ACID SURVIVORS FOUNDATION (ASF)

TITLE: ASF PROJECT DETAILS 2000-2021

Period	Donor Organization	Purpose/Project	Funding Covered Activities/Services	Grant Value
2000-2004	The Kadoorie Charitable Foundation	Operation theatre upgrading and training of the local surgeons	- Upgrading operation theatre dedicated to acid survivors - Organizing a programme for over 03 years where experienced foreign plastic surgeons voluntarily trained Bangladeshi surgeons at the DMCH	BDT 9,736,527
2004-2008	Manusher Jonno Foundation (MJF)	Addressing the causes and social effects of Acid Attacks	- Capacity Building support to survivors - Rehabilitation support to survivors - Interim family support to survivors - Educational support to survivors - Job placement for survivors; - Workshop training with local community and organization; - Workshop with local government - Capacity building for plastic surgeon - Local training and workshop-medical training; - Cross learning visit - Food and other necessities for survivors	BDT 50,000,000

2004-2010(EKN) 2004-2011(CIDA)	Embassy of Kingdom of Netherlands (EKN) Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA)	Support to Acid Survivors Foundation (Medical and core cost)	- Core cost - Notification and referral services - Patient transportation cost - Hospital set up and maintenance cost - Treatment cost - Psychosocial support to survivors - Skills training to survivors; - Prevention and advocacy - Rehabilitation and legal support to survivors - Management and internal operating cost - Develop management information system development	BDT 159,279,980
2008-2011	DFID through Manusher Jonno Foundation (MJF)	Addressing the causes and social effects of Acid Violence	- Active involvement of civil society at district level to address the cause and effects of acid violence - Public (grassroots level) awareness raising meetings; - School campaign in 9 districts - Strengthen working relation with media - Update / develop materials and disseminate messages through TV & newspaper for raising mass awareness on different issues; - Day observation to express solidarity with others working on VAW issues and to create mass awareness and sensitization - Maintain resource center and provide information/materials to NGOs, networks, media, students, and researchers working on VAW issues; - Organize an International Conference on VAW focusing on acid violence to create a platform to share experiences from different countries on combating acid and other form of violence against women - Advocacy & lobby activities at districts level	BDT 35,803,664

			- Community level meetings; - Increased knowledge of the health service providers on immediate burn anagement
2009-2010	European Commission (EC)	Combating causes and effects of Acid Violence	- Psychosocial situation analysis - TNA, module development - Develop and print grassroots / IEC materials - ToT on enhancing psycho-social capacities and local conflict management capacities - Awareness building of community leaders; - Local level facilitators knowledge and skills are refreshed; - Review meetings with partners	BDT 7,876,730
2009-2011	Deutsche Gesellschaft für Technische Zusammenarbeit (German Technical Cooperation) or GiZ	Legal support to survivors of Acid Violence	- Maintain 24 hours telephone hotline and network with local organizations, media, local administration, individuals to identify any new acid attack incident - Bring survivors to Dhaka for treatment and ensure legal services - Visit courts and lobby with public prosecutors, police station and lobby with investigating authority; - Implement awareness raising meeting with survivors and their family and witness for court appearance and follow-up cases in the court - Participate in NACC meeting and contribute in developing policy, rules and procedures and advocacy for law implementation.	BDT 8,549,041

2009-2011	Australian Government AusAID	Help Acid Survivors rebuild their lives	- Social Skills Training for Survivors; - Vocational Training Costs for Survivors/ IGA - Community Meetings / Gathering - Transport, food, accommodation, others for Survivors & Family; Monitoring & Networking Cost for survivors & Staff	BDT 7,534,854

2010-2011	The United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF)	Strengthening psychosocial services for survivors of Acid Attack	- Leadership training for the survivors - Life skill training for the survivors; - Training capacity building of partners and ASF on Psychosocial Issues and help the child victim - Psychosocial training for community leaders - Regional conference of survivors - Art & Music Therapy - Counseling; hospitalization charges - Education support; Income generation activities - Door to door visit; Community campaign (school, college, community etc.)	BDT 11,233,146
2011-2013	Manusher Janna Foundation (MJF)	Combating Acid Violence in Bangladesh	- Core cost - Treatment cost of survivors - Office furniture and equipment - Vehicle management - Staffs salary - Field visits - Annual campaign at district and community level - Material development and message dissemination - Day observations; capacity building of health professionals - Education and income generation support to survivors - Conduct action research on bio-psychosocial model - Upgrade and enhance ASF hospital facilities	BDT 87,044,978

2012-2014	Australian Agency for International Development (AusAID)	Combating Acid and Burn Violence in Bangladesh	- National conference with social welfare officers / BRAC / Acid Seller's Association / PP & Police/Health/Home/NGOAB - Psycho-social services to burns victims in Govt. Hospitals (psychologist, physiotherapist, speech Therapist fees etc.) - Rehabilitation and legal support to survivors	BDT 52,114,840

			- Capacity building of health professionals - International burn conference - Improve hospital facilities (Hospital Bed, mattress, instrument, refurbishment etc.); - Survivors' national conference - Develop photo publication to aid awareness raising programs - National survey of acid victims - Conduct research on perpetrator's psychology and contributing social factors
2012-2014	The United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF)	Survivors network for prevention and better inclusion	- Strengthening psychosocial services for survivors of acid attacks	BDT 14,887,510
2013	High Commission of Canada	Improving hospital facilities for Acid violence survivors	- Medical instrument including Skin Mesher set for skin grafting and ENT Diagnostic set - Office equipment and furniture replacement	BDT 2,335,000

2013-2015	King Baudouin Foundation	Survivors reintegration project	Conduct income generating trainings for survivors on three issues: - Computer basics - Sewing and handicrafts - Electrical installation and maintenance'	BDT 2,675,000
2013-2014	Australian High Commission	Research for effective Reintegration of People with Disfigurements and Factors Inhabiting Legal Justice of Acid Violence Victims	Conduct two research on: - Coping with disfigurement: A focus on survivors of acid and other burn violence - Implementation status of the 'acid offences Prevention Act 2002 and 'acid control Act 2002' in Bangladesh	BDT 2,000,000
2013-2017	DFID and AusAID through Manusher Janna Foundation (MJF)	Combating acid and burn violence in Bangladesh	- Core cost - Notification and referral services - Direct treatment support - Psychological and physiotherapy support	BDT 54,332,621

			- Legal support - Social reintegration - Prevention, - Advocacy and lobby, - Capacity building of survivors on leadership, Psycho-social issues
2013-2016	Interburns UK	Improving clinical outcomes for 10,000 burn patients in Bangladesh and Nepal by implementing improved standards of burn care	- Implement operational standards of burn care for basic, intermediate and advanced levels of service - Organize training on essential burn care (EBC) and advance burn care (ABC) for burn care professionals - Develop burn care instructors through providing ToT on essential burn care - Conduct primary and delivery level assessment on burn care management	BDT 4,892,473

2014-2016	The United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF)	Survivors Network for Prevention and Better Inclusion (Phase-II)	- Prevention, protection and respond to survivors of acid violence - Develop survivors' network; - Rehabilitation support	BDT 26,104,873
2015	Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany	Improvement of Medical Facilities for Survivors of Acid Violence	- Upgrade/improve the medical facilities at ASF hospital by procuring new equipment in order to provide better treatment for survivors of acid violence	BDT 1,199,820
2015-2016	Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, Australian High Commission	Combating Acid and Burn Violence in Bangladesh	- Core cost, - Direct treatment support - Psychological and physiotherapy support - Provide burn patients support at government hospitals - Program support cost	BDT 26,511,750
2016-2017	Australian High Commission	Promoting the rights of acid survivors in the District of Dinajpur	- Conduct trainings with the targeted groups on rights and advocacy, leadership and groups management - Developing the draft operational guideline and the sustainability plan for the survivors group - Organize monthly group meetings with the members of the survivors' groups	BDT 2,368,200

			- Organize courtyard meetings, mass gathering, door to door visit, etc. - Formation of 1 survivors' group coordination Committee at district level - Conduct skill development trainings for the members of Survivors' groups - Develop linkage of survivors with the private sectors, Govt. departments such as Social Welfare/MoWCA/Local Govt. Institutions, NGOs and different local micro-finance institutions to receive supports/loan for starting their business

April 2016 to March 2019	Interburns	Reducing mortality and morbidity from burn injuries by transforming national programmes of burn care and prevention in Bnagladesh and Nepal	- Organize training on essential burn care (EBC) and basic burn care (ABC) for burn care professionals - Develop burn care Instructors through providing ToT on essential burn care - Conduct primary and delivery level - assessment on burn care management - Coordination meeting with the burn care professionals - Conduct data validation	BDT 47,58,825
Sep 2016- Feb 2017	Canada Fund for Local Initiatives (CFLI)	Combat acid and other forms of VAW/G through raising awareness.	Overall objective: to reduce acid and other forms of VAW/G in Bangladesh. Specific objective: relevant stakeholders are sensitized to prevent and respond acid and other forms of VAW/G.	BDT 21,00,000.00
2016-2017	Australian High Commission, Direct Aid Program	Promoting the rights of acid survivors in the District of Comilla	To create an enabling environment for acid survivors of four groups in the district of Comilla to live with dignity in their communities through attaining self reliance and accessing rights	BDT 2,351,751

April 2017 to March 2019	The Kadoorie Charitable Foundation	Direct programme supports for acid burn survivors	- Providing physical and psychological health support - Organize patient outreach program - Work with other burn units of government hospitals to improve burn management - Capacity building of health professionals - Improvement of pressure garments facilities for burn patients	BDT 49,983,881

April 2017 to March 2019	Global Fund for Women	South Asia Young Women's Leadership and mentoring initiatives	- Nominate one young woman leader (YWL) under the age of 35 - Participation of YWL in Training of Trainers (TOTs) - YWL will facilitate the leadership capacity of at least 10 other young women leaders in their respective communities and locations - Capacity building of 10 young women's leadership - Record keeping and process documentation - Introduce Organizational Self-Assessment Tool and Movement Capacity Assessment Tool to assess	BDT 24,73,875

			current practice and capacity in building young women's leadership
May 2017 to May 2019	Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, Australian High Commission	ICT based response and support mechanism to address Violence against Women and Girls	To strengthen integrated approach to prevent and respond to acid and other forms of violence against women through ICT initiatives at the selected districts	BDT 34,424,688
January 2017 to December 2017	Square Toiletries	Promoting Self-Employment for the Survivors of Acid and Other Burn Violence	To create self-employment for the survivors of acid and other burn violence through strengthen their capacities and income-generating initiatives	BDT 1,351,225
October 2017 to September 2019	Australian High Commission, Direct Aid Program	Engaging men and boys against violence against women and Girls (EMB-VAWG)	To create an enabling environment for the survivors to live in inclusive society in the selected district of Bangladesh through reducing VAWG and accessing rights	BDT 3,780,000

2018-2018	Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany	Joyful Learning Centre for the Survivors (JLCS)	- Arrange training for 10 survivors on basic computer - Arrange training for 5 survivors on handicrafts - Arrange training for 1 survivors on food and confectionary items - Provide seed money to start IGA in selected area Communicate with the local relevant stakeholders/entrepreneurs/private sectors for market linkages of survivors' product	BDT 1,199,500
Sep30, 2018- June 30, 2019	UNDP	'Study on Good Practices and Possible Mechanism to Address Gender-Based Violence'	Inception meeting Data collection from field Resurch, Investigation and reporting	BDT 20,86,243
January 2019- January 2021	MJF -UKAid	Prevention, respond and resilience building to address burn violence	- Organize community and educational institution based awareness campaign - Provide tele counselling services to survivors of acid and other forms of VAWG (budget for professional supports)	BDT 4,67,56,515
1st January to 31st December 2023	DAP project by AUSAID	Strengthening Acid Survivors' Network (ASN) to eliminate acid and other forms of gender-based violence	a. Develop the capacity of the members of the Acid Survivors' Network on gender and leadership aspects b. Increase awareness of the community on acid and other forms of gender-based violence c. Increase the accessibility of the survivors to the services provided by the stakeholders (Government and Non-Government organizations)	BDT 31,69,887
1 December 2023- 31 July 2024	British Asian Trust	Enhancement of Mental Health Support System for Acid & Burn Violence Survivors	- Providing psychological health support - Training on Mental Health counselling .	BDT 35,49,944
17th December 2024- 17th August 2025	British Asian Trust	Mental Health and Livelihood Support for Acid & Other Burn Violence Survivors	- Providing psychological health support - Training on Mental Health - Survivors empowerment training And Job placement	BDT 58,50,000

June'20 to Continue	UK Charity Services	Direct Support to Acid Burn Patients Including their Treatment	- Providing physical and psychological health support - Organize Patient Outreach Program - Work with other Burn Units of Government - Improvement of Pressure Garments Facilities for Burn Patients	BDT 1,42,07,771