

"Have you seen Sol Ruiz? If you have seen or listened to her it is impossible for you to forget her."

- D-Mag (Italy)

"The space fills with her energetic style, her sharp voice, and her exuberance. Sol is a show to see and a joy to hear. Every note goes through you!"

- Blog Officine Corsare (Italy)

"like the painter Frida Kahlo, she not only entices curiosity by her work, the pieces that she composes, plays and sings, but also by her stories out of the ordinary, the clothes she wears, and her capacity to travel across different cultures."

- Unico Magazine (Italy)

"show girl with triple nationality: cuban from Miami residing in Turin. More than that are her artistic residences: musically Sol lives the blues, son cubano, soul mariachi and funk from New Orleans."

-Radio Flash (Italy)

"Multi-talented firework performer Sol Ruiz also known as "the female Manu Chao".

- Rocknrolla Magazine (Norway)

"The cuban essence in her DNA is evident, but there is much more to her than that: there is jazz from the golden era, melodies and the gut voice of ballad singers and troubadours who have open the roads to the world."

- The Urban Best (Italy)

"Above all she has the energy and melancholy of cuban music"

- La Stampa (Italy)

Miami's Songwriter of the year 2012

"Is she a hippie, a gypsy, a nomad, or a crazy, soulful, lovely, lusty Cuban musical genius? All of the above, and a work of art to boot"

- Miami New Times

"Sol is a sight to see, a joy to hear, and her 2010 CD, titled OUTLANDER, is a wonder to behold."

- GotFolk (USA)

"Her presence, the way she plays; full of life and passion, more for the music and less for the spotlight, draws you in."

- Remezcla (USA)

Best local album 2009

- Miami New Times (USA)

The Miami-born Ruiz, who has earned a much-deserved reputation as "the Cuban Janis Joplin"

- Sun-sentinel (USA)

"multiculti and artsy while still being radio-ready."

- Miami New Times (USA)

"Miami's own peripatetic soul rebel and tropical troubadour — is simply a badass."

- FlavorPill (USA)
