Volunteers are central to the success of CANDOFM. Volunteers bring a diversity of experiences that enhance services as a two-way exchange of skills, ideas, knowledge, competencies and behaviours. It is the contribution of the volunteers that creates the opportunity. We fully recognise the importance of volunteering in, gaining skills, personal development, becoming employable and feeling valued. We will fervently support volunteers to learn and progress within CANDOFM through a rolling programme to gain skills and experience that encourages personalised development at an appropriate pace.

CANDOFM will ensure that each volunteering opportunity is assessed and developed as follows:

The overall responsibility for the volunteer recruitment programme lies with the appointed volunteering officer working within the framework of the CANDOFM business plan. New vacancies will be coordinated by the volunteering officer in liaison with a relevant manager.

Volunteers who present on-air content are:

- CANDOFM recognises that volunteers require satisfying work and personal development and will seek to help volunteers meet these needs, as well as provide the training for them to do their work effectively.

Three strikes over a six-month period will result in the presenter's removal from the slot.

10.0 Recruitment

All prospective volunteers will be interviewed to find out what they would like to do, their skills, suitability and how best their potential might be realised.

11.0 Disclosure and Barring

As an organisation assessing applicants' suitability for positions which are included in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order using criminal record checks processed through the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS), CANDOFM complies fully with the code of practice* and undertakes to treat all applicants for positions fairly

CANDOFM undertakes not to discriminate unfairly against any subject of a criminal record check on the basis of a conviction or other information revealed

CANDOFM can only ask an individual to provide details of convictions and cautions that CANDOFM are legally entitled to know about. Where a DBS certificate at either standard or enhanced level can legally be requested (where the position is one that is included in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 as amended, and where appropriate Police Act Regulations as amended)

CANDOFM can only ask an individual about convictions and cautions that are not protected.

CANDOFM is committed to the fair treatment of its staff, potential staff or users of its services, regardless of race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, responsibilities for dependents, age, physical/mental disability or offending background.

CANDOFM actively promotes equality of opportunity for all with the right mix of talent, skills and potential and welcomes applications from a wide range of candidates, including those with criminal records.

CANDOFM selects all candidates for an interview based on their skills, qualifications and experience.

CANDOFM ensures that all those in CANDOFM who are involved in the recruitment process have been suitably trained to identify and assess the relevance and circumstances of offences.

CANDOFM also ensures that they have received appropriate guidance and training in the relevant legislation relating to the employment of ex-offenders, e.g. the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

At an interview, or in a separate discussion, CANDOFM ensures that an open and measured discussion takes place on the subject of any offences or other matter that might be relevant to the position. Failure to reveal information that is directly relevant to the position sought could lead to the withdrawal of an offer of employment.

In consideration of the recruitment of ex-offenders. An application for a criminal record check is only submitted to DBS after a thorough risk assessment has indicated that one is both proportionate and relevant to the position concerned. For those positions where a criminal record check is identified as necessary, all application forms, job adverts and recruitment briefs will contain a statement that an application for a DBS certificate will be submitted in the event of the individual being offered the position.

CANDOFM makes every subject of a criminal record check submitted to DBS aware of the existence of the code of practice and makes a copy available on request.

CANDOFM undertakes to discuss any matter revealed on a DBS certificate with the individual seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment.

12.0 Expenses

It is good practice to reimburse volunteers for the expenses incurred as a result of volunteering. Volunteering should not cost volunteers money and therefore CANDOFM will endeavour to reimburse reasonable and genuine out-of-pocket expenses. The decision to reimburse is also discretionary and will be considered on an individual basis. In all cases, a volunteer's expense form must be completed and accompanied by evidence of expense.

Please also bear in mind Furness Broadcast Media Ltd. has a responsibility to inform Social Security for volunteers, team members or staff claiming benefits and/ or earnings, employed or self-employed.

13.0 Problem Solving

The relationship between CANDO<sup>FM</sup> and its volunteer workers is entirely voluntary and does not imply any contract. However, it is important that the organisation is able to maintain its agreed standards of service to clients who use it, and it is also important that volunteers should enjoy making their contribution to this service.

In most cases it is preferable to deal with problems through informal discussion as this can lead to greater understanding and an agreement to find solutions can be quick with minimum risks of embarrassment, suffering, disruption and working relationships.

In many cases, it will be sufficient to raise the problem with the appointed supervisor. If a volunteer is unsatisfied with the appointed supervisor's solutions or involvement then problems can then be brought to the attention of the station volunteer officer, management or directors for further consideration.

14.0 General Data Protection

CANDO<sup>FM</sup> asks for some personal details from its volunteers and asks permission to store this information on our database. This is to ensure that we can contact them and take account of their Health & Safety. CANDO<sup>FM</sup> takes responsibility for looking after this information seriously. We respect their privacy and follow GDPR 2018 guidance at all times when asking for or handling volunteers' information. We will only ask for information that we need, we keep the information securely, limit access to it and will not pass details on without consent unless legally obliged to. Sometimes we may ask for information that the law considers particularly sensitive. We will always ask for explicit consent before taking or using the information.

15.0 Confidentiality

Volunteers and staff who are privy to personal information are expected to observe the rights of the individual and follow the GDPR 2018 guidance at all times.

We have processes in place to look after and safeguard the confidentiality of people using our services. Staff and volunteers must not pass on personal information to anyone else or use it for a different purpose without the person's consent, except in some specific circumstances enshrined in law.

Furness Broadcast Media Ltd. (CANDO<sup>FM</sup>) has a duty to ensure all staff and volunteers take appropriate and proportionate steps to protect an individual's personal data from accidental disclosure; this includes policies and procedures which require that:

Individual passwords will not be shared or disclosed to others, so only those authorised to view or use personal data may have access to it

Documents including any personal data are disposed of when no longer required

Care is taken to ensure that personal data is stored with adequate password protection/encryption and is not left visible or freely accessible on laptops or in files either in or out of the office.

Staff and volunteers are aware of the dangers of “gossip” and sharing information with other staff or volunteers, who do not need access to the information, as part of their role.

16.0 Illness, Absence and Leaving

We advise volunteers not to come into the CANDOFM studio if they have a heavy cold or another ailment. For sickness &/or diarrhoea they should be symptom-free for 48 hours following the last episode before returning.

If an illness necessitates a prolonged absence from volunteering or you take time out for other reasons e.g. travelling, or bereavement, we will ask you to have a short 'return to volunteering' interview. This will enable us to update you on any changes that have happened in your absence and arrange any support that might be needed.

For planned leave, the volunteer should inform the station management with plenty of notice as possible.

If a volunteer has been absent with no real explanation, or if they have been off for a long time, a member of the station management or directors should contact the volunteer. If this does not resolve the problem then a decision will be required to cover any programming the volunteer was involved with to ensure the station is fulfilling broadcast requirements.

17.0 Return of Company Property

Upon leaving CANDOFM, for any reason, volunteers and staff are required to return to us any property, which may be in your possession, and which is our property or relates in any way to our business or affairs. It is your responsibility to return any property as described within two weeks of leaving.

18.0 Volunteer agreements and voluntary work outline

Each volunteer will have a volunteer agreement establishing what CANDOFM undertakes to provide them. In addition, they will agree to a written outline of the specific work they will be undertaking. Neither of these documents is a contract; CANDOFM has no intention of creating a contract with any volunteers.

19.0 Advertising/ Sponsorship/ Remunerations

CANDOFM needs to find revenue streams in order to provide the service. While we advocate that volunteers make potential clients aware of our advertising, sponsorship and media services, under no circumstances should a volunteer attempt to negotiate sponsorship advertising or financial remuneration of any kind without prior agreement and/or endorsement from the station management.

19.1 Advertising available to volunteers

After six months of volunteering, volunteers have the option to use a radio advertisement for free. The terms are for one advert no longer than 30 seconds that will play 15 times per week for a twelve-week campaign. This can only be claimed once in any 12-month period and at the discretion of the stations' management and the board of directors. Volunteers may pass this benefit to family and friends. Additional plays and options are also available and will be subject to the current pricing structure.

20.0 Social Media/ Marketing/ Branding

Social media is embedded into our everyday lives. As a media-focused community organisation, it is imperative that our social media reflects the ethos of the station and its obligation to the broadcasting regulator Ofcom. With this in mind, we ask that all our volunteers do not give their opinions of a political nature on any of the CANDOFM social media pages. We respect the opinions of all of our presenters and ask that expressions of political opinions should be made on your own personal profile or other pages. The main reason for this is so that the station reports, but remains neutral in respect of the support of any one particular political party.

Social media pages for a particular time slot or show must not be set up independently. Generally, the station is not opposed to this once approval has been given from the station's management.

CANDOFM branding must not be used without approval. We will allow presenters to use the station's logos however it is important that we have oversight of use to maintain a standard of imagery and branding that represent CANDOFM.

21.0 Political Discussion and Disclosure of Political affiliations

The Ofcom Broadcasters Code of Conduct in Section 5 states that there must be 'Due Impartiality and Due Accuracy and Undue Prominence of Views and Opinions.' We require that all presenters are familiar with this information as part of the station volunteer and staff agreements and induction training. CANDOFM has an excellent record of providing our platform with equal opportunity to all political parties. We ensure equal coverage at all times in the same manner as is required during the Purdah periods, the period leading up to elections.

To ensure we follow the regulator's guidance we request that all politically influenced content or on-air discussion must be approved by management beforehand.

We also require that all volunteers declare any political affiliations. This is to aid management to avoid interview arrangements with guests that have the same political views as our presenters. This is to avoid any biased discussion.
