

Privacy Policy

Space Games Company (together, “Space Games Company” or “we”) respects the privacy rights of our users and is committed to protecting the personal information collected about you. We have adopted this Privacy Policy to explain how we collect, store, and use the information you provide us. By using the Space Games Company Services, you signify your assent to the terms of the Privacy Policy. We reserve the right to make changes in this Privacy Policy, so please check back from time to time to ensure you are aware of any changes. Your continued use of the Services will signify your acceptance of these changes.

What Does This Privacy Policy Cover?

This Privacy Policy covers the treatment of personally identifiable information (“Personal Information”) gathered when you are using or accessing the Services. This Privacy Policy also covers our treatment of any Personal Information that our business partners share with us or that we share with our business partners.

This Privacy Policy does not apply to the practices of third parties that we do not own or control, including but not limited to any third-party websites, services, and applications (“Third Party Services”) that you elect to access through the Service or to individuals that we do not manage or employ. While we attempt to facilitate access only to those Third Party Services that share our respect for your privacy, we cannot take responsibility for the content or privacy policies of those Third Party Services. We encourage you to carefully review the privacy policies of any Third Party Services you access.

What Data Do We Collect and Why?

Personal Data. We may collect personal data that identifies you if you submit it to us (for example, if you sign up for our subscription emails or send us an email query regarding the Services). We may use this data to provide Services to you, improve our Services, and contact you.

Analytics Data. We use analytical services and other tools (such as Fabric and Facebook Analytics) on areas of our Services, which enable us to collect your usage data relating to our Services as well as information on your device properties. Based on this data, we may create statistics, provide better services to our customers, and analyze and further develop our Services. We treat this information as non-personal data.

Data Security and Sharing

Data Security. All of your data is protected in accordance with generally acceptable industry standards, and although no system is 100% secure, we take reasonable steps to safeguard your data from unauthorized access. We may use partners and contractors to process data for us in accordance with this Privacy Policy, and in such cases, we take steps to ensure that your data is kept secure.

Data Sharing. We do not share your personal data with third parties without your consent unless we are compelled to do so by law or when we face exceptional situations, such as detection or prevention of misuse or criminal activities. We may process your data outside the country where you live (for example, if you are an EU citizen, outside the EU or the European Economic Area). This can happen if, for instance, the service provider of our analytical services is located outside your country. In such cases, we will take steps to ensure that your personal data is processed lawfully and in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

External Links

Our Services may contain links to external sites, such as Facebook and Twitter, and link content from external third-party sources. Please note that the use of such third-party sites or content is subject to the privacy policies and usage terms of the third party in question instead of our own terms, and we do not have control or assume any liability over such content.

Policy Updates

This Policy may change from time to time. We will always keep this up to date so that you know what information we will collect from you, how we may use it, and when we may disclose it.
