

Family Literacy Resources

Read Aloud Books Online

- The Indianapolis Public Library: This is a great way for parents and children to enjoy stories together from anywhere, even without a trip to the bookstore or the library. VIEW THE COLLECTIONS.
- Storyline Online: This free children's literacy resource features the world's best storytellers reading books out loud. Each video includes an activity guide with lessons for K-5 students to do at home. VISIT THE SITE.
- Unite for Literacy – Listen and read along with stories on a variety of topics for families. Hear the stories read in multiple languages. VISIT THE SITE.
- Bow Valley College ESL Literacy Readers - Listen and read along with stories about adult immigrants and refugees. VISIT THE SITE.

Family Activities

- PBS: Find MORE THAN 125 FUN AND EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITIES and games that support parents of 3-8 year olds to help their children boost their literacy. There are also GAMES AND VIDEOS.
- Codex: The Lost Words of Atlantis: This gamified app is grounded in learning science and geared towards family learning. Players visit new locations around the world, where they find artifacts and relics that they use to decode the cryptic language of Atlantean into English. This award-winning app is available in both English and Spanish, and has been used in family literacy programs by parents and children together. GET THE APP. Enter code 20044. Not available on iPhones or iPads.
- National Geographic: Keep brains engaged with National Geographic's approved science experiments, fun quizzes, animal and music videos, and study guides. ACCESS THE RESOURCES.
- Scholastic's Learn at Home: This free resource provides your children with 20 days of exciting articles and stories, videos, and fun learning challenges available on any device. They can go on virtual field trips, meet best-selling authors, or dig deep into a topic they love. VISIT THE SITE.

Math and Music

- Bedtime Math: This site makes math part of the family routine. Parents can sign up by email, on the website, and on a free app. Whether it's flamingos, ninjas, or pillow forts, kids can see the math in their favorite topics. No logins. No drilling. No scores. It takes only five minutes a day, and kids clamor for it. VIEW THE RESOURCES.