

SECONDARY LIBRARY STORYTELLING TASKS

Important Dates

competition (tips, strategies).

- December 1: Last day to sign up for an audition time in your school library
- December 2-11: School Level Auditions
- December 12: Schools submit names of selected tellers
- December 15: District Storytellers Announced
- January 12: District Storytelling Festival [Time and Location TBA]
- January 16: WSU Storytellers Announced
- March 9-12: Weber State Storytelling Festival

N	lo	۷	е	n	٦ŀ	0	е	ľ
---	----	---	---	---	----	---	---	---

<ul> <li>□ Display Posters in the library and on bulletin boards.</li> <li>□ Email and/or print and deliver storytelling fliers to targeted teachers (language arts, speech, drama, advisors) to promote in their classes.</li> <li>□ If needed, recruit students from drama, debate, etc. Maybe teachers can offer extra credit or make-up credit for participating. (Show Sideshow to interested classes)</li> <li>□ Hand out storytelling flyers to interested students in the library</li> <li>□ Promote great "storytelling" books through displays (folktales, fairy tales).</li> <li>□ School-wide announcements to encourage participation.</li> <li>□ Coach students interested in storytelling, if needed.</li> <li>□ Introduce Students to resources and examples on the Storytelling Website</li> <li>□ Print storytelling audition sign-up forms and encourage students to sign up before Dec. 1</li> <li>December</li> <li>□ Dec. 1: Schedule audition times during the week of Dec. 2-11</li> <li>□ Communicate audition times with students and teachers</li> <li>□ Dec. 2-11: Student Storytelling Auditions</li> <li>□ Provide all participants with a certificate after performing</li> <li>□ Use the Storytelling Rubrid to score each audition &amp; Select your top 2 performances</li> <li>□ Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.</li> <li>□ Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>□ Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>	Nove	ember advisors) to promote in their classes.  If needed, recruit students from drama, debate, etc. Maybe teachers can offer extra credit or make-up credit for participating. (Show, Sideshow) to interested classes)  Hand out storytelling flyers to interested students in the library  Promote great "storytelling" books through displays (folktales, fairy tales).  School-wide announcements to encourage participation.  Coach students interested in storytelling, if needed.  Introduce Students to resources and examples on the Storytelling Website  Print storytelling audition sign-up forms and encourage students to sign up before Dec. 1  December  Dec. 1: Schedule audition times during the week of Dec. 2-11  Communicate audition times with students and teachers  Dec. 2-11: Student Storytelling Auditions  Provide all participants with a certificate after performing  Use the Storytelling Rubric to score each audition & Select your top 2 performances  Dec. 12: Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon  Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.  Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.  January  If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).  Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.  Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]		Display Posters in the library and on bulletin boards.
□ If needed, recruit students from drama, debate, etc. Maybe teachers can offer extra credit or make-up credit for participating. (Show_Sildeshow to interested classes) □ Hand out storytelling flyers to interested students in the library □ Promote great "storytelling" books through displays (folktales, fairy tales). □ School-wide announcements to encourage participation. □ Coach students interested in storytelling, if needed. □ Introduce Students to resources and examples on the Storytelling Website □ Print storytelling audition sign-up forms and encourage students to sign up before Dec. 1  December □ Dec. 1: Schedule audition times during the week of Dec. 2-11 □ Communicate audition times with students and teachers □ Dec. 2-11: Student Storytelling Auditions □ Provide all participants with a certificate after performing □ Use the Storytelling Rubric to score each audition & Select your top 2 performances □ Dec. 12: Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon □ Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival. □ Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.  January □ If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies). □ Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event. □ Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]		Email and/or print and deliver storytelling fliers to targeted teachers (language arts, speech, drama, credit for participating. (Show_Slideshow to interested classes)  Hand out storytelling flyers to interested students in the library  Promote great "storytelling" books through displays (folktales, fairy tales).  School-wide announcements to encourage participation.  Coach students interested in storytelling, if needed.  Introduce Students to resources and examples on the Storytelling Website  Print storytelling audition sign-up forms and encourage students to sign up before Dec. 1  December  Dec. 1: Schedule audition times during the week of Dec. 2-11  Communicate audition times with students and teachers  Dec. 2-11: Student Storytelling Auditions  Provide all participants with a certificate after performing  Use the Storytelling Rubric to score each audition & Select your top 2 performances  Dec. 12: Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon  Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.  Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.  January  If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).  Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.  Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL  Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]		advisors) to promote in their classes.
<ul> <li>Hand out storytelling flyers to interested students in the library</li> <li>Promote great "storytelling" books through displays (folktales, fairy tales).</li> <li>School-wide announcements to encourage participation.</li> <li>Coach students interested in storytelling, if needed.</li> <li>Introduce Students to resources and examples on the Storytelling Website</li> <li>Print storytelling audition sign-up forms and encourage students to sign up before Dec. 1</li> <li>December</li> <li>Dec. 1: Schedule audition times during the week of Dec. 2-11</li> <li>Communicate audition times with students and teachers</li> <li>Dec. 2-11: Student Storytelling Auditions</li> <li>Provide all participants with a certificate after performing</li> <li>Use the Storytelling Rubric to score each audition &amp; Select your top 2 performances</li> <li>Dec. 12: Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon</li> <li>Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.</li> <li>Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>January</li> <li>If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).</li> <li>Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>		If needed, recruit students from drama, debate, etc. Maybe teachers can offer extra credit or make-up
<ul> <li>□ Promote great "storytelling" books through displays (folktales, fairy tales).</li> <li>□ School-wide announcements to encourage participation.</li> <li>□ Coach students interested in storytelling, if needed.</li> <li>□ Introduce Students to resources and examples on the Storytelling Website</li> <li>□ Print storytelling audition sign-up forms and encourage students to sign up before Dec. 1</li> <li>December</li> <li>□ Dec. 1: Schedule audition times during the week of Dec. 2-11</li> <li>□ Communicate audition times with students and teachers</li> <li>□ Dec. 2-11: Student Storytelling Auditions</li> <li>□ Provide all participants with a certificate after performing</li> <li>□ Use the Storytelling Rubric to score each audition &amp; Select your top 2 performances</li> <li>□ Dec. 12: Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon</li> <li>□ Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.</li> <li>□ Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>January</li> <li>□ If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).</li> <li>□ Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>□ Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>□ Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>		credit for participating. (Show_Slideshow to interested classes)
<ul> <li>□ School-wide announcements to encourage participation.</li> <li>□ Coach students interested in storytelling, if needed.</li> <li>□ Introduce Students to resources and examples on the Storytelling Website</li> <li>□ Print storytelling audition sign-up forms and encourage students to sign up before Dec. 1</li> <li>December</li> <li>□ Dec. 1: Schedule audition times during the week of Dec. 2-11</li> <li>□ Communicate audition times with students and teachers</li> <li>□ Dec. 2-11: Student Storytelling Auditions</li> <li>□ Provide all participants with a Certificate after performing</li> <li>□ Use the Storytelling Rubric to score each audition &amp; Select your top 2 performances</li> <li>□ Dec. 12: Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon</li> <li>□ Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.</li> <li>□ Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>January</li> <li>□ If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).</li> <li>□ Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>□ Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>□ Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>		Hand out storytelling flyers to interested students in the library
<ul> <li>□ Coach students interested in storytelling, if needed.</li> <li>□ Introduce Students to resources and examples on the Storytelling Website</li> <li>□ Print storytelling audition sign-up forms and encourage students to sign up before Dec. 1</li> <li>December</li> <li>□ Dec. 1: Schedule audition times during the week of Dec. 2-11</li> <li>□ Communicate audition times with students and teachers</li> <li>□ Dec. 2-11: Student Storytelling Auditions</li> <li>□ Provide all participants with a certificate after performing</li> <li>□ Use the Storytelling Rubric to score each audition &amp; Select your top 2 performances</li> <li>□ Dec. 12: Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon</li> <li>□ Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.</li> <li>□ Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>January</li> <li>□ If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).</li> <li>□ Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>□ Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>□ Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>		Promote great "storytelling" books through displays (folktales, fairy tales).
<ul> <li>□ Introduce Students to resources and examples on the Storytelling Website</li> <li>□ Print storytelling audition sign-up forms and encourage students to sign up before Dec. 1</li> <li>December</li> <li>□ Dec. 1: Schedule audition times during the week of Dec. 2-11</li> <li>□ Communicate audition times with students and teachers</li> <li>□ Dec. 2-11: Student Storytelling Auditions</li> <li>□ Provide all participants with a certificate after performing</li> <li>□ Use the Storytelling Rubric to score each audition &amp; Select your top 2 performances</li> <li>□ Dec. 12: Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon</li> <li>□ Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.</li> <li>□ Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>January</li> <li>□ If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).</li> <li>□ Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>□ Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>□ Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>		School-wide announcements to encourage participation.
<ul> <li>□ Print storytelling audition sign-up forms and encourage students to sign up before Dec. 1</li> <li>December</li> <li>□ Dec. 1: Schedule audition times during the week of Dec. 2-11</li> <li>□ Communicate audition times with students and teachers</li> <li>□ Dec. 2-11: Student Storytelling Auditions</li> <li>□ Provide all participants with a certificate after performing</li> <li>□ Use the Storytelling Rubric to score each audition &amp; Select your top 2 performances</li> <li>□ Dec. 12: Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon</li> <li>□ Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.</li> <li>□ Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>January</li> <li>□ If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).</li> <li>□ Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>□ Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>□ Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>		Coach students interested in storytelling, if needed.
December  □ Dec. 1: Schedule audition times during the week of Dec. 2-11  □ Communicate audition times with students and teachers  □ Dec. 2-11: Student Storytelling Auditions  □ Provide all participants with a certificate after performing  □ Use the Storytelling Rubric to score each audition & Select your top 2 performances  □ Dec. 12: Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon  □ Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.  □ Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.  January  □ If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).  □ Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.  □ Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL  □ Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]		Introduce Students to resources and examples on the Storytelling Website
<ul> <li>□ Dec. 1: Schedule audition times during the week of Dec. 2-11</li> <li>□ Communicate audition times with students and teachers</li> <li>□ Dec. 2-11: Student Storytelling Auditions</li> <li>□ Provide all participants with a certificate after performing</li> <li>□ Use the Storytelling Rubric to score each audition &amp; Select your top 2 performances</li> <li>□ Dec. 12: Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon</li> <li>□ Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.</li> <li>□ Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>January</li> <li>□ If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).</li> <li>□ Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>□ Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>□ Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>		Print storytelling audition sign-up forms and encourage students to sign up before Dec. 1
<ul> <li>□ Communicate audition times with students and teachers</li> <li>□ Dec. 2-11: Student Storytelling Auditions</li> <li>□ Provide all participants with a certificate after performing</li> <li>□ Use the Storytelling Rubric to score each audition &amp; Select your top 2 performances</li> <li>□ Dec. 12: Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon</li> <li>□ Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.</li> <li>□ Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>January</li> <li>□ If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).</li> <li>□ Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>□ Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>□ Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>	Dece	mber
<ul> <li>Dec. 2-11: Student Storytelling Auditions</li> <li>Provide all participants with a certificate after performing</li> <li>Use the Storytelling Rubric to score each audition &amp; Select your top 2 performances</li> <li>Dec. 12: Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon</li> <li>Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.</li> <li>Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>January</li> <li>If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).</li> <li>Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>□ Provide all participants with a certificate after performing</li> <li>□ Use the Storytelling Rubric to score each audition &amp; Select your top 2 performances</li> <li>□ Dec. 12: Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon</li> <li>□ Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.</li> <li>□ Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>January</li> <li>□ If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).</li> <li>□ Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>□ Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>□ Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>		Communicate audition times with students and teachers
<ul> <li>□ Use the Storytelling Rubric to score each audition &amp; Select your top 2 performances</li> <li>□ Dec. 12: Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon</li> <li>□ Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.</li> <li>□ Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>January</li> <li>□ If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).</li> <li>□ Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>□ Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>□ Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>		Dec. 2-11: Student Storytelling Auditions
<ul> <li>Dec. 12: Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon</li> <li>Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.</li> <li>Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>January</li> <li>If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).</li> <li>Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>		Provide all participants with a certificate after performing
<ul> <li>Dec. 15: Shannon will send parent emails to selected students and will send you information to print and give your selected students with information about the district festival.</li> <li>Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>January</li> <li>If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).</li> <li>Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>
give your selected students with information about the district festival.  Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.  January  If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).  Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.  Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL  Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]		Dec. 12 : Send the names, grade, and teacher of your top 2 storytellers to Shannon
<ul> <li>Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>January</li> <li>If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).</li> <li>Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>		·
January  ☐ If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).  ☐ Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.  ☐ Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL  ☐ Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]		· ·
<ul> <li>If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district competition (tips, strategies).</li> <li>Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>		Advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.
<ul> <li>competition (tips, strategies).</li> <li>Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>	Janu	ary
<ul> <li>Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the event.</li> <li>Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL</li> <li>Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]</li> </ul>		☐ If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district event.  Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL  Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]		competition (tips, strategies).
☐ Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL ☐ Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]		Continue to advertise the District Storytelling Festival and encourage students and teachers to attend the
Jan. 16: Notify the selected WSU storytellers from your school and provide them with WSU festival information [provided by Shannon]		event.
information [provided by Shannon]		Jan. 12: DISTRICT STORYTELLING FESTIVAL
information [provided by Shannon]	٦
		_ , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
☐ If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district	٦	☐ If you have time in your schedule, help coach selected students to prepare them for the district					