

Some California men are building a hotel at Collin's Landing, Skamania county, near the mineral springs, with the intention of establishing a summer resort.

G. W. Durgin has completed a very substantial sidewalk in front of his store and residence property, and the same has been extended in front of the Whitebread house.

Vancouver has become so distressingly healthy that our one physician has no regular patients but those in the hospital, sore throat, measles, and the "isms" being about all run through.

A mischevious young man has requested us to say that "if the young man who went to call on his girl on Fourth street Sunday night, but who suddenly left the front door and shot out of the yard with a dog attached to the dome of his trousers, will return the dog, a reward of five dollars will be paid by the girl's father and no questions asked."
