

Renee Beck, Director of Music, has a degree in Choral Music Education, with organ as her principal instrument, from the University of Michigan, and a Parish Assistant certificate in parish education from Concordia University, Ann Arbor. She also has extensive training in liturgical studies. With over 50 years experience working in the parish, including worship planning and leading from the organ bench and directing adult and children's choirs, handbell choirs, writing and directing dramas, and teaching in various educational capacities, her passion is planning and leading meaningful worship and learning experiences for the people God has called her to serve.