, Many people are taking online courses. Is this a good idea? What do you think?

- flexibility

- variety available

-your own idea

Name	Flexibility	Variety available	Your own idea
Boti	So flexible because it is easy and lot of people use this.	You can choose between a lot of and different courses.	It is good I think because you can learn a lot of things in one course.
Márton	So flexible because you do not have to take a lesson in an exact time. You do not have to go to school	You can choose between courses	You can use only computer instead of books
Bende	Can be accessed basically anywhere, making it flexible	As much variety as normal school	Less expensive than college, more comfortable
Z.T.	FLEXIBLE, because you can learn anytime and anywhere	You can choose between different courses	You can learn things that school can't teach you
Kristóf	Faster learning. Better to learn alone,because other classmates can be so irritating. You can learn when you want.	The variety can be so big	It isn't a very good idea, i guess
Nico	Very flexible because you can study anytime you want, you can study from home,	No matter what student study they can found programs they need online.Students can also earn degree online.	Its more comfortable taking online classes than sitting in school and its cheaper
Virág	It's flexible, because	The variety is big,	It's a good decision, you can study anywhere and anytime when you want. And it's save your energy.	because there are many options you can choose.	because it's easy to do, and you can

Linci	It's flexible because, you can study from home, and you can organize your day according the course.	There is a big variety of online courses, and everybody can choose one according what they want to learn	It's make your life easier if you don't have much time
Sára
Gyuri	Because you can decide what time you want to learn.	There is a lot of variety and you can choose between different courses	I think it's better in a lot of ways because nowadays you can find anything on the internet and putting studying courses on the internet helps you reach everything and you don't have to go anywhere
Máté	You can learn from home at anytime you want	You can learn about anything you want	I dont have any ideas to improve the system
Gergő	Its flexibilty cause you pick up your phone and you can learn everywhere and everytime when you want	You can learn the all collection of languages and other seubjects	I think on online learning there is no harshness but the other hand it is very great:)
Andris	Its flexible because e you can learn when you have time to	You can learn what you want to, theres a variety of subject you can chose from.	Personally I think its a very cool idea to make online courses, because there are a lot of professional people out there who want to share t knowledge with other people. And this is defenatly a fast and practical way of it.

Lacika	Really flexibile af cause u can learn when u want to	- very variety cause you can learn in your own way,just how you want it <3 You can change in your own way. You dont have to stick to your teacher	I think its bad for them that they are not in a socity cecause they have to learn alone. My idea would be to 5-6 children have to learn together in%%
