o Upcoming Events:

Committee updates

- Apr 9th: FUN RUN- good amount of volunteers signed up. Using the new walking path for the first time for this event! $15,000 raised so far!
- Yearbook- last club meeting was on Tuesday. The deadline to order a yearbook is on Friday. Please send all pictures by 5pm tomorrow (4/9) for the yearbook, including any you get from the Fun Run tomorrow.
- Garden Club- Donation of flower starts just came in and will be planted tomorrow afternoon. Reminder that the 2nd round of Garden Club was recently opened up to all grades. Kids that haven't been in a club yet this year will be prioritized, will do a lottery and 30 kids will be able to participate
- Earth Day planting- kids will get to plant during recess, need volunteers for that during lunch recess, email bearspto@gmail.com if you want to help
- Staff Appreciation
 - o Card tables at recess (most likely on Tues and Thurs)- will need volunteers for that
- May 13, 5-8pm- Burgerville Dine-Out at Walker and 185th (awaiting confirmation)
- May 29th Spring Festival/Book Fair (Book Fair also on 5/28)- signups will be sent out soon for volunteers. We are planning to not have volunteers all out in the sun. Found a company to rent activities from in addition to having OMSI there.

i. Volunteer Opportunities

- Bears Recycle 4/16
- Earth Day: wildflower planting at recess 4/22
- Staff appreciation cards at recess- Week of 4/27

● New Business

1. Bylaw amendment proposal (see document with proposed changes)- Article 2-Purpose, Article 4- Policies, Article 5: Membership, Article 8: Duties of Officers and Board Members
2. Conversation around Article 4 specific to supporting including the preschool in school-wide "events" such as spirit wear shirts. Concerns about proposed wording and being mindful of the intent of the proposed change. Conversation about what should be a bylaw and what should be part of policies and procedures. More conversation at the next meeting.
