

Declaration of Sovereignty

12/6/16

In this point of history, the people of the land have decided that the current administration of the United States of America does not suit their needs from a government. Therefore, they have decided to declare sovereignty from the United States of America. We do not wish negative repercussions from this document or declaration nor do we wish sovereignty because of the change of administration. The people feel a unicameral legislature and a parliamentary monarchy would fill the needs of the people better. On this day do the people of The Grand Principality of The Danube do establish independence.
