Est: 7/9/2018

Rules Last Updated: 03/03/2020

Time Zone: Central / CDT

- Independent
- Selective
- Private / Mutuals Only
- Anime Based / Not Manga Current
- OC / Duplicate / AU / Multi Muse Friendly

This blog is not affiliated with any group within the fandom, this is my interpretation of the character from the information provided in the ANIME. Headcanons will be created and applied liberally.

A FEW DISCLAIMERS:

♥ If a slow rper makes you angry, you should mosey on your way - I'm not speedy, and do expect people to respect that fact.

♥ I may thread things on this blog that can be seen as problematic, such as questionable and or toxic dynamics. While not as common as on my other blogs, anything in this vein will be tagged & non-romanticized.

Remember IC≠OOC

♥ This blog does NOT support the sexualization of minors, and such behavior will result in a HARD BLOCK

♥ Rumors have been spread about @cracked-roleplay / @spitecremated / Ray, in various circles. They are false, and hate about such will not be entertained. We're tired. Please leave us alone.

BLACKLIST

I will not interact with people who interact with:

- rwby-fathers
- julie / ignti
- onlyonecanbeking / pr0wling-w0lf / blogs by this person, who at this time is going by Riley on most accounts, but not all.

The following make me uncomfortable for varying reasons, and I request interaction with them be tagged so that I can avoid such.

- tate / beefwillingtons
- manifesttamaki
- alex / 'princess' / seductionfille

Please note, this list isn't here for drama or 'calling out' purposes - I'm not a fan of call out culture. This is a list for my comfort alone. If you have questions as to why someone is listed here, please contact me privately off of anon.

ETIQUETTE

The standard rules of roleplay apply, as on most blogs. No godmodding or metagaming, don't reblog / interact with my threads / asks / hcs / etc. if you're not a part of it, don't spam my activity feed.

I require you have rules + your age (or if you're 18+ or not) listed clearly on your blog, or I will not interact with you.

- This is for my comfort, no hate to any minors in the fandom! I just prefer to know, as I'm an adult™- Minors won't be discriminated against in any manner.

Please don't pester or prod me about replies (ic or ooc). A reminder is okay, but if you've reminded me, please be patient.

All of my graphics on this blog are made by myself or spitecremated; don't steal them.

I do not follow for follow, if I've followed you I am interested in interacting, and have read your rules / other pages.

TAGGING & TRIGGERS

This blog may contain sensitive subject matters, as the source media contains some dark themes. ALL triggers will be tagged TW: TRIGGER.

- I am currently tagging well known triggers (blood, etc) but if you are worried I won't think to tag yours, please message me.

Other various things that will be tagged will use the THING // format. Examples include drama //, vague //, manga spoilers //, episode spoilers //, etc.

If there is something that you need tagged, or I missed something, please let me know.

I require sexual assault / non-con / r*pe, as well as needles, pedophilia / csa tagged, please and thank you. If you do not tag these things, i will not follow you

NOTE: Canon typical / animated violence will not be tagged.

Suggestive material has little to no reason to exist on this blog, as Ochako is canonically a high school student, those are themes I will not be engaging in. That being said, if PG-13, typical teen innuendo is something you'd like blocked, it will be tagged as LEMONS.IMPLIED

If you've any concerns about any of this, shoot me an IM.

SHIPPING & SMUT

► This blog is multiverse / multiship, however

I ship chemistry, always. Please for the love of FUCK don't force a ship on me, or start a plot expecting a ship from the get go. Muses don't always mesh, this isn't personal, but I won't compromise my characterization due to an expected outcome.

NOTE that just because I ship with one interpretation of a character, doesn't mean your interpretation will be received the same way. Just as muses don't always mesh, neither do interpretations.

- I'm down to ship with multiples of the same character IF OUR MUSES MESH.
- Chemistry goes for platonic ships as much as it does romantic.
- Poly / OT3 ships are always welcome on my blogs!
- The best way to ship, is always to plot with me privately!

As stated previously, Ochako is around 16. Smut is not something that is going to happen on this blog. I do know teenagers do such things - I was a teen once - but I'm not comfortable writing it.

When it comes to ships, really I'll try anything* once, if you're willing to work with me, plot with me, and build up chemistry.

I will NEVER (romantically) ship minors with adults. No. Don't you dare come at me with that shit. ILLEGAL, CHANTELE.

FANDOM SPECIFIC: BNHA

There are specific characters which a lot of feelings revolve around in the fandom, and when such topics arise I feel it best to make my personal opinion known, to better all interactions on this blog.

Mineta is a character I will not interact with. I hold no ill will to those who write him, or to those who interact with him, however the character makes me incredibly uncomfortable. If you would like me to elaborate on why, feel free to message me privately, off anon.

I have tw: mineta, mineta mention and mineta// blocked

Endeavor is a character I will interact with, however I will be picky about how his behaviors are framed by the mun. If you would like me to elaborate on my opinions surrounding Endeavor, feel free to message me privately, off anon.

Interactions with Endeavor will be tagged TW: ENDEAVOR

THREADS / FORMATTING

► Reminder that this blog is MUTUALS ONLY

While I will try to match your length, I do not expect you to match mine - I get long winded at times. That said, please give me enough to work with.

I prefer para / multi para, and am likely to drop oneliners - they are happily accepted for brief low energy interactions though.

I do not expect people to match my formatting, and I do not mind if you don't format / use icons / etc. So long as I can read your threads, that's what matters to me. That being said, I personally use small text + icons (sometimes).

This mostly concerns OCs, but I will interact with any type of fc, except for

- RL people who have specifically asked their likeness not be used for rp, or expressed discomfort concerning the subject
- Bobby from iKON (no hate to Bobby or iKON, this is a purely personal issue).

I HIGHLY prefer to plot before interacting, and welcome ideas with open arms. That said, this is no requirement: there are exceptions, especially in the case of ask memes.

I am terrible at writing unplotted fight scenes, and due to experiences in the past, would much prefer communication on this front specifically, even if it's just deciding who wins beforehand.

As implied by the fact that I self identify as a SLOW BLOGGER, I am not fast to respond! Especially to longer threads. This is due to several personal / RL factors. I may respond to other rpers faster than you, or more often. This isn't personal, this is entirely based on MUSE AND MOTIVATION.

ASKS + MEMES

Anyone is free to send in asks. OOC, headcanon memes, anonymously harassing my muse - all of these are open to all parties. Memes that imply actual CHARACTER INTERACTION are still, as stated before, MUTUALS ONLY. These received from non-mutuals will be deleted.

If you continue an ask into a thread, move it to a new text post. Please tag (#floatiisms) and mention (@floatiisms) me, so that I actually see it. (If you cannot make it a new post, let me know. I would be happy to do it for us, if I wish to continue the ask as well).

OCS + CROSSOVERS + AUS

OCs are welcome, but I REQUIRE that you have a bio / about page, so that I can read up on your muse prior to interacting with you.

I crave AUs, so if you have an AU you've been wanting to try out, please message me about it.

Crossovers are welcome, however I have to be familiar with your fandom / the other universe in most cases.

I will not interact with the following fandoms / accounts, for various reasons: MLP, Steven Universe, FNAF, Killing Stalking, IT, ANY rp of a real life person (including 'bandom' rp), Undertale

I may interact with the following fandoms, but it will be rare and is typically reserved for people I am already comfortable with: Attack On Titan / SNK, RWBY

The above lists are for personal reasons, and private inquiry off anon about such is welcome. I rarely practice 'mains', but would be open to doing so. I do not have 'exclusives'.

D.B.A.A.

DON'T BE AN ASSHOLE. Respect is absolutely necessary, and entirely expected. Our muses may not always be kind, but I expect you to be, no matter the issue.

Do not follow me if you are homophobic, transphobic, racist, antisemitic, ableist, transcum, ace/aro exclusionist, etc etc. You are NOT welcome here.

This blog does not support call-out / cancel culture. Anyone that is frequently posting or frequently involved in call-outs, will likely be unfollowed - in large part for my own mental health.

I'm here to have a good time, not for bullshit and drama. I will not tolerate hate (anon or otherwise), fandom discourse, ship-bashing... anything of that nature. Bugger off.

I have become very liberal with the block button as of late. If you start bullshit, don't expect to stick around my corner of this Hellsite. This is a hobby - we're all supposed to be here to have fun.

If you have a problem that involves me? Please take that up with me privately, in a civil manner, like an adult. If you don't like what I post? Unfollow me. Create your own experience, that's what this website's good for.

OOC

Howdy, name's Kerri (or Luka), I'm 23 years old, nonbinary, pansexual, poly, and taken by Ray (@spitecremated) and Jacob, who I'll most often refer to as Boyfriend or Boyfriend One, as he doesn't have a roleplay blog.

My Discord is available to mutuals upon request. But ah... I'm really bad at getting back to people quickly, so just throw memes or cats, and wait for me to show up. It'll work eventually.

That said, I am a college senior (for my BA at least), working on getting volunteer work under my belt, the main caregiver for my teen brother, and an enby with a heckin heap-load of mental fuckery going on (and my body's a bit busted too) - please be patient with me.

Anywho, thanks a hundred for reading this far! I know these were super long (and also a little chilly in parts), but I've had some issues with not being understood, so I wanted to elaborate as much as I could.

You're a fucking phenomenal person, really and truly. Like hot fucking damn you're the best. You deserve a cookie and a high five (or hug, if you're into that) for sticking it through.

If you want to let me know how awesome you are, slam "YOUR PLUM'S ON YOUR BACK" into my ask - or don't, it's up to you! It's not mandatory or anything, I... I trust you.
