

Lilah Draws
T.O.S. (Terms of service/ extras)

By commissioning me and paying the agreed amount of money sent to me you agree to abide by the terms of service as written on this page

I will not allow someone to purchase art from me if you are under the age of 18. I won't ask for verification but by agreeing to my TOS and commissioning me. You as the commissioner are taking responsibility and accountability for your age determination.

Rights for me as an Artist

- Know that as an artist I reserve the right to use previous commissions as examples in personal advertisement, whether it be commissions or otherwise. If you would not like your piece to be included in this, please specify this ahead of time.
- Removing my watermark is not allowed for any reason (this includes the commissioner, unless prior mentioned AHEAD OF TIME to the commission, and agreed to by artist)
- I have the right to refuse a commission
- I reserve the right to change and alter my terms of service and commission prices (if the price has already been stated before I made any changes to my prices, I will not be asking you to pay more)
- Unless specifically stated that I would, I will not work on a piece without a clear reference to work from (meaning no traditionally drawn references, I have an eye deficiency and I need a clear reference to work off of since I will be color picking each and every little thing since I cannot see a lot of colors)

Buyer Rights

- As the commissioner you're free to post and share your picture as much as you would like, you bought it after all so you are more than welcome to post the work! (with credit to me of course)
- Do NOT use the commissioned piece for commercial purposes. Including but not limited to: buttons, shirts, prints sold for profit, etc. However, printing and using for personal use is completely fine by me! You should not be able to make profit off of a piece unless specifically discussed with me prior to doing so.

Payment Rules and Regulations

- Payment is accepted through PayPal (USD) unless specifically stated otherwise.
- I typically don't take payment until the sketch is finished, this is to ensure peace of mind for the commissioner. If you, as the commissioner, would like to pay ahead of time, this is fine as well. Just keep in mind my wait times.
- NO refunds will be issued on finished pieces. All payments are final.

Alterations (AKA Changes to the Artwork)

- If changes need to be made due to me misreading the information, all alterations will be made completely free of charge.
- If Changes need to be made AFTER the initial sketch stage due to insufficient or incorrect information from the commissioner, fees may be applied.
- I'm willing to make small adjustments that are not outrageous for free (including things such as, adding small props, changing the background, adding in small details, etc.)

How Long Pieces Tend to Take (Time Rules)

- A rush fee can be applied if you want your piece bumped to the front of the queue (prices may vary depending on what the piece is and how long I get to finish it)
- Time limits are not allowed to be given to me unless you are specifically buying a rush order, I understand that you may be worried that you won't get your piece. It is why I don't take payment until after I've at LEAST done the sketch for the person buying the art
- Art takes time, please do not rush me as I have other things going on in my life other than just art. I will try my hardest to keep in contact with you as I work on the piece. Sending images of every stage of the piece if you'd like as well.
- If I haven't contacted you in a while and you would like to hear from me, feel free to message me !!
