

9th - 12th Grade EL at-home Activities

Use notebook paper & a pencil or your Chromebook to complete these activities. Do one each day!

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Writing Choose any book, TV show or movie. Write an essay summarization, and then write and illustrate an alternate ending.	Readworks.org Go to your library and select a text and complete the questions at the end.	Storyboard That Create a visual retelling of a story you've read or a movie you've seen.	ACT Vocab Go to this link to practice ACT vocab by playing the rice game.	Grammar Go to this website and select the level that fits with your English proficiency and begin reviewing the different aspects of grammar.
Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Poetry Learn about acrostic poems! This is an interactive website where you will learn about this type of poem and make your own. Feel free to share with your teachers!	Readworks.org Go to your library and select a text and complete the questions at the end.	Short Story Read The Lady or the Tiger? And write your own ending.	ACT Vocab Practice this set of ACT vocab from quizlet . There are many options to learn these words: matching games, gravity game, practice tests, and note cards.	Grammar Go to this website and select the level that fits with your English proficiency and begin reviewing the different aspects of grammar.

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Poetry Learn about diamante poems! This is an interactive website where you will learn about this type of poem and create your own. Share with your teacher!	Readworks.org Go to your library and select a HISTORICAL text and complete the questions at the end.	Short Story Go on a walk in your neighborhood and make 10 observations. When you return home, use those observations to create a short story.	ACT Vocab Practice this set of ACT vocab from quizlet. Use 10 of the words in original sentences. Bonus? Use 10 words in a story!	Grammar Go to Grammar Ninja and see if you can defeat the game!
Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Writing Complete a quick write and try to fill a full page. You can select your own prompt or choose one here writing prompts	Reading Listen to a podcast. 25+ Best Podcasts for Kids in Elementary, Middle, & High School. Draw a picture that explains what you listen to today. You can use sketches in shapes and words, but avoid using sentences.	Short Story Read The Lottery by Shirley Jackson. Write a one-page composition presenting your attitudes toward the place of tradition in society. Provide reasons and examples to support your opinion	ACT/SAT Spend some time preparing for the ACT ACT Academy Spend some time preparing for the SAT SAT Test prep	Grammar Spend some time preparing to play a grammar game. Grammar Arts and Humanities

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Writing Find a current article about one of your favorite celebrities - a famous person. Celebrities Articles Read the article and highlight or underline parts of the article you think are important, Write a well written summary of the article you read.	Reading Listen to a podcast. 25+ Best Podcasts for Kids in Elementary, Middle, & High School. Write a one page response that explains why you should listen to a podcast. What sorts of sounds does a podcast use besides interviews?	Short Story Read How Should You Handle the End of a Friendship? Write a one-page narrative about the end of a long term friendship. Write the story in the first person.	ACT/SAT Spend some time preparing for the ACT. ACT Academy Spend some time preparing for the SAT. SAT Test prep	Grammar Go to Grammar Ninja and see if you can defeat the game!