Voter’s Choice Amendment to the Dixie Constitution

Whereas the death or retirement of a senator is often abused by governors for partisan reasons;

Whereas voters often choose different officeholders at the state and federal levels;

Whereas voters choices ought to be respected;

BE IT ENACTED, by the Assembly of the State of Dixie that Article I, Section VI of the Constitution of the Southern State shall have a third section added as follows:

>”Shall a United States Senate Seat of the State of Dixie fall vacant, the Governor of Dixie must appoint a member of the same party as the prior senator to the seat within two days, pending special election.”
