

This list is not exhaustive. There are more resources and more education to be done on this subject. We are not experts. We are sharing work we've been inspired or influenced by ourselves. Hopefully, you find it helpful as you try to live actively anti-racist.

As we continue to do the work within ourselves, this list may be updated. However, as mentioned in the podcast episode, GOOGLE is quite useful for answering questions.

If you use any of the resources provided, may we encourage you to donate, purchase, or support via patreon these influential leaders. Many have paypal, cashapp, or venmo links on their website and you can give to them to say thank you for their work.
