Did those ATTENTIONS grab your attention?

If you're reading this, then I guess it probably worked.

And you don't have to read on unless you want to scale your business with my simple but proven magical marketing method.

Hello, my name is Zoran Vasiljević, I am a marketer and copywriter.

Of course, you must be thinking now: "Who is this guy? What nonsense is he talking about? He's making some crazy claims about scaling my business."

I understand.

And before you report me to spam, I just want to give you some compliments (there are free gifts involved too).

Who doesn't like compliments, maybe they even prevent you from hitting that spam button. 😞

First of all, I really like your app; it's very unique and practical.

I also love the social aspect of it.

And those crazy comparisons...

I mean, is there any other app that gives you the ability to say something like: 'Oh man, I finally lifted the whole blue whale, and now, I'm headed for the international space station.'

It's just hilarious.

I think that this feature alone offers a great perspective for this app.

And if you still, even after my compliments, don't have at least a bit more trust in me, I get you.

And you're right.

I'm not some kind of crazy wizard-fairy-whatever hybrid to wave my magic wand or staff, if you prefer, and instantly 10x your business.

It doesn't matter if you use abracadabra, hocus pocus, shazam or other crazy Harry Potter shit, that just doesn't work.

Don't ask how I know, I learned it the hard way. 🤔😅

But no kidding now, things that I mentioned are big and distant goals and I can't help you achieve them overnight.

But I definitely can help you achieve them faster and with way less effort.

Don't worry, I'm a better marketer than a wizard.

Even though, after all, the methods I use can seem a bit magical from your competitor's perspective.

And that's because I don't exclusively use just my ideas, Instead I prefer to offer you working and tested solutions already implemented by the most successful businesses in your niche such as Hevy or Strong.

So let's book a call.

And in case you already have a lot of failed fairy-tale or Shrek creatures reaching out to you, and you need some extra bribe to jump on a zoom call with me, I offer you a special gift:

📄 Stronger ad. script

I hope you'll like it.

PS: In order to create this script I needed to research your most active IG followers' profiles.

90% of what I saw there was just a bunch of half naked jacked-dude pictures, some of which I'll unfortunately possibly never forget.

Sometimes it feels like I'm better off with just being a wizard, hmm... maybe some forgetting spells will help.
