike: That didn't take long to get past a possible plot point. It's like 'Hey conflict, oh, it's gone'!

Derwin, blowas a raspberry (Not an easy thing to do with no lips): I wonder what cheek the horny little bint put her hand against? Righty or lefty? We all know that she didn't touch his face, that's for sure.

I sat down and Link pushed in my chair before seating himself. As we ate we talked about future plans and having a family. But I could tell his mind was not on the food. I took my foot and slowly, brushed it up against his leg. As I rubbed his leg with my foot he squirmed in his chair. Finally he got up and came around behind me.

Cadmar: And hit her as hard as he could so her tongue would shoot out, he decided to take a leaf out of Mario's book.

Mike: Who else is waiting for The Taken to show up. They don't have flashlights. They're doomed!

Derwin: Raises his hand

He lowered his head down by my neck and I could feel his hot breath against my cheek. I felt his lips move to my neck as he started to Cadmar: Suck all her blood out, because vampires like their meals by candle light. Right Maria?

Maria: It's true, we do.

Derwin: Oh, you're a vampire, then? Huh. I always thought of them as the sparkI-GACK!

Cadmar and Mike make token efforts to stop Maria from strangling Derwin passionately kiss me there. As he nibbled on my neck

Cadmar: Saving some for later.

I let out soft moans. After a few minuets Link took me by the hand, lifted me out of the chair and led me to a room where a tub was filled with hot water. He pressed his lips on mine and we kissed deeply, as he begun to remove my dress exposing my naked body.

Lemons begin falling down from the ceiling

Maria: Lemon alert!

Cadmar: Yay! More badly done sex scenes. I can't wait.

Derwin: You know in the wastes, you had to PAY to get sex this bad. Not that I'd know, mind. Most of the prostitutes found me a bit repulsive on account of the fact that I tried to pay with Mole-rat brains.

Mike: So I guess you're from Fallout then?

Derwin, nods: Oh, yes. Capital Wasteland, actually.

As his hands started to caress my body, caress my breasts, I could feel myself getting hotter.

Cadmar: C'mon, spontaneous combustion!

Mike: How is the wasteland?

Maria: Oh! Do you have to like, go on adventures like the Lone Wanderer?

Derwin: It's hot, it's radioactive, and everyone and their mother tries to kill you, rob you, and slash or eat you. As for adventures... I wouldn't know. I'm insane, remember?

Mike: Soooo... Wild Wilderness then?

Derwin: Yep. Only that's SANE for me.

I wanted him. Wanted to feel him. I wanted to touch him in ways that he had never been touched. Then I felt his heart beating faster, felt his hands moving up and down my slender

Cadmar: SLENDERMAN! ARRRGHHH! faints

Mike: She passed out again... probably for the best.

Derwin: Agreed. Now we can rifle through her pockets and take things.

Mike: Don't bother. She doesn't have anything good.

Derwin, takes a look at Cadmar: Well, I could have told you that from the start.

body. As he nibbled on my nipples, I little by little slowly started to remove his clothes, exposing his heavenly naked body. I slowly reached up and placed my hands on his bear chest.

Maria: Oh dear, poor Link is now part bear. Never seen a bear-boy before.

As I ran my finger tips down his chest, soft moans passed his lips. His body was so muscular, so firm, his skin silky to the touch. I ran my hands slowly down his body. First to his waist then to his thighs, around his butt, then to the swollen organ between his legs.

Maria: Now he's got an infection too. So, what does a ghoul do all day in the Wasteland?

Derwin: Survive. Try not to get shot by stupid waste-landers. Eat people... but that may have just been me.

When I grazed my hand over the head, Link let out small cries of pleasure. Then I looked in to his eyes.

"Tonight my love, I'm going to show you how much I love you."

Maria: So she never showed him before, that's nice of her.

Derwin: She has a habit of calling him "her love," doesn't she? There are OTHER pet names, dearie.

Mike: Unfortunately, she doesn't seem to know that. Anyway, does ghoulification hurt?

Derwin: Nah. Not really. I mean... It just feels itchy at first, you know? Then your skin starts to fall off, then your hair (or maybe it's in the reverse order), then your teeth. That's why I got these made, actually. he grins to show his metal teeth

Mike: Yikes!

I went down and slowly took the head of his member into my mouth, teasing it with my tongue. As I teased the head soft moans passed Link's lips. Then slowly I moved to his shaft, caressing it with my tongue as I licked up and down it. As I caressed his member with my lips and tongue, Link's soft moans soon turned into cries of pleasure. I felt his body quivering under my gentle hands, as his cries of ecstasy filled the room.

Maria: Aha, so he IS on drugs.

Then Link let out a loud animal like cry as I took his member fully into my mouth. Slowly I moved up and down the shaft, dragging my tongue as I went. Little by little I upped the movement, causing Link to cry out in ecstasy as I caused waves of pure pleasure to go surging threw his body. Then I found a rhythm and his breathing became faster as I started to take him over the edge. His heart started racing, his cries filled the room. And finally when I took his nut sack and caressed it with my hand, it was his undoing. Link let out a loud animal like cry as he reached his peak, releasing his essence into my mouth.

Maria: Sucking his life out like that isn't very nice. Even a vampiric Luxury wouldn't do that.

Derwin: I'd let a vampiric Luxury suck all the life out of me she wanted. Rrrrow. Well... if she filed down her teeth, of course.

Mike: How do you remember all this if you were insane?

Derwin: Well... I wasn't ALWAYS insane.

I swallowed, licking up all of the sweet juices off his member. As I licked my lips, he brought his face close to mine. Our lips met kissing each other passionately, the taste of him still on my lips. As he deepened the kiss, I let out soft moans into his mouth. Then we broke off the kiss and I looked into his eyes. "I'm ready for you now my love." I said as I started to kiss his neck. Slowly I felt the heat between us grow stronger.

Maria: Now they BOTH burst into flames!... Oh god, I'm channeling Cadmar...

Derwin: Hear that, Cadmar? She's "channeling" you. Derwin waggles his eyes suggestively Anyway, if old pointy-ears deepens the kiss any longer he'll need a friggen oxygen tank and a wet suit. My God, man, get some AIR!

I felt myself wanting him, felt my body calling out to feel him inside me. His eyes shone desire in them, the passion burned in them. He led me by the hand then, pulled me into the tub as the desire between us raged.

Mike: So did you live in the Capital or what?

Derwin: Or what, actually. I lived in a small shack near Arefu. Lived is actually kind of a strong word-I lingered.

Mike: Oh... that was your place...sorry!

Derwin: What do you mean WAS, smoothskin? And that's not the only thing raging, Jenna sweetie.

I wanted him even more now; wanted to feel him inside me. He moved closer to me and I felt his throbbing member at my entrance. Then I begun to cry out in ecstasy as he slowly penetrated my enchanted body. Slowly at first, then I cried out in pure bliss as Link upped his movements. As we made hot love I felt his heart beating in unison with mine, felt the heat of his body against my body. Link felt soo good inside me. So warm. So tender. Then he pushed me up against the side of the tub as he put his hands underneath my body lifting me up, allowing him to penetrate deeper. I wrapped my legs around his waist and groaned as I grabbed his back and dug my nails in feeling the sweat beginning to form.

Maria: Geez, why does everyone use the 'digging fingernails into back' thing. That hurts.

Derwin: Don't you know, Maria? It hurts SO goooood... Yeah, you're right. This woman has NO idea how sex works. I'm puzzled and frightened. Or possibly both. Certainly in need of a cold one, that's for sure.

Mike: I don't give a damn.

As I dragged my hands down his back, I cried in ecstasy as he begun to thrust deeper inside my now hot sweaty form. Our bodies quivered as our movements begun to flow in unison. And I felt his heart beginning to beat faster as I forced my body up against his. Loud animal-like sounds passed his lips as his thrusts came in faster beats. Then I bucked against Link as I as cried for him to take me. "Ungh....Link..Oh...My Goddesses.....LINK!"

Maria: CHHHHRRRRRIIIIIIIIIIISSSSSS!

Mike: WESKER!

Derwin: KHAAAAAAAANNNN!

I cried as I ran my hands down his back; down over his buttock, dragging my nails as they went. I felt him starting to breath faster as he started to climax. And as the sheer ecstasy raced through our bodies I didn't want it to end.

Mike: Link may need some medical attention after this.

Maria: And therapy. So, much therapy.

Derwin: And booze. Can't go wrong with booze.

I wanted every part of him. I wanted to drink in his body. He felt soo good....so hot.....he was mine, mine forever. I had him.....had his body.....his heavenly body.....Mmmm.....

Maria: Yep, she does sound a lot like a Yandere. Pats the still unconscious Cadmar on the head You were right.

Mike: I think she's got the right idea. If I'm unconscious then I won't have to watch this, but with my luck I'd get shocked awake again.

Derwin: "Mmmm... Heavenly body... uuugggghhhh..." Ye Gods, she sounds like a horny version of Homer Simpson!

Sexual thoughts raced through my mind as we both came to a full climax....."LINK!" I cried out in pure ecstasy as I gushed down his muscular legs. "JENNA!" Link screamed as he reached his peak and released his very essence in side me. I let out a loud moan as I felt the warm liquid slide down inside my beautiful body. It felt sooo good.....I now had a part of him inside me. A part of his very essence.

Maria: I remember Cadmar telling me about how a replacement sucked out Harry's soul through Harry's wang. I smacked her for telling me something like that.

Mike: So, why are you telling us?

Maria: Because SOMEONE has to creep the others out while Cadmar is out cold.

We both collapsed from exhaustion after Link delivered his second and final release. Breathing heavy, I looked deeply into his sexy blue eyes.....eyes with passion in them. Then I leaned over and pressed my lips on his tasting the sweetness of them.....so firm, so sweet..... Feeling a slight longing I moved my lips to his ear and whispered words of passion to him. "Oh... my Goddesses.... Link." "I love...you somuch."

Maria: Shatner... senses... TINGLING... must... over act...

Mike: I think the phrase 'I love you' is used more than the word 'the'.

I said in between gasps of breath before I slowly starting to caress his long sexy pointed ear with my lips and tongue. "And....I love....you too....my sweet...love." Link said as he embraced me. As I nibbled on the lobe of his ear I could hear his soft moaning.....felt his hands moving down my body.....I felt the heat of his body.....felt his skin against mine.....so hot.....so heavenly.....his body.....finally for once I felt complete.....felt like a women.....I felt sexy, wanted.

Mike: Shatner levels reaching critical mass!

Derwin: ... I've got nothing.

Maria: Yes, because having sex means you are wanted, you shallow twit.

Mike: She is wanted. Cadmar has the rap sheet all typed up I think.

Cadmar slowly comes to Derwin: Good morning, sleepyhead. Enjoy your nap? Dream of good things?

Cadmar blushes and mumbles a couple names

We laid there still connected and covered in sweat. I laid my head against his chest and listened to the beating of his heart. We were both exhausted and breathing heavy. Then as my breathing started slow I felt my eyes beginning to drift. And as I felt my last ounce of strength leave my body, I

Cadmar: Died, because she overdosed on ecstasy and didn't breath enough.

Mike: Whah! You were out cold. How did you wake up so fast?

Derwin: I threatened to give her mouth-to-mouth. Works every time, like it did with Dead-Man Denny back home.

Cadmar: Sheer force of hatred... not really, I just knew I was needed. I miss anything?

Derwin: More badly written F*cking.

fell asleep.

The next morning I awoke in bed lying on Link's chest while he stroked my hair.

We talked awhile before rising and getting dressed. After he got dressed he went down stairs to cook breakfast as I went to freshen up. I washed my face and hands then I went to the wardrobe closet to select a dress.

Derwin: You are aware, dearie, that just random grunting doesn't count as talking. It counts as random grunting.

Mike: I'm gonna take a wild guess and say she over-describes her dress, AND that it is covered in Triforce symbols.

Derwin: And suspicious stains...

I picked out a low cut long silk blue dress with a gold Hylian symbol on the lower part of the dress. I put on my wedding ring, the bracelet Zelda gave me, and fixed my hair then I went down stairs. Link greeted me at the bottom and his eyes widened as he looked me over. He took me into his arms and kissed me. "You look beautiful, my love."

Mike: HOLY CRAP! Two sentences! Is she alright? Never mind. I don't actually care.

Cadmar: You know what looks better than that? A blood-stained dress after you and your wife just fought off a random ninja attack. Yeah.

Derwin: No, Link. She looks like an over-priced hooker. You silly, pointy-eared, green hat wearing person, you.

His eyes seemed to flicker with passion as he held me in his arms.

Maria: No, that's just the Goa'uld controlling him.

Derwin: I should have asked this at the beginning, but does our hero ever talk in the games?

Mike: No... not really. Never shuts up in the TV show, though.

Derwin: Huh.

Cadmar: I guess Navi never shutting the hell up made up for Link being quiet. Jerkish developers.

He knew how to make me feel good. His words soft and gentle. He was the perfect man.

Cadmar: I want to pit her and Bella in a fight to see who has the better 'perfect man'. I'd even provide some hatchets for them, too.

Mike: The loser dies in battle, the winner is dropped in lava!

Derwin: Too good for them, I say!

Mike: We need to be sure it kills that sparkling motherf-

I walked over to the dinning table and glanced over all the food Link had prepared. "I hope your hungry, my sweet." He said as I nodded yes. Link pulled out my chair, I sat down and he pushed my chair in before seating himself. While we ate we talked about the plans for the day. Since it was a beautiful day and the area nice, I thought going horseback riding would be the thing to do.

Maria: Yeah, what with you being a recluse and not going into the town to meet people.

But then I remembered one thing, there was only one horse, Epona. A look of disappointment crossed my face, I had really wanted to go horseback riding. Then Link had an idea. "Epona is strong enough to hold us both. "She carried us both here." "You can just sit behind me and put your arms around my waist." Link said as smile widened and I felt better.

Mike: Crazy mood swings! Look out!

Cadmar: Yeah, Jenna being sad is horrible, we must make poor Epona carry two people around. Who cares about her back?

After breakfast, Link went to saddle Epona while I did the dishes. When I finished Link poked his head in the door and said he was ready. I removed my apron, put on my riding boots and followed Link out the door. Epona was in front saddled and ready to go. The rusty brown mare was truly beautiful horse. I walked up to her and patted her on the head. She gently put her muzzle near my face to show no fear. As I looked at her, she was the most beautiful horse I had ever seen.

Derwin: You're getting drool on the floor, Catherine the Great.

Mike: Please tell me this isn't going where I think it's going, because I think this fic would actually go there.

Cadmar: Riding, in both definitions!

Link took my hand and helped me into the saddle. Then he mounted in front of me. I put my arms around his waist as he checked to see if I was ready then booted Epona in the ribs and she took off at a gallop. We rode down to the ocean along the beach. Water kicked up behind Epona's legs as we rode along the water's edge. The ocean air smelled sweet and the breeze was cool. I looked over Link's shoulder to see what lay ahead. The beach was vast and wide. Rocky cliffs lined the water further down. Small caves with water flowing into them lined a small island far in the distance. Then I turned and looked over the vast ocean and saw small islands lining the horizon. This was truly a beautiful place. So peaceful, so serene, it almost made me not want to leave .

Mike: She's trying so hard to make us care, but it's not working.

Cadmar: Well, she's at least describing things beside Link. Progress.

Derwin: Good grief, does she want to admire the scenery or shag it?

Then we arrived at a small alcove and Link stopped Epona. He dismounted then helped me down. "This is a real beautiful spot let's just sit here awhile." Link said as his blue eyes shone in the sunlight. After we sat down in the sand, I laid my head on Link's shoulder as he put his arm around me.

Cadmar: Is that how a date usually goes? Sounds dull. I'm sure Luxury would have something interesting to do.

Maria: I'm sure Lux would skip the date and go straight to the intimacy.

Derwin: Oh, that's a mental image I needed. Thanks.

Maria: You're welcome!

I watched as distant Seagulls flew over the ocean in search of food. The cool breeze blew threw my hair as the salt air tingled my senses.

Derwin: "My spidey sense is tingling!"

Mike: No, I think she just found Tingle.

I felt at peace here. Here, there were no wolfos to chase off, no thieves, no duties no nothing. But I knew that soon it would all be over and we would have to return to Hyrule.

Mike: What duties? You stand around and let others do your work for you.

Derwin: Oh, come now. It takes effort to look like the village bicycle, doesn't it, ladies? OWW!

Cadmar: ... How may pieces would I need to spell 'Jerk'? Specifically, cut off with a machete.

Maria: I dunno, want to find out?

"Don't worry about that!" I thought to myself. "Your here with the man you love, your new husband." "Enjoy it with him." "Don't be a fool!" Then I got up and ran towards the ocean.

Cadmr: Randomly running into water proves someone isn't a fool.

Mike: Anyone else hear the Baywatch theme?

Cadmar: No, but I do hear the Jaws theme. Dun-dun, dun-dun, dun-dun-dun-dun-dun-dun...

Walking into the water I turned and giggled at Link. Then I gestured for him to follow.
Leery

Mike, in a near perfect impression: Alright, time's up. Let's do this. LEEROY JENKINS!

Maria: She said leery, LEERY!

Cadmar: It's too late. What has been referenced, cannot be un-referenced. We shall be forever known as the people who quoted that without good cause. Our social lives ARE OVER.

Mike: What social-life?

he came to the ocean's edge and then I splashed water on him. He looked at me sideways before he splashed water back at me. No sooner had that started, we were running around in the water splashing each other and laughing like little kids. We played all day. Just like we were kids again.

Cadmar: Link still is a child in mind. He's just doing what's natural.

Derwin: My God... the woman's a kiddy-diddler!

Mike: Yeah, we've been over that. Let's move on.

I was having the best time of my life. When it started to get dark, we went back up to the beach and sat down in the sand to watch the sun set. I cuddled into Link's arms and laid my head against his chest as the sun's golden rays slowly started to set below the horizon.

Derwin, singing: "I've had the time of my liliife, and I owe it all to yooouuuu..."

Cadmar: I wonder if were in a forest? Because this is a lot of sap.

Mike: I wish we were. I know how to make maple syrup.

"My life with Link will be a happy and special one." He is all I need."

Cadmar: Yes, he is all you need. And you, you are all he needs... all the other girls... lowers head so eyes are covered and raises machete Need to just... disappear...

Mike, singing: You're the one that I want! Ooh hoo hoo!

"Soon we will have a family and my life will be truly complete." As I thought to myself my eyes slowly drifted. And as the sun's last rays disappeared over the horizon I closed my eyes.....

Mike: Make us whole again, Issac.

Maria: And let the night wash over you, changing you into your true self, a man-eating beast... The werewolf!

Derwin: You know, dear, Link might not want kids. You ever think of that?

Cadmar: Link obviously wants kids. That's what I'll plan with my first girlfriend after we marry after dating for a month. I'm sure it'll go over fine.

Mike: Don't you mean boyfriend?

Cadmar: Oh god... sobs comically

Back at the cottage I was bathing while Link prepared the evening meal. After a bit Link came upstairs to check on me. "I came to see if you need any help bathing." He asked.

Maria: Help bathing? Either he's ready for another round, or he is whipped.

Derwin: Or he's "Special." Although to be honest, pretty much everyone seems to have taken stupid pills in this fic.

Cadmar: That's it! She's been selling drugs to people! That's why they're acting funny! Another criminal charge!

As I looked into his eyes, I took my hand and slowly ran it from the top of my shoulder and down over my breasts. "I could use my back washed." I said seductively. Taking the hint, Link took the washrag and begun to wash my back. After a minute he put the rag down in the water and begun to passionately kiss my neck. Moaning softly I turned my head to face him and gently pressed my lips on his kissing him deeply, our tongues meeting.

Mike: Lemon time!

Derwin: "It's really crappy lemon time, really crappy lemon time, really crappy lemon time, now where he at, where he at now there he go, there he go..."

Maria: Well, right now he's at her neck, and he's probably going to work his way down.

Cadmar: I hope he doesn't come back up and drowns, then this will be over.

As we kissed I could feel his hands moving down my naked body.

Cadmar: What else would she be? Clothed in a bath tub?

Mike: Different strokes for different folks, I guess.

Cadmar: Don't say 'stroke'.

Gently he lifted me out of the tub and led me to the bed while we kissed. Softly he laid me down and climbed on top of me.

Maria: All wet, and full of soap and dirty water. So romantic.

Mike: Next he won't even wait for her to take a bath. It'll be right in the mud hole.

Cadmar: Niiiiiice.

Derwin: Good grief, can't these two do anything el/se? They're hornier than... something...horny...

I could feel his body quivering as he moved from my lips and down on my body. Then he spread my legs and went down. I felt his lips on my thigh, as he slowly kissed inward. Then when he reached the center, he pressed his mouth onto my flower. I felt as he slowly inserted his tongue between the lips causing me to cry out in pure bliss.

Cadmar: Well great, now we have no more characters with backstory to exposit over the bad sex scenes.

Then he moved up until his tongue brushed against my clit. Working his teeth and tongue on my clit, shocks of pure ecstasy were sent cursing threw me causing my legs to shudder. Never had I felt such feelings, never had I experienced such pleasure. As he teased my clit, I felt his tongue move down until it was at my entrance.

Derwin: I'm sure she has. The woman has obviously been ridden more times than an aggressive motorcycle.

Mike: Been there, done that!

Cadmar: I'm so sure Mike, you have less romanticism than Link.

Mike: God damn it! I meant we've seen this before in the fic. She's having sex again.

Maria: Like you're one to talk, Cadmar.

Mike: Besides, you've been gone for a long time. Who's to say, right?

Painting from the intense experience I got up and looked into his eyes, and knew what he wanted. Slowly I removed his clothes and opened myself to him. I let him take control. Allowed him to fulfill himself. Long into the night there was nothing but hot passion.

Derwin: Much to the irritation of the neighbors.

Mike: I bet they do this every night. They're worse than rabbits.

Cadmar: At least rabbits taste good. Sues taste horrible.

Derwin: Actually, if you add the right amount of spices, they aren't half bad. The trick is paprika.

The last few days were either spent down at the beach or taking peaceful walks together. I knew we only had a small amount of time left here but I spent every minute enjoying it. And on the day we were returning to Hyrule I couldn't wait to get back. Upon our arrival at the castle the king and Princess Zelda were at the gates to greet us home.

Cadmar: As was Detective Perrino, charged with infiltrating the Hyrulian Guard and report all her crimes. She was summarily charged and executed via beheading, joining her ancestors.

Derwin: Beheading? Too good for them, I say!... Actually, that's quite appropriate.

Maria: Oh, look, a new chapter!

The Fourth Wall falls on Mike

Mike, painfully: Stop doing that...
