

No Woman I've Found by: Madison|LST

[So I don't want you to rely on me, 'cause I won't be there for you.]

[No woman I've found, can slow me down.]

Except her.

I'll slow down to address her.

I'll go out of my way to impress her.

I'll put in the time and the effort

The rhyme and the smooth words in order to hear her's.

Words, when spoken the fall softly.

But the silence between 'em is what draws me.

I could see the emotion is unspoken, the bond will be unbroken, the feeling is so potent.

And she responds so sweetly, and yet we only met briefly

And I tend to fall head over heels, 'cause often it's too hard to fight the way you feel

So I try to place space between us, 'cause already I'm acting as if I need her

When what I need is to step back and ease up

I really should stay away but. . .

[no woman I've found]

Is as captivating | when we talk it is passed amazing | when she walks it is incapacitating

[no woman I've found]

Can do what she does | and I know that she do it for love | and if we could do it together, I'll do it for us

[no woman I've found]

Compares to her | see the way the sun glares for her | see the way the stars light the night air for her

[no woman I've found]

Locks me in | I need her love like oxygen | she asks me just to walk her in and then...

I get involved against my better judgement

Then again, who am I to judge this

Shit

I drop my guard again, she draws me in, I'm stuck in love's jaws again

Trapped

And I don't even wanna escape, honestly it's a contradiction I hate

I really need to rearrange what I'm doin' before this girl leads me to my romantic ruin

Yet she remains on my mind, I visualize our lives intertwined.

'Cause every time she puts her hands in mine, when our palms combine, our life lines align

Damn

I'm gettin' carried away, I'm actin' like we're gettin' married today

I know I tend to get ahead of myself, but how the fuck can I fight something that I can't help

[no woman I've found]

Is as captivating | when we talk it is passed amazing | when she walks it is incapacitating

[no woman I've found]

Can do what she does | and I know that she do it for love | and if we could do it together, I'll do it for us

[no woman I've found]

Compares to her | see the way the sun glares for her | see the way the stars light the night air for her

[no woman I've found]

Locks me in | I need her love like oxygen | she asks me just to walk her in and then...

*Lyrics in brackets[] are sampled lyrics from Daniel, Fred & Julie - "The Runner"

I do not own any of these lyrics.

© Madison|LST (demo)