

2-Week Livestream Forecast

All times Eastern. I use the American system of dates (month/day) and the American system of telling the days of the week (Sunday starts the week).

Expect days further out to have a bit more wiggly schedules. Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays are usually stream-free, but if I'm particularly inspired (or I have a lot of work to do, or a holiday) I might do one. I do have tendonitis so sometimes streams must be canceled/rescheduled to allow my arms some rest... apologies if that's a bit annoying, but working through the pain is pretty bad health-wise. ;)

Until the end of September I'm going to be fairly busy with moving (again!) and some extra NDA work, but it should be back to the normal Tuesday-Thursday-Weekend schedule before you know it!

Sunday (8/24) — evening mystery time (commission work)

Friday (8/29) — none (gym)
