Drums, Girls and Dangerous Pie Steven has a totally normal life. He plays drums in the All-City Jazz Band (whose members call him the Peasant), has a crush on the hottest girl in school (who doesn't even know he's alive), and is constantly annoyed by his younger brother, Jeffrey (who is cuter than cute – which is also pretty annoying). But when Jeffrey gets sick, Steven's world is turned upside down, and he is forced to deal with his brother's illness, his parent's attempts to keep the family in one piece, his homework, the band, girls, and Dangerous Pie (yes, you'll have to read the book to find out what that is!). *NAME FOR AUTOGRAPHED MESSAGE INSIDE BOOK:		$9.00
Notes from the Midnight Driver 16-year-old Alex decides to get even. His parents are separated, his father is dating his former third-grade teacher, and being 16 isn't easy, especially when it comes to girls. Instead of revenge though, Alex ends up in trouble with the law and ordered to do community service at a senior center where he is assigned to Solomon Lewis, a "difficult" senior with a lot of gusto, advice for Alex, and a puzzling (yet colorful) Yiddish vocabulary. Eventually the pair learn to deal with their past and each other in ways that are humorous, entertaining, and life-changing. *NAME FOR AUTOGRAPHED MESSAGE INSIDE BOOK:		$9.00
After Ever After Although Jeff and Tad, encouraged by a new friend, Lindsey, make a deal to help one another overcome aftereffects of their cancer treatments in preparation for eighth-grade graduation, Jeff still craves advice from his older brother Stephen, who is studying drums in Africa. *NAME FOR AUTOGRAPHED MESSAGE INSIDE BOOK:		$9.00
Zen and the Art of Faking It When San Lee moves to a new town and school for the umpteenth time, he is looking for a way to stand out when his knowledge of Zen Buddhism provides the answer – and the need to quickly become a convincing Zen master. *NAME FOR AUTOGRAPHED MESSAGE INSIDE BOOK:		$8.00
The Secret Sheriff of Sixth Grade Maverick Falconer is just starting middle school and he wishes he were a hero like his father because maybe then he could deal with his mother's drinking and series of abusive boyfriends, not to mention the kids who bully him in middle school (pretty much the same ones who bullied him in elementary school) – but as the year passes he begins to realize that other kids have problems too, and maybe if they can all survive sixth-grade things will get better. *NAME FOR AUTOGRAPHED MESSAGE INSIDE BOOK:		$8.00
The Boy Who Failed Show and Tell An unbelievably hilarious middle-grade true story from bestselling author Jordan Sonnenblick. In a typical school year, every kid has one or two things go wrong. But for Jordan, there's A LOT going wrong ALL THE TIME. By keeping his cool (some of the time), banging on the drums (a lot), and keeping his sense of humor (all the time), Jordan's going to try to make it through the year and grow up to write a book about it! *NAME FOR AUTOGRAPHED MESSAGE INSIDE BOOK:		$7.00
The Boy Who Failed Dodgeball (hard cover) Sixth grade is the worst... and also the best, as Jordan rides the ups and downs of middle-school life in hilarious fashion. Funny, outrageous things didn't stop for Jordan Sonnenblick after he left fourth grade. No, in many ways the events detailed to hilarious effect in The Boy Who Failed Show and Tell were but a prelude to sixth grade, a time when Jordan would have to deal with...-- A rival named Jiminy (his real name is Jimmy -- but, hey, he looks like a cricket)--- An Evel Knievel obsession-- A first crush on a girl from band-- An assistant principal who brands Jordan a repeat offender... on his first day-- And more!. *NAME FOR AUTOGRAPHED MESSAGE INSIDE BOOK:		$15.00
