

FREE CITY ACT

Whereas, the topic of free cities will surely become a legal hole causing division and disagreement.

Whereas, England has the right to defend itself and its interests from threats.

Whereas, the acquiring of cities and territory through warfare is something the Senate should have some say over.

ARTICLE I: GUIDELINES

Section 1. The government of England hereby agrees to the guidelines set forth by this legislation.

Section 2. The Ministry is empowered to wage war with units belonging to free cities.

Section 3. The Ministry is empowered to wage war and pillage districts or any other tile improvement belonging to free cities.

Section 4. The Ministry is empowered to blockade and otherwise cut off trade to free cities.

Section 5. The Ministry is empowered to use espionage against free cities.

Section 6. The Ministry shall not capture a free city under any circumstance without explicit approval from the Senate or through duly-passed legislation.