Pain-Away Poultice

Topical relief for bruises,
inflammation, aches & pains

Organic Ingredients: comfrey, calendula petals, lemon balm,
oatstraw, oatmeal, slippery elm bark. Directions: steep bag in boiled water for 1 minute, let cool so you don't burn yourself, then apply bag
to affected area for 10-20 minutes. Re-soak in "tea"
liquid and reapply as needed.

FOR TOPICAL USE ONLY!

T1. Pain-Away Poultice: A blend of organic healing herbs for muscle and joint pain, skin bruising and inflammation, strains and sprains. Just wet/steep the bag in boiled water for 1 minute, let cool a bit so you don't burn yourself, then apply it to the affected area for 10-20 minutes. Re-soak in the "tea" liquid and reapply as needed.

Ingredients: organic comfrey, organic calendula petals, homegrown lemon balm, organic oatstraw, oatmeal, organic slippery elm bark. Price: $2 per poultice sachet (1/5 oz).

Caution: This is for applying on the skin, not for drinking! Comfrey is now considered toxic if ingested, although historically it was consumed as a tisane in Europe for medicinal purposes.

T2. “Steeping Beauty” Herbal Bath Blend! A combination of herbs and flowers to soothe the skin and relax the body and mind. Just toss the cloth bag in the tub and soak to your heart’s content! Once you have finished bathing, you can empty out the cloth bag and fill it with potpourri, jewelry, etc.

Ingredients: Green Rooibos, Honeysuckle flowers, Lemon Balm (Melissa), Linden, Comfrey Leaf, Oatstraw, Rose petals, Chamomile, Jasmine, Lavender, Passionflower, Chrysanthemum, Calendula, Violet Flowers.

Price: $3 per bath bag (1/2 oz) in an unbleached paper teabag.
$4 per cloth bath bag (¾ oz) in a reusable cotton cloth bag.

Caution: This is for the bathtub, not for drinking! Comfrey is now considered toxic if ingested, although historically it was consumed as a tisane in Europe for medicinal purposes.
