Course Description

SPED 173 is the second of three required supervised clinical practice experiences in the program. Education Specialist candidates will take part in three full days per week, full semester [18 hours per week in classroom; 21 hours per week including ½ hour before and ½ hour after school time included] experience serving culturally and linguistically diverse identified children with mild/moderate and extensive needs, some of whom may also be identified as English learners. This clinical practice experience may take place in any of these settings: grade K- 12 classroom, center-based instruction, special schools, adult transition program for students ages 18-22, inclusive settings, and/or co-teaching in a general education classroom. Candidates will spend time in the field experience completing writing and implementing lesson plans and instructional activities, providing appropriate accommodations to lessons, conducting assessments, developing curriculum and performing other professional duties of the special education teacher. Candidates are required to demonstrate competency in planning, assessment and instructional tasks required of effective special educators while steadily increasing their classroom responsibilities. Candidates will take over some small group and individual student responsibilities from the Mentor Teacher for a period of four or more weeks during the semester.

Diversity Statement: The CSU Fresno student body is one of the most diverse in the nation and proudly reflects the population of the Central Valley of California. The university serves a region with over ninety separate and identifiable ethnic and racial groups. Our students come with a variety of backgrounds, expectations, and levels of preparation. Many are first-generation college students. Many students work either full or part-time in addition to attending the university. Some students have learned English as a second language, and a cluster are international students. The University draws most of its students from the metropolitan area and the surrounding communities in Fresno, Madera, Mariposa, Kings and Tulare counties. In order to serve the needs of this large region, classes are held on the main campus, at off-campus locations. To accommodate student needs and serve the rural locations classes are also taught either partially or fully online.

The California State University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, veteran status, marital status, religion, sexual orientation, or disability. The university supports an academic and work environment that protects dignity and promotes the mutual respect of faculty, staff, and students. In the P12 Educational Leadership department diversity is a celebrated component of our program, and is respected, shared and celebrated in our work with each other and is reflected in our work products.

Expectations for understanding Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI): The definitions listed below can be credited to UC Berkeley Center for Equity, Inclusion, and Diversity and the University of Houston's Center for Diversity and Inclusion. These definitions are by no means exhaustive. Rather, they are meant to provide a foundational knowledge in the areas of diversity, equity, and inclusion. It is also easier to embrace something when we understand it.

- Diversity: Includes but is not limited to race, color, ethnicity, nationality, religion, socioeconomic status, veteran status, education, marital status, language, age, gender, gender expression, gender identity, sexual orientation, mental or physical ability, genetic information, and learning styles.
- Equity: The guarantee of fair treatment, access, opportunity, and advancement for all while striving to identify and eliminate barriers that have prevented the full participation of some groups. The principle of equity acknowledges that there are historically under-served and under-represented populations and that fairness regarding these unbalanced conditions is needed to assist equality in the provision of effective opportunities to all groups.

- Inclusion: Authentically bringing traditionally excluded individuals and/or groups into processes, activities, and decision/policy making in a way that shares power and ensures equal access to opportunities and resources. Diversity advocate Verna Myers coined the phrase “Diversity is being invited to the party. Inclusion is being asked to dance.”

Major Assignments

1. Attend weekly meetings called by the University Coach.
2. Pre-Disposition Survey and Post-Disposition Survey. Developing dispositions essential to becoming a professional educator is required of the Multiple Subject Credential Program. Teacher candidates are required to:
 - a. Complete the pre-disposition survey during week 1 or 2 of the semester.
 - b. Discuss the results with your University Coach and set a goal for an area of growth.
 - c. Complete the post-disposition survey during week 15 or 16 of the semester.
3. Clinical Practice Agreement. This agreement is to be reviewed at the first triad meeting with the Teacher Candidate (TC), Mentor Teacher (MT) and University Clinical Practice Coach (CC). It is intended to assist with clarifying responsibilities as well as individualizing the gradual release plan for the TC. This is a working document that can be adjusted as needed.
 - a. The weeks shown are estimates and do not necessarily match the actual weeks of the semester. Remember that exploring and engaging with the Teaching

Performance Expectations (TPEs) must remain central to TC learning and development. This agreement is to be uploaded into the Teacher Candidate's Tk20 binder after the triad meeting.

4. Clinical Practice Experience and Logging Clinical Hours. Teacher Candidates are required to participate in a minimum of 21 hours per week in clinical placement aiming to log approximately 240-280 hours during this course.
 - a. Teacher Candidate assume responsibility for all morning routines on a daily basis.
 - b. Clinical activities may include: walking the students to the classroom, taking attendance, collecting and correcting homework, and morning review, calendar, lesson planning, co-teaching strategies, reviewing assessment data, attending professional learning community at school site, attending professional learning approved by Fresno State, attending parent-teacher conferences, attending district board meetings, etc.
5. Class Profile. Information must include a class summary of (a) English proficiency levels, (b) identified needs (IEP, 504, behavioral plans), (c) ethnicity, and (d) reading/writing proficiency (with the source of your information). In addition, the candidate will identify other information about individual students. The information gathered should directly inform your planning and instruction to ensure all students have access to the curriculum.
 - a. This information may include academic strengths and challenges, cultural background, interests, social interactions, attitude, language proficiency, health needs, etc.
 - b. A review of IEP goals, 504 plans, or behavior plans should be part of this process. Interest surveys, observations of interactions and behavior, and conversations are good sources of information.
6. Assuming Classroom Routines. The Teacher Candidate assumes responsibility of the morning routine on a daily basis as documented by the University Coach/ Mentor Teacher observation. Activities may include walking the students to the classroom, taking attendance, collecting and correcting homework, and morning review, calendar etc. Each week after the morning routine is assumed, the candidate will assume responsibility for another classroom routine.
7. Lesson Planning. Every week you will participate in the development of the weekly lesson plans with your Mentor Teacher and you will observe and ask questions about how a unit of study is put together. During the following weeks you will develop one standards-based weekly lesson plan and have them reviewed by your University Coach and/or Mentor Teacher 36 hours before each lesson is taught:

- a. Weeks 5-6 Develop one lesson for the first content area each week; include literacy instruction (TPE 7.5, 7.6)
- b. Weeks 7-8 Develop one lesson for the second content area each week; include literacy instruction (TPE 7.5, 7.6)
- c. Weeks 9-12 Develop one lesson that integrates the first and second content areas together each week; include literacy instruction (TPE 7.5, 7.6)

Use the SVP Lesson Plan Template and submit in Tk20.

Please note: At least one lesson plan and observation must demonstrate application of literacy instruction based on the CA Dyslexia Guidelines.

Each lesson will be taught, recorded while teaching, and should last at least 15-20 minutes or more. Submit the lesson plan to the Mentor Teacher and University Coach for feedback and approval at least 36 hours before the lesson is to be taught. Following the teaching of the lesson, the candidate will meet with the University Coach to debrief. Following each lesson, the Teacher Candidate will write a reflection on the lesson's strengths and challenges using the Tk20 template. The specific lessons to be taught must include the following:

MMSN	ESN
1 ELA lesson	1 ELA lesson
1 visual-performing arts mathematics	1 visual-performing arts mathematics
1 processing disorder lesson	1 behavior change lesson

9. Reflections. Six reflections are due during weeks 3 - 14 in the semester. Each reflection should be no longer than 300 words in length. Topics for the reflections will be provided in the course timeline.
10. Formal Assessment and IEP Team Meeting. The candidate conducts or co-conducts a formal assessment of a student and reflects on the process in writing. He/She/They then develop or co-develop the draft IEP and facilitate or co-facilitate the team meeting.
