

Terms Of Service

COMMISSION TERMS OF SERVICE

- i will NOT take commissions from proshippers, zoophiles, right wingers, etc. if you're any of these please don't interact with me, period.
- I take PayPal, Venmo, cashapp and Ko-Fi. I very highly prefer all payment upfront. If necessary I can do half before and half after.
- Please be kind about the price! I'm aware they are high to some which is understandable! I charge based on the average time taken for each type of artwork and charge based on how I want to be paid per hour. I usually price with a $20 an hour base. Statistically the current livable hourly wage to afford rent and housing costs is an estimated $35 an hour, but I try to keep my prices a bit under that for relative affordability. If you inquire about commissions and then complain in a rude way about price I likely will not take the commission. Please be kind <3
- Please keep in mind my mental dilemmas when you inquire about, request updates on or feel impatient about a commission! i have a part time job and many mental issues that affect my motivation so patience is appreciated. you are always welcome to ask for updates on the commission, preferably 1-2 days between each update so I have time to work on it between!
- Please do not request commission updates more than once per day! this can stress me out and I have a lot of things i need to tend to each day that sometimes take up some of my time(taking care of my fish, caring for Tux(feral cat I'm caring for), doing chores, at work, etc). I tend to send progress pictures multiple times per hour if I'm working on this commission in a large sitting so you will be updated!
- Please inform me of preferences and details you need on the commission beforehand to help me out!
- If you see anything that needs changed please let me know ASAP so it's easily correctable, rather than later where I'll have to redo multiple layers! large changes near the end of a piece may require additional charge due to the amount of work needed to add the change.
- If you have a question about a commission type that isn't in my website, DM me! Be an adult if you want to ask about NSFW. Even then NSFW commissions would be extremely limited and not sexually graphic, most I'd be willing to do is like a naked anthro character. genitals must be humanoid and I will not ever reference animal parts for genitals, if you ask or desire this you will be blacklisted.
- i will never do any commissions that desire to include hateful ideologies.
- Whether it's a commission you paid for or art, you cannot claim the art as yours OR use it to feed AI. you will be blacklisted.

REFUNDS

I do refunds based on how far along I am in the piece. If you have a financial issue come up please tell me ASAP to catch me early in the process so we can work it out! I do not accept refunds after or during the coloring stage as that part is the most work!

Requesting refund at/during sketch stage: Full refund

Requesting refund at/during lineart stage: 60% refund

Requesting refund at/during coloring stage and thereafter: Not available! Let me know if something payment wise comes up as early as possible to catch me before this point. Individual cases may vary especially if I'm super early into coloring!

DESIGN TERMS OF SERVICE

breaking any of these may result in blacklisting

- NEVER do feral NSFW of any of my designs EVER. PERIOD. Anthro humanlike NSFW is really on the line for me but isn't an offense(since it's not romanticizing the animal or creature itself or creature/animal genitals)AS LONG AS IT IS TAGGED PROPERLY SO MINORS DO NOT SEE. Anthro NSFW with animal genitals is an offense however because ew.
- Cooldown is 3 weeks, aka 21 days.
- Do not upsell
- Art obtained for free doesn't add to monetary worth of character if being sold
- If you obtained my design via a trade or as a gift you cannot sell them for money, please trade or gift them! Selling traded or gifted characters causes a lot of cases of upselling and therefore makes me uncomfortable
- Please do not redesign beyond recognition(cause why get them then ?? 😞)
- Never sell or give any design of mine to anyone on my blacklist
