Sonic in the Search for Love (by Krezz)

This rendition of Chapter 12 is authored by Tehmsu.

Author's note. Something happened that I'll explain later. Here is the next chapter.
Chapter 12

Going off with a bang

It was a sad day at school. It was a Saturday and it rained all day. Everyone of Edward's gang was at the cemetery. People cried or bowed their heads in silence. Sonic, Miles and Chuck were there too and they were sad. They all placed flowers on the closed coffin. The preacher said some words but nobody paid any attention. Everyone watched as it was lowered into the ground and they all read the headstone.

Here lies Poser
Once known as the Sonic Master
Loved by his friends
May he find peace in the next world.

Sonic wiped his nose. Irina was sobbing uncontrollably. Edward and Elna picked her up by the shoulders and started walking back to the car. I just don't know who would do this said Krezz. I don't know said Sonic. But I'm going to find out.

Thirty-two minutes later

Rodriguez wheeled up to Sonic. "Hey before you leave we had planned to have a wake at Poser's apartment. Can you come?"
"Sure I can" Sonic replied. "I'll be there."

Meanwhile at Poser's house

Sonic walked through the door and was greeted by Irina. Her eyes were very poofy from crying but she smiling. Thanks so much for coming Sonic.

"No problem" said Sonic.

"I want to show my appreciation to everyone who came to Poser's funeral as is custom in my peoples country. I will give a blowjob to all the boys and eat all the pussies out of the girls. I already took care of Edward and Elba. I'd like you to be next."

Sonic didn't want to upset her so he told the chipmunk to go ahead. Her hands darted to his pants unzipping his fly. Her massive bosom heaved as she breathed before the Long Island coney. She held his shaft with both hands and swallowed. She rocked her head back and forth while gently applying vacuum force. Then Sonic hit his limit and shot lots of semen into Irina's mouth.

Right about then Scotty walks in. Hi what's going on says Scotty.

"Irina is giving blowjobs to all the guys who come to the wake" says Sonic.

"That awesome" he says. He totally surprises. Irina finishes licking off Sonic's groin and gets Scotty to lie down on the couch. She gently rubbed his dick hard where Scotty crossed his eyes. Her tongue made him cum halfway to the ceiling.

Meanwhile Sonic went and thanked Edward's parents for bringing the food to the wake. There was a buffet and it had fried chicken spinach dip dressing meat tray chocolate pudding and punch. He got a plate and chatted with Edward about Ed's sister. They were still sad about Poser being gone but they kept talking about him. He was a really good friend said Sonic.

"Thanks again Sonic" said Edward. "Poser really thought the world of you. Nobody knew you like he did."

Erma shuffled in her open toed heels. "I'm gonna get some more punch. Do you guys want anything?"

"Nah we're good" they replied and she shuffled away. "How's she doing?" Sonic asked.

"She still really just wants to get in my pants" replied Edward.

"Oh yeah how are things with you and Laura?"

"We're doing geat and I almost ready to tell her about the secret surprise I have planned for her." Sonic wished Edward the best of luck and went to get some more punch.

Laura came in and sat down by Edward. "Hey honey bear. How are you feeling?" Edward was nervous. He took a big gup of punch to try and calm himself.

"Laura I wanting to tell you something..."

Hope you're enjoying my completion attempt! Here is the first revision.

Chapter 12 revision 1

Going off with a bang

It was a sad day at school. It was a Saturday and it rained all day. Everyone of Edward's gang was at the cemetery. People cried or bowed their heads in silence. Sonic Miles and Chuck were there too and they were sad. They all placed flowers on the closed coffin. The preacher said some words but nobody paid any attention. Everyone watched as it was lowered into the ground and they all read the headstone.

Here lies Poser
Once known as the Sonic Master
Loved by his friends
May he find peace in the next world.

Sonic wiped his nose. Irina was sobbing uncontrollably. Edward and Elna picked her up by the shoulders and started walking back to the car. "I just don't know who would do this" said Krezz. "I don't know" said Sonic. "But I'm going to find out."

Thirty-two minutes later

Rodriguez wheeled up to Sonic. "Hey before you leave we planned to have a wake at Poser's apartment. Can you come?"
"Sure I can" Sonic replied. "I'll be there."

Meanwhile at Poser's house

Sonic walked through the door and was greeted by Irina. Her eyes were very puffy from crying but she was smiling. "Thanks so much for coming Sonic."

"No problem" said Sonic.

"I want to show my appreciation to everyone who came to Poser's funeral as is the custom in my people's country. I will give a blowjob to all the boys and eat all the pussies out of the girls. I already took care of Edward and Elba. I'd like you to be next."

Sonic didn't want to upset her so he told the chipmunk to go ahead. Her hands darted to his pants unzipping his fly. Her massive bosom heaved as she breathed before the Long Island coney. She held his shaft with both hands and swallowed. She rocked her head back and forth while gently applying vacuum force. Then Sonic hit his limit and shot lots of semen into Irina's mouth.

Right about then Scotty walks in. "Hi what's going on" says Scotty.

"Irina is giving blowjobs to all the guys who come to the wake" says Sonic.

"That's awesome" he says. He is totally surprised. Irina finishes licking off Sonic's groin and gets Scotty to lie down on the couch. She gently rubbed his dick hard where Scotty crossed his eyes. Her tongue made him cum halfway to the ceiling.

"Thanks again Sonic" said Edward. "Poser really thought the world of you. Nobody knew you like he did."

Erma shuffled in her open-toed heels. "I'm gonna get some more punch. Do you guys want anything?"

"Nah we're good" they replied and she shuffled away. "How's she doing?" Sonic asked.

"She's a little broken up but she still really just wants to get in my pants" replied Edward.

"Oh yeah how are things with you and Laura?"

"We're doing great and I'm almost ready to tell her about the secret surprise I have planned for her." Sonic wished Edward the best of luck and went to get some more punch.

Laura came in and sat down by Edward. "Hey honey bear. How are you feeling?" Edward was nervous. He took a big gulp of punch to try and calm himself.

"Laura I was wanting to tell you something...."

Meanwhile one floor down from Poser's apartment

Tails had gotten into the hard liquor and Uncle Chuck was trying to walk him through the 12 step program. "This sucks! I hate being out here. And I hate my name! My name's not Miles it's Tails. And I don't have any tails anymore! And I can't tell Sonic why!" Tails was very upset. "And how does that make you feel" said Chuck.

"It makes me feel sick and I wish there was a way to fix it" he replied. Suddenly the wall exploded and a figure stood in the new doorway to outside. The six foot nine inch figure was covered in red metal armor. He bowed his head and walked into the room.

Hello. I overheard a call of distress. Please allow me to examine you. Bend over and touch your ankles and stick your ass out." Tails was so relieved that he was not being kidnapped again that he did as told. I will now scan you for your condition. The large creature stuck a finger and extended it nineteen inches into Miles buttohole. Yes you appear to be suffering from. A loss of appendages and trauma associated with it.

"Are you a doctor?" asked Chuck.

"I am a personal healthcare assistant. You may call me Beymax."

"Beymax can you make my tails grow back?" asked Miles.

"There are some options available to you. Have you tried relieving the symptoms with sexual stimulation?"

"We had a lot of sex after we were freed but my tails didn't grow back" answered Tails.

"That is unfortunate. There is one other thing I'd like to try but you both have to follow my instructions exactly." Beymax instructed Miles and Chuck in what to do. They stood next to each other and began to dance.

"Fu-" said Tails.

"-Sion" said Chuck.

"Ha" they said together. They leaned to each other just so their fingertips and cocks touched. There was a quick puff of smoke and the merging was complete.

"Woo" said the new guy. I'm not Tails and I'm not Chuck I will call myself Tuck. Tuck was half robot and half fox. This is awesome. I can make new tales out of spare parts and attach them to my but.

"I am glad you feel better" said Beymax. "Are you satisfied with your care?"

"I sure am" exclaimed Tuck.

"That is good. Have a pleasant day." Beylmax waved with one hand and shot off into the sky. Tuck wasted no time and set up a garage across the street. He made a new pair of tails with lots of extra attachment. Then he went to go see everyone and tell them about his evening.

Meanwhile at Poser's House

During the wake altogether Irina gave 17 blowjobs and 23 rim jobs. Early in the morning Sonic got up and started to head outside. He needed to get some fresh air to clear the doubts from his mind. Everyone else was still sleeping from staying at the wake. Sonic smiled as he walked through the living room. Krezz and Shawn were cuddled up with Krezz spooning Shawn and still inside him. He didn't disturb them but someone stopped him before he got to the door.

"Excuse me are you Sonic the Hedgehog?"

"Yes I am. Do I know who you are?"

"No I'll tell you that later. Right now I need you to listen to what I have to say. I know what really happened to Poser. He told me himself to only tell you."

"What really? What are you waiting for go ahead."

"Okay let me tell you how Poser died."

Earlier that week

Sonic Master opened the door to the principal's office. "You asked to see me sir?"

"Ah yes come in come in." Eggman said. "Do take a seat." and he gestate toward the splintered chairs.

"I'll stand thank you" said Master. "Why did you want to see me if you don't mind asking."

"Yes indeed. You see I like to take the time to get to know all my students personally and your name popped up. Now why is your name the Sonic Master?" Master stopped and thought for three minutes. The iPod stereo in Eggman's office swapped from playing Trippin' on a hole in a paper heart to the Bingo Highway track of Sonic Heroes. He answered Eggman.

"They call me Sonic Master because I know everything there is about Sonic." Eggman was intrigued.

"So what exactly do you know about Sonic?" asked Eggman.

"You can bet there's absolutely nothing I don't know" replied Sonic Master.

"Well if you know all about that stinking hedgehog what do you know about me?"

Master smirked. "I wouldn't be much of a master if I didn't know all about Sonic's enemies and you're the worst most terrifying of all."

Eggman bobbed up and down in his chair like an inflatable clown. "Oh goody! I love hearing about me. Please tell me all about me." And he pulled open a drawer and took out a plate of flan and began to eat it. Sonic Master went through all of the games that Eggman had been in and described every model of machine he piloted including Sonic Spinball. Then he started on all the comics and tv series. He finished by listing all of there cameos like Wreckit Ralph.

Eggman wiped a tear from his eye.

"It was so much fun to terrorize all of them. Sonic was a true foe. It's a pity he's gone now."

"What do you mean?" asked Master.

"A little while back there was a flood in Knotohole village. The hedgehog can't swim. He must have died. I haven't seen him since I came here."

"Oh shows what you know. Sonic is in Pounce field" quipped Master.

"What" said Eggman.

"Yeah we're both going to school here at Lovejoy's." Eggman was dumbfounded because he thought having kids on the school roster named Sonic was coincidence.

"So wallow me to repeat what I just heard. Sonic my nemesis is going to this school of which I am the principal. And you as one of my students did not tell me!" Eggman roared at him and he quaked in his hi-top sneakers. Sonic Master was not feeling good about what he had said but it was too late.

"You are a sorry excuse for an organism and as your superior I am going to discipline you harshly. Now sit down and prepare for your punishment" and Eggman's sausage finger gloves pointed straight at him. Sonic Master was cowed and scared so he sat down gingerly. The splinter ridden chair in Eggman's office assaulted his ass vicariously.

Eggman was looking at Master evilly for 16 minutes while typing on the computer. He opened up some files and signed some things. "I hope you're ready for your punishment because when I'm done with you all that will be left is a smear on the floor. First thing is I have whited out your work history. You have now never worked for Sonic Team and all your work on Sonic and the Secret Rings has been flushed down the toilet."

Master was stunned. He'd worked his whole life on that project. What would he do now? But Eggman wasn't finished. "You are a poor copy of my rival. From this day forward I am changing your name to Poser and replacing it on your permanent record."

"Please stop haven't you done enough" Poser whimpered.

No whispered Eggman. Kids these days- and he put Poser's face in his hands. "Don't listen unless I provide discipline. I am going to make sure you never disobey me again. Poser stand up and listen to me!" He stood at attention and wondered what could possibly be in store for him. "You are going to go up stairs. Then you will walk out of the third school story window and get up and continue to do this until you are dead. I thought about roboticizing you to make you into a sort of metal Sonic to kill the hedgehog with but no you're just going to die."

Poser wanted to run away but he couldn't disobey the principal. Eggman's laughter echoed behind him as he walked out of the office.

Meanwhile

Eggman hit the intercom on his desk. "Snively get in here."

"Snively's not here sir" came the voice at the other end.

"Wait where did he go?" asked Eggman.

"He went to visit family in West Virginia" came the reply.

"So who is this?" questioned Eggman.

"This is Dave your substitute henchman and family member."

"Then Dave cancel my schedule. I have to get ready for visitors. The hedgehog is soon coming. Then Eggman turned up the volume on his stereo and locked the door.

On St. Lovejoy's 3rd floor

Poser unlocked the classroom window and looked outside. It was after 3 and all the students had gone home. He really didn't want to do this. If only he brought a parachute he thought. With no more thinking he walked out the window. He cleared the bushes and landed on his side. His head rung and he couldn't feel his arm. After eight minutes laying on the ground he got up. His shirt and pants were scuffed where he landed. He coughed once and squeezed his sides from the pain. His right foot wanted to twist the other way. When he could feel his mouth again he noticed he lost a tooth and there was a lot of blood in his mouth. He swayed on his feet then turned to the front door to go back inside reluctantly. Halfway up the stairs he slipped and tumbled down the flight of stairs and landed in the corner. He had one broken rib now for sure. It hurt to move so he walked slowly and made sure to use the railing.

Back at the window Poser could see where he landed the first time. He wanted to stop but he couldn't. He took one big step off the windowsill. Nineteen minutes later he was looking at the pavement. He landed face first and screamed at the pain. One of his knees buckled backward and wouldn't move. His nose and mouth pored blood out from cavities and his left pinky finger was dislocated. He wanted to writhe but he couldn't move. He tried to clench his teeth but most of them hit gums. He curled into a ball and begged his body upright. Double hunched over he scrambled for the front door. The whole way back he walked hunchback until he was looking out the window again. He didn't think anything but he shuddered at the idea of falling again. That made his foot slip and he tumbled into the hedges beneath the window. He gurgled as he caught on the branches and thorns falling down. Landed at the edge of pavement and he passed out. 27 min later he woke up in torment.

One eye was hanging out of socket mutilatedly. He'd bitten his tongue in half on the fall. Blood was coming from all over him. His ribs were broken and bone was sticking out of one of his legs. Also his bowls had shit out his lunch of milk, pizza, corn and carrot cake. He couldn't turn his neck but he could still move. He tried to get to his feet.

Meanwhile a lady was walking by on the other side of the street walking her dogs and talking on her cell phone.

"Stevo? Shut up it's Val. Stevo? Stevo? Stevo? Steeeeeevoooo? Stevo? Stevo? Stevo? Stevo? Stevo? Stevo? Stevo? Stevo? Steeeev-oh shit!" She saw Poser's horrifyingly broken form and walked faster off dragging the dogs behind her. Poser tried to turn to go but his legs gave out and he ate dirt. He tried to move his arms and they still worked so he cawled his way inside again. He made it upstairs to the third floor classroom. In front of the window he turned onto his back. He couldn't move anymore. Suddenly a person walked into the room. He was going to take his night classes but he saw Poser and ran over.

"Whoah are you alright and what happened?" the person asked. "You need an ambulance so let me go find a phone."

"No please come here." Poser gasped for breath. "I'm going to die. I need you to find Sonic and tell him what happened to me. He has to stop Eggman." The stranger leaned in and listened to Poser tell what happened that afternoon to him. When he was done he layed his head down and blood flowed out his ears. Poser was dead. Afterword the ambulance came and carried him away. The police questioned the stranger but he didn't mention what Poser had said. He didn't know who he could trust. Eggman was notified and he dispatched his cleaning robots and the classroom and schoolgrounds were spotless almost instantly.

The next part was delayed because I had to make plans to go see Avengers in IMAX. If you have any questions or comments please post in the forums.

Sonic couldn't believe what he heard. Eggman had killed Poser and he couldn't do anything to stop it. "Thank you so much for letting me know how Poser died. I'll remember him as an honest rival. Can you tell me your name before you go?"

I am terribly sorry for your loss the person replied. My name is Roy and I would have found you sooner but I was disconnected until just now. Then Roy left and Sonic knew what he had to do. He had to find out how Eggman was ordering around his students without real life consequences.

Edward and Laura were walking back home to Laura's house when they saw Sonic. He looked very sad and upset about something. Hi Sonic said Edward. Are you still sad about what happened to Poser?

"No. I actually found out something really important and we should probably sit down and talk about it."

"Okay then. We were going to my house anyway" said Laura. They started walking there and on the way they found Tails. He looked very happy but they looked concernably.

"Tails what happened to you and why are you so happy?" asked Sonic. They were curious because Tails had been really depressed for a while about not having tails.

"Hi Sonic. I'm Tails and your Uncle Chuck at same time now so I want you to call me Tuck. It's also why I'm half robot" Tuck said cheerfully.

"Oh that explains it" said Edward. Tuck went on to show them the new metal tails he had made. They were chrome and shiny. He went down to the junk yard after he fused and made them from some car parts. He showed them he still had his penis but he could add extra robot inches to it if he wanted. Sonic hugged him and was really happy to see him again. They all went together to Laura's house. After 35 minutes they got there and decided to have lunch. They got to enjoy a really tasty roast beef and an apple pie with ice cream after word. They thanked Laura's mom for the meal and sat down in the living room. Laura put her head on Edward's lap to idley rub his couch.

"So what did you want to talk about Sonic?" she asked. Tuck turned the tv on but kept the volume down.

"Yeah I need to tell you guys what happened because I found out why Poser died." They all listened closely as Sonic told them everything he learned from Roy.

"What?" they all said.

"Yeah it was terrible." When he was done they all shook there heads in disbelief.

"I can't believe that happened" said Edward.

"Yeah Eggman is a horrible horrible person" commented Laura. Tuck was about to say something but something on tv crossed his eye.

"Hey Edward turn the tv up" said Tuck. Edward grabbed the remote off the table and turned up the volume. All of them were stunned by what they saw. It was...

the school. You could barely see it. There was a big purple forcefield circling St. Loevejy's from top to bottom. The news reporter voice was coming on. I repeat, we have received a notice from principal Dr. Eggman as follows.

We are currently remodeling the school
Pardon our dust all homework will be emailed to students in the meantime. Please do not touch eth Eggman high voltage deterrent system. It is trademarked.

The entire campus of St. Jovejoy has been surrounded by this forcefield. I'm getting word from the studio now. The reporter who was also a dog put his hand to his ear again. We have a video to show you viewers. This was posted on the internet a shortly. Apparently two young men approached the forcefield and tried to touch it. Please be warned this video is somewhat violent. The screen flipped to a shaky camera phone video. One guy was talking to the other guy.

"Go on Brad touch it" said one guy.

"I don't know" said Brad.

"Come on. You lost the bet so gotta you touch the purple thing."

"Okay shut up" he said. Brad walked up to the forcefield. He counted down. One...Two...

He put one finger on it. Several hundred volts of electricity jumped into Brad and he was shot back 21 feet. The other guy gholled in shock and the feed cut back to the reporter.

"Sources say the individual did survive the shock. His face was melted off however."

Sonic was sad because he couldn't go after Eggman while the forcefield was up. What are you gonna do now Sonic? asked Tuck.

"I'll just have to wait until I have a chance to stop Eggman once and for all" said Sonic with determination. Then he remembered something. Oh hey Edward didn't you have something you wanted to share with us.

"That's right I finally got the courage to tell Laura about the special surprise I planned for her. Let me tell you about it.

Earlier last night

Laura and Edward were enjoying each other company. She could tell he was nervous about something. "Eddy baby why don't you tell me what's troubling you" she soothed. Edward tried to work up his nerves. He was going to tell Laura what he had been planning for her secret surprise.

"Laura I want to tell you something" said Edward.

"I'm all ears lover" she said.

"I've been planning a special surprise for you. Would you like to know what it is?" he asked.

"Oh tell me I'm so excited" she said.

"Ok I'm gonna tell you what it is. I'm gonna throw you...

a halloween party and it'll be a BDSM party too.

"Oh that's something I always wanted. You're the best honey bear." Laura gave Edward a huge between her huge mammaries and kissed her tongue down his mouth.

When I wrote big purple forcefield I couldn't help but think of alien invasion. Is that something you would like to see in the story? Sonic and friends would have to beat the invaders back but they'd need help and would have to do a reluctant teamup with Dr. Eggman before wiping them out. If that's something you'd like to see go to nerdyshow.com/forums and post a comment. Here is the next part.

Several days later

The school still had a forcefield around it. Everyone decided it would be a good idea to go and have some fun instead of worrying about Eggman. They were very excited about Edward and Laura's halloween BDSM party on Monday. Everyone did there homework that morning and had lunch at home. Then they got ready for the party. Everyone made sure to wear jackets and black hats and lots of zippers. They drew straws to see who would be the masters. It wound up with the following groups. Sonic over Tuck. Laura over Edward. Scotty Kat over Nova Kat.

Irina over Tommy. Edma over Krezz, Rodriguez and Ralf. Tuck couldn't wait. "What do you want to do first Sonic?" And Irina came over and slapped him hard enough to spit a tooth out. "Be quite Tuck while the masters are discussing what to do."

They settled on the idea that first would do all the slaves in the but. The slaves would have to shake there whole body like a washing machine and if they stopped they would have to shake like that all night. The guys would use there penises and the girls would use a strapon. Then the slave would have to do a sexy dance naked. Masters would then lick out the slaves while peeing on them. Then there would be a contest to see whose team could get there slaves to cum the most times. The losers would have to eat all the shit the winners made off of each other. The other thing the Masters did was spank all the slaves ass until they were bright red then rubbed sand paper all over it.

TEAM SONIC

Sonic put Tuck up against the wall.

"Okay Tuck stick your ass out. I'm gonna wreck that shit." Tuck squirmed in delight and stuck out his bum. Sonic Teased his at first putting his dick on top of Tuck's cheeks and working between them. He kept going and Tuck's yips started getting louder. Sonic stopped mid hot dog and asked Tuck something. "Is there something you wanted Tuck?" Tuck moaned and stuttered.

"I always wanted someone to cum on my bum and make it look like birds popped there. Is that too much to ask?"

"No just turn around and keep moaning." Sonic slapped Tuck hard on his robotic ass and picked up the pace. He came in gobs all over all over Tuck. Tuck was so turned on he dribbled a little down his front and Sonic had to spank him for not asking permission.

TEAM LAURA

Laura was habing a really good time. Her and Ebna had found some tall black high heels to wear with her outfit. Laura drug Edward upstairs and pushed him on the bed with her heels. She flicked her panties off with one finger and stuffed them around Edward's cock.

"Love, you are lick me until I cum in your mouth. Me and my panties are gonna have fun with your dick in the mean time." Edward mumbled understandingly making Laura laugh from the vibration. He used his hands to get a better position to sticke his tongue in as far as would go. He yiffed in surprise when Laura clamped down on him. I never signed on for this though Edward. But at least it's Laura. She was busy keeping his pole red with her panteies. She made him cum and they got soakedd in it. She bent over and deeply inhaled her panties and got high off the smell.

TEAM KAT

Both Kat siblings jumped up on the dinign room table. Scotty flipped Nova onto her stomach.

"I'm gonna see how you ass feels Nova."

"Yes master" the girl replaid. She grabbed onto the table edges as Scotty started humping. He came almost immediately and pulled out because shw was too tight. Not wanting to feel out done he flipped Nova over and started fondling her. He licked one of her nipples and teased the other with his free hand. Nova saw his moment of weakness and took the opportunity to return the favor by lining her tail up and jamming it up Scotty's bum. He jerked hard enough on her nipples at the penetration to make her come from the experience.

"You are a sorry excuse for a master Scotty. Lick my feet and maybe I won't tell everyone how pathetic you are." Scotty couldn't believe how humiliated he was and started working the other Kats boots off.

TEAM RUSSIA

Irina sat herself in a chair. Tommy was facing her expectantly. "Okay Tommy are you a big boy? Because I want a big boy to unzipper his pants and jerk off onto my face. That's not a problem for you is it?" she said while running a foot up his leg. Tommy took the hint and took out his cock. With both hands he got it hard in 12 seconds and started jerking off. She licked her lips in anticipation. He held on for one more minute then came all over Irina's face. She wiped it off and licked her hands clean with a smile.

"So how'd I do Irina?" Tommy asked. She considered for a moment then wrote something on a sign. She held it up and it said 8/10.

"Aw don't feel bad little man. You made a good effort. Come here and let me show you how we polish our trophies in my home country." She pulled her sub to her by the pants to give him a sloppy blowjob.

TEAM EDWARD'S SISTER

The female fox fell back on a couch with her legs and arms wide open. "Alright boys I want you to satisfy me. Now get to work. If you don't know which end goes where ;you haven't been paying attention!" She cracked a whip and the three boys started pleasuring her. Rodriguez zipper was over his mouth so he took a ginger and explored her butthole. Ralf pulled out his dick and stuck it straight into her pussy. Krezz sat on one side of her massaging and licking her tits. All the stimulation made her cum quickly. She smiled and said for Ralf and Rodriguez to keep going. She turned to Krezz. "I want you in my mouth." Krezz climbed on top of the couch and slid his dick down E's mouth. It was covered in drool and he shivered. They all started rocking and making the couch bounce. Finally all the boys came and Edna swallowed all of it. Krezz pulled out of her mouth and she said that was pretty good I'm ready for another round.

Everybody was working on their dominating when suddenly there was a crash at the front door. Etna's group was in the living room. "Where is Sonic?" a voice screamed. Edna was so scared she shit. Rodriguez was upside down and couldn't move because of his ribs. "Where is Sonic?" the person screamed louder. Everyone else ran into the room and gasped.

"Oh my god it's my sister" said Krezz. Scotty and Nova ran out of the back door screaming with boobs bouncing all the way. Sonic and Tuck got their first good look at Krezz' sister. They were shocked.

"Holy crap! You are...." The intruder spoke to them incomingly.

Yes Sonic. I am Krezz' sister. I am known by many names. But a long time ago you knew me by another name. I was...

Amy Rose."

Sonic and Tuck were very surprised. They had seen Amy in ages. "Amy where have you been and how did you get here?" asked Sonic. The girl looked sad.

"I had to find you Sonic. You're the last hope of stopping Eggman's evil plan. I guess I should explain what happened to me since I disappeared."

All the people still there gathered around silently. After two minutes she began talking. "A couple years ago I heard about the freedom fighters of Knot hole village. I wanted to join you so I faked my death here in town and went to fight. I got to meet Sonic and Tails Princess Sally and Bunny and a bunch more. Things were good until one day. I was scouting alone and got hungry. I ate some of Dr. Eggman's mean beans on accident.

Then I got very mad. I hated everyone and everything so much. They also gave me bipolar. I joined up with Eggman and did mercenary work. I would torture and murder a lot because I couldn't help it. Something changed one day. I was doing research on Palcomix and I found him. The man of my dreams. He was so perfect. He could do anything and be the best at it. There was nothing he couldn't do I was so enraptured. His name was...

Poser.

Everyone gasped in shock and Amy continued. "I loved him but I couldn't bring myself to meet him. So I followed him online. When he came to Pouncefield I was so happy for once. I was already in town helping Eggman do dirty work. He had some plan as usual. I told him I would do as much as he wanted but he had to leave Poser alone. So I left him sexy notes on his refrigerator and fixed his meals while he was gone.

I was going to wait until the end of school year and then reveal to him. Things were going good. I tortured school kids by day and watched my lover at night. But then Eggman killed Poser. That made me angrier than I've ever been. I got so mad that the mean beans inside me popped out. They had been plugged in my ass until then. I had to poop and piss out of my vagina or have diarrhea instead.

I came here to help you kill Eggman.” And she looked at them all straight in the eye. “I also came to give you a warning. Eggman doesn’t have a spy working for him in St. Lovejoy’s. He can control the students to make him do what he wants. School is back open tomorrow so don’t trust anyone.” Then she sat down.

Irina brought her some delicious juice. Sonic thanked Amy for coming to warn them. He also explained that it was okay to be mad at people but not okay to kill them. She nodded paying attention. “I feel so bad for all the trouble I’ve caused. I hope I can make it up to all of you.” Her eyes passed over Rodriguez who was still upside down in his wheelchair. His eyes were wide. He tried to scream but his zipper was stuck. “I bet you’d like to know what I’m going to do” she said. “Am I going to be bad or am I going to be bad?”

She stood over Rodriguez then leaned over with head between his crotch. She tugged his trousers off with her teeth. She spit into her hand and dug into his briefs to pull out his hot-rod. She rocked it in her hand until it dribbled his load out. Hes creamed through his zipper. “Oh gosh I’m sorry. I didn’t mean to hurt you” she apologized. Rodriguez finally tugged his zipper off. “No please. Don’t stop.” With his encouragement she rubbed her hands over his broken ribs making him scream hard. She knelt down to put his penis in her mouth and give a wet sticky blow job. After there display everyone was ready for more fun. Sonic and friends spent the rest of the night teasing and foreplaying.

Sunday Morning

Sonic got up and looked around. He wanted to see who was still at the house asleep. Edward and Laura. Rodriguez. Amy. And Tuck. The others must have gone home he thought. He nibbled on a doughnut while they woke up. He was surprised when he heard a knock at the door. He went and opened it. Outside there was man in a police hat. “Can I help you” asked Sonic.

“I’m Truant Officer van Sickle. What are you doing outside school?”

“But it’s Sunday” said Sonic.

“That’s true but Principal Dr. Eggman has called all students to come back today in order to make up for lost days. Please let all your class mates know. I have more houses to visit in the mean time. Your parents have all been notified.” He turned and walked to his car scratching his butt on the way. That’s strange Sonic thought. How did he even fit into those pants. Sonic felt torn. He wanted to take the fight to Eggman but he didn’t want his friends to get hurt.

That last part didn't come out quite right. I'm gonna take a mulligan on it. I do like Officer van Sickle though so he is cannon.

Sunday Morning

Sonic went and turned on the tv. The news was broadcasting that kids had to get up and go to school this morning even though it was Sunday and there were no school buses running. Dr. Principle Eggman requested the change of schedule because of several lost days recently. The tv showed picture of the school open and no more forcefield. Otherwise the school looked the same on the outside. Sonic clenched his fist. It was time to make Eggman pay for all the people he hurt. Everyone got up and had a good shower. Then they went to St. Lovejoy's.

Sonic was wearing a hawaiian shirt and it fapped in the breeze. They were all standing across the street from school. He turned around to his friends. "Okay I'm going inside. I don't want anyone else coming if I can help it. It's going to get ugly."

"Now ay Sonic" said Tuck. "I'm gonna watch your back and I can definitely take care of myself."

"He killed my one true love and I'm going to get even" added Amy. Edward spoke up.

"Sonic we want to help but we're not really cut out for fighting." Sonic thought for a few minutes. Then he explained to them.

"Edward and Laura you have been great hosts for me while I've been here. I especially liked when we got to have a 3 way. Rodriguez you were a little rough when we first met but you are one cool dude. Irina its been lots of fun hanging out and we won't let Poser be dead in vain. I want you guys to stay out here because we don't know what'll happen when we go in there. Be careful and stick together. Amy and Tuck you're with me. Let's go."

They waited for the light to turn then walked fast onto campus. They pushed open the double doors. Inside was an army of robot hall monitors. "Kill the hedgehog. Detain the rest."

Sonic Amy and Tuck ran straight into the robots tearing them apart. In seven minutes there was nothing left but scraps on the floor. Sonic smirked with attitude.

"Is that all you've got Eggman?" he shouted. One or two students poked there heads out the hall then turned back in. A tone sounded and a voice came on the intercom:

"Good afternoon students. I have important announcement. I recently discovered a certain blue hedgehog has been attending St. Lovejoy's. This will no do. I am unable to determine at this time which of you are responsibel for not informing me of this event. Until the problem is solved I have no other option than to punish the entire school body. All students will have migraine headaches every hour of the day. Also you will hallucinate copies of me Dr. Eggman naked and dancing. I will be playing Bark at the Moon over the intercom on repeat. Every time it loops the headaches and hallucinations will get worse. I hope you all learn your lesson. However if you would like some relief from the pain you can kill Sonic Hedgehog! If anyone has any questions I will be in my office available for counseling. Lunch today will be Salisbury steak, green beans, peaches, strawberry cake and choice of milk." The intercom clicked and Bark at the Moon started palying.

Screams came from every classroom. Every students was in pain. Eggman had said it and it happened. Sonic's team bowed there heads in pity. There was nothing they could do but find Eggman. Amy shook Sonic from his moment. "You better get it together. Now its us or them. If you want to take down Eggman you can't hesitate."

A crazed student came running out of the far classroom. He had already been driven mad. Sonic stepped up and sonic spun when he got close. He split his neck clean open and he fall down dead. One spray of blood hit Sonic cross the face. "Okay I'm going in first. Watch my back guys."

Sonic started up a half flight of stairs. Suddenly a pair of robot arm tentacles came up out of the floor. They snapped onto Sonic's hands and lifted him into the air then fell into a hole in the floor with him. The hole sealed up before Amy and Tuck could do anything. "Where did they take him?" asked Tuck.

"I don't know" said Amy.

"Then lets look for Sonic. I'll go to the gym" said Tuck.

"Okay then I'll go to the auditorium."

Meanwhile outside

"I wonder how they're doing" asked Irina.

"Yeah I'm worried about them" said Laura. Rodriguez fideted in his wheelchair when he saw a police car pull over and a police officer get out and walk over to the group of them adverbily.

"Hi kids. I'm Truant Officer van Sickle. What are you all doing? You should be in school." They all looked at each other. Rodriguez thought of something.

"Actually officer we had to come out here. We're in detention and we have to think about what we've done."

"Alright then just be careful" and he left.

"Okay now I'm really nervous" said Edward. "Maybe we should sneak in? We could try to go in through the back at the cafeteria." They decided to sneak in.

Earlier inside school

A man came running down the hall screaming. "Oh god make it stop! Just end it already! I wasn't even supposed to be here I'm just the health inspector." The label on his shirt said Logan. Sonic tried to spin through him cleanly but he missed and just cut off one and and one leg. "Oh god it hurts please just kill me" he cried on the floor. They apologized and left him alone.

In the Art Room of St. Lovejoy

Sonic was dumped onto an upright table and bound by his hands and feet with steel straps. There was a monitor in the room with Eggman on it. He struggled in his cuffs. "Dr. Eggman what is your evil plan for the school?"

"What was my plan? Oh I was just going to tell my nemesis all about my master plan. What is it? Let me tell you" said Eggman.

"Here is my evil plan. After the annihilation of Knothole village I was content. I decided to kick my feet up by practicing my brainwashing science. And where better to start than the only school within 500 miles? Sure I can just robotodomo-aigertaisencize my victims but I have hobbies too! So I invented nanites that can control a person or just tell them what to do in general. During my experiments I discovered the best way to inject nannites into a subject was when they were painfully pushed into the butt, asshole, penis or vagina. So I developed the most splintery wooden chairs possible to use in injecting nanites. Let me tell who my first test subject was."

One year earlier

"Snively I want you to send out the prototype brainwashing very splintery chair to the castle where King Acorn live" said Eggman. "Make sure the chair is an anonymous gift."

"Yes sir" said Snively. Snively made sure to wear gloves and packed up the chair in a truck and left. He arrived at the castle gates and talked to the guard. Hello said the guard. "How can I help you?"

"UPS" said Snively. The guard didn't recognize Snively who had wanted posters across the kingdom because he had a hat on.

"What's in the truck?" asked the guard.

"I don't know they don't tell me anything" said Snively. "Sign here ok. It's supposed to be for the king." They unloaded the chair and Snively drove off. The castle servants were bringing it to the King's room when Princess Sally walked by.

"Oh why don't you take that big chair up to my bed room I outgrew my old chair." That night Salley materbated in her new chair thinking of Sonic. She kept going even after she felt lots of splinters get in her butt and vagina. And the nanites in the chair went from her groin into her spinal cord and up into her brain.

"After all of Knothold was flooded I decided she would come here to monitor her as a subject. I got her to do all sorts of things. I finally left her on autopilot in a depraved state to torture your friend and uncle. Most recently I ordered a trio of male bunnies to sexually harass some of there school mates who were already under my control."

Meanwhile on the 3rd loop of Bark at the Moon

Tuck headed down the last hallway before the gym. The classrooms were mostly empty. Blood and bodies were here and there. He could hear screams far away but they didn't sound like Sonic. He plushed the double doors open and headed into the gym. He walked on to the gym court and could see a single figure sitting on the bleachers. "Is that you Sonic?" Tuck asked. The boy's head jerked up.

"You. You now Sonic huh. Stay right there." He stood up grabbing a sword laying at his feet. He crossed to the floor opposite Tuck. He got a better look at the sword wielder.

"Hey I know you. You're Ralf. Snap out of it" said Tuck. "And don't let Eggman control you."

"Too late for that" Ralf replied. "Now this goes one of two ways. Either one of us dies or both of us dies." He squeezed his eyes in pain as Bark at the Moon started its fifth loop. "Alright then. Lets give all these Eggmans a show."

Meanwhile back in the Art Room

Sonic was speechless. He'd found out Eggman's evil plot and he still couldn't believe it. He had to get out of there but he couldn't move. A sudden crash interrupted Eggman's laughter. A hooded figure walked toward the monitor all while Eggman threw questions at it. "Who are you? Where did you come from? How did you get" and they clicked the monitor off. The figure turned to Sonic. They withdrew a long blade and raised it up. The figure turned to Sonic. They withdrew a long blade and raised it up. Sonic shut his eyes for what was about to happen. He heard two clangs and opened his eyes. His iron bonds were cut and he was free. "Oh wow thanks whoever you are" said Sonic.

"You're welcome" said a feminine voice. "Now hurry. You have to confront Eggman in his office."

"You bet I do. Hey wait a minute. Aren't you..."

"Yes I have been following you but we can talk later. Now go"

"You bet on it" and Sonic jets off.

"Goodbye my love." said the hooded girl.

Meanwhile at the auditorium

Amy had come face to an unusual sight. She had had to bash a few kids' skulls in on her way here but this didn't exactly look dangerous. On the stage was a madly fucking Edba Fox on top of a both a very dead Nova Cat and still alive Scotty Cat. They must have found there way to the auditorium and tried to sex the pain away and it was unsuccessful. Amy wanted to find Sonic or Eggman but she couldn't pass up one last opportunity to be bad. It was just too good. Amy walked on stage getting into the mood. Well aren't you two just worthless spat Amy. They both jerked but Ecna kept on riding Scotty. Amy looked down angrily on the lifeless Nova Cat who was getting her boobs fondled by Scotty. Busty bitch got what she deserved thought Amy. Scotty shut his eyes trying to drown out the images of Eggman while Amy gazed down. Here let me sit this down and she dopped her sludgehammer on top of his chest. He wheezed for breath as his blood struggled to circulate from his aching penis to his aching head. He didn't dare move out of pain and fear. Amy turned to the girl riding him. Her mouth hung open panting while her eyes stared forward and grinded on Scott's bone. She played with herself like she was putting on a show. Are you giving all those Eggmen a good show? questioned Amy. I guess there always was a lot of empty room in between your ears but before you leak everything out between your thighs you should know something.

Amy leaned in and whispered to her ear. I was the one who told Edward about every one of your yiff sessions. Every. Last. One.

Her eyes turned to Amy for just a moment. Then they glazed back over and she picked up tempo on Scotty. She started laughing brokenly. Goodbye Eggna. I hope the two of you enjoy fucking yourselves to death. She grabbed her sledgehammer and exited stage right.

Meanwhile at the gym

Tuck jumped out of the way of another sword slice. Enough of him was still flesh and bone that a sword could still do a lot of damage. Smart as he was he couldn't think on his feet to both stay safe and take out Ralk. So he had been waiting and it wasn't working out. All the migraines were making him move faster and unnaturally. Tuck just leaned out the way of a thrust and reared back to punch him. When he followed through no one was there. He slid forward just as Ralf's sword came down. Out of the way Tuck turned around in horror. Ralf picked up his prize of Tuck's robot tails. "Hm. Trophies." He said. Tuck swore at him and yelled.

"Do you have any idea what I've put up with and now you're messing with my pride."

"Make your peace because my sword beats anything" said Ralk. Tuck pointed at him fired up.

"When I get through with you you're gonna" and a laser shot out of Tuck's pointed finger. In an instant there was a football size hole where Ralf's chest used to be. Tuck was silent for two moments. "Huh. Didn't know I could do that." Tuck made a reminder to run a self diagnostic after this was all over. He headed off to find Sonic. "I guess lasers beat your sword Ralf." And he grabbed and reattached his robot tails on his way out.

Meanwhile outside Eggman's office

Sonic ran very fast at sonic speed to Eggman's office but came to a stop outside it. There was a boy standing in front of it. He had a sword drawn and was in fighting stance.

"Whoah Nicro what're you doing here. Hurry and get out of the way."

"I knew you'd come Sonic. Sorry but I've got to do this."

"You're stronger than Eggman's brain AIDS" said Sonic.

"No I'm at my limit. You don't know how horrible this is" and Nicro squirmed at the sight of so many Eggmen and there naked eggs. Nicro moved his sadidar and swiped twice but Sonic did a backflip and nailed the landing on a guard rail. With Sonic speed Nicro couldn't land a hit on him. Three more times he struck nothing but air. He took a step back. "Okay Sonic. You move really fast. Let's check your reflexes." Nicro pulled out a smoke bomb and dropped it. The hall flooded with smoke and Sonic stopped for a minute. He ducked his head just as he heard the sound of metal singing. A couple blue hedgehog hairs lay on the ground. Sonic got an idea. "This battle will be mine Sonic" Nicro said determidedly. He heard a noise like whooshing. Wind pushed him back as the smoke cleared. Sonic had spun in a circle enough to scatter the cloud. Sonic then jumped high and spun into a ball.

"You win the battle Nicro but I am winning the war." Sonic spun straight through cutting Nicro and his sword clean in two. Blood spattered the back of Sonic's shirt. He turned to the office door. "Eggman. You're next."

He burst open the principal's office. He turned off the intercom and the iPod next to it but it was already past ten loops.

"Ah Sonic. Here again to ruin my fun. Whatever you've got to say will have to wait for the next time around because I'm on my way out." Sonic glared at Eggman typing and fiddling behind another smaller forcefield that covered the school earlier. His desk looked more like a pilot seat than an office piece now. Sonic looked around but there were no holes for him to get through.

"Why the big rush Egghead? Afraid of what I'll do to you?" Sonic asked.

"If only it were that simple boy. The chaos emerald is out of juice. Its entirely inadequate to fuel and operate my mind control nanites. Between that and my giant forcefield earlier I've only got enough power left to cover my departure via flying shuttle. It's on to the next plan now hedgehog. I bid you adieu."

"Wait how the heck did you get a hold of the chaos emerald? I was there and then it was gone."

"Why that was all you boy. I sent out some tiny drones and they tracked you straight to the floating island and the emerald's location. I sent a shipment of robots in on a wild bet they'd have more luck than the thousands you've destroyed before. They got to walk right in and take it. They reported back with the emerald and said you were masterbating in the corner the whole time. Good timing hedgehog." Eggman finished his typing and there was a whirring noise. He waved as he began to lift off. "Too bad Sonic I have a relay power source for this forcefield at school but you can't find it before I go." Sonic clenched his teeth. If he lost sight of Eggman it would be all over. He was fast but he couldn't be in 2 places at once. Suddenly there was a bang.

Meanwhile somewhere else and not at the same time

Knuckles Echidna was not an hedgehog. He spent his day protracting the Chaos emerald and he was very good at his job. His hands pounded on the door in front of him and demanded to be let in. A voice answered him from the other side. "Yeah who is it?" "you damn know who it is." Yelled Knuckles. "Now open up or I'll break this door down! "What's the password?" One cock if by land two tails by air. Knuckles grit his teeth as he heard the bolts open from inside.

The door swung open to show half a dozen rough looking guys surrounding a table. Knuckles stomped in side with mud still on his sneakers and roared out at "What's up bitches?" Everybody broke into laughter. It was poker night and Knuckles was the last man. They had some pizza and beer laid out between the cards. "Deal me in" Knuckles said in between a slice of pepperoni. He wouldn't dream of missing poker night with his buds. Going around the table Crash was shuffling cards. Clockwise from him Sly and Gex were stuck in some heated discussion he couldn't hear. Bill was chugging his third beer down. Banjo reclined back from the table with his huge feet propped up. And last in the circle TJ was deep into a slice of pizza himself.

Late into the night all the guys were swapping stories. Knuckles had the floor atm. "So I was just sitting there nobody around for miles and I figure what the hell. I turn around dropping my pants and cum all over the chaos emerald. And I got Cream to come by later and clean it off - with her mouth!" Hollers and cheers echoed around the table as they were all dying from the joke.

At daylight Knuckles said goodbye to everyone. Some of them still blearily asked him to come back and let them win their coin back. "Bro don't hate the player, hate the game." was his reply and he left walking down the side of highway because he forgot to renew his driver's license. He wasn't as fast as Sonic but he could keep going for hours if he wanted to. A car zoomed past him on the highway. He smiled and laughed to himself as he kept walking along the curb. "Haha. Good thing I don't scare easily or I could really get hurt. Nothing gets the jump on Knuckles unless they want a taste of my fist. It would be real easy to jump into the road if something did frighten me. However that very notion is ridiculous." Suddenly a bird pooped out of the bushes. It chirped and asked how to get to I-71. Knuckles was so startled he fell out into the street and the bird flew off. Knuckles body collided with a truck coming up behind him. The bumper sent him face down first and left major bruising on his body. His shoe caught by a tire as the truck kept going. The tire sucked all of him up and he started with it because one of his spikes caught on it.

He tumbled in the splash guard awhile then came close to release but his prickly personality decided to work against him. The spikes on him that doubled as body hair were squished into the tires rubber making Knuckles the outer layer of the tire now. After 7 ½ revolutions he came loose before he was crushed again by the rear tires. Released from the deadly embrace of the goodyear Knuckles was thrown to the scrub on the curbside. Gloveless, rubbery bruised, bleeding, crushed Knuckles tie to life severed like string. The truck came grinding to a halt. Someone stepped of cab. It was Snively. The balding guy waddled round the truck checking for damage. Worthless piece of junk he thought. I would told Eggman there new models on the market but nooo. He kicks the tires and sees there still good. Since I'm pulled over may as well take a piss Snively said to himself. Once he shook out and zipped up he walked back to the truck and saw the body he ran over. He was hoping it was a dog or maybe a displaced freedom fighter that used to harass him so much from knot hole vileage. He stopped and saw the body and eyes went wide. His mouth went limp as he tried to inhale. He ran over and bent down confirming that the lifeless corpse beneath him was in fact Knuckles.

OH no he whimpered. How could I do something like this. Its not fair. Fat tears ran down his face as he confessed. I didn't mean to. I never thought it would be you. Oh how could I. He leaned in and cradled the surprisingly intact skull to his chest. Snively whispered "I no you can't hear me but I want you to know something. You were my FAVORITE. And Snively balled on the side of the road by the roadkill.

Snively looked to see what was left of his beloved. It was hard to tell how much blood was there because he was red already. One foot had one shoe untied. The other leg was pulpy. Some ribs were showing and had some intestines dangling. All his teeth came out. One ear missing. He found his trademark gloves (™) stuck to the tire. Snively checked between Knuckles legs and found his pucker and pecker both fully intact. Not meaning to he stuck a finger inside Knuckles butt and noticed how tight it was. Snively got stiff in his nethers and came to a realisation. He was going to say goodbye to Knuckles in his own special way. "But first" he thought to himself. "I need some privacy." He wrapped Knuckles remains in a black garbage bag and threw him in the back of the truck.

He took off down the road and exited the highway and pulled in at a Shoney's ™ parking lot. Snively went around back for his goody bag. He deposited Knuckles in the passenger seat as he climbed back in. He pulled the wrapper back enough to show his face. Why Knuckles is that a spike on your nose or you just glad to see me. He ran his tongue up and over the forehead of the dead body and breathed deeply into his hair on head. It had the smell of burning pavement. Some of Knuckles neckflesh stuck to the garbage bag. Have no fear my darling said Snively. If you fall apart I'll put you back together. Snively unwrapped the rest of his birthday present. He gingerly pulled both gloves off then kneaded the bones of each of the dead creatures hands. He took each knuckle of Knuckles into his mouth individually sucking and licking each digit with worship. In his mouth over his teeth around his tongue. Covered in spit he took Knuckles hands and massaged his own head with them shivering as he did so. I can't contain myself any longer exhaled Snively. Knuckles teach about you going down on me. I must your fellatio. He slid off his baggy carpet pants to reveal his erection. It smiled painfully at the red corpse beside him. He guided his head over and drifted his head over Snively cock. He used one hand to adjust the jaw and slid the mouth over his penis. You look so good there remarked Snively and you didn't even gag. He put both hands on the head and worked it back and along his length. The feeling of a toothless mouth offering no resistance all the way to the throat was one Snively would remember forever. He sped up and slowed down to prolong the sensation. When he was ready Snively stayed inside Knuckles and jizzed in his mouth. With a delicate touch he pulled out his cock and tilted Knuckles head backward. "Oh yes make gravity work for you you naughty boy" teased Snively. "Now don't give me that face. I wouldn't dream of making you do all the work." He flipped Knuckles over revealing his genitalia. I never dreamed this day would come. I finally get taste your cock Knuckles. On inspecting the equipment he saw the length of it was red with white on the tip. "You so color coordinated Knuckles. Let me show how coordinated I am." Tongue was rising up and down the rod. Snively squealed when he saw a response. Knuckles would never be hard again beside rigor mortis but Sniv's efforts saw involuntary girth in the muscle. Snively swallowed down on Knuckles cock. Then up and down on Knuckles cock. Snively repeated his actions for five min. He did not have the stamina of a Sonic or Elsa. Satisfied he had paid his debt Snively swirled his tongue off the dead dong as he pondered his next course.

Let me run this by you. I know I still want to stick my cock into the severed lump of your leg. It would give me lots of great feelings. The other thing I'm deciding on is putting my hooked nose into your buttole. It's pretty long and pointed and I was curious how much penetration I could get. His partner remained silent. Then Snively spoke up. Yes of course! Why compromise when we can do both positions at the same time. Snively flipped Knuckles around so he was even with his ass. He took another two minutes to make an opening in the bandages coverering the leg lump.

Snively was thinking how excited he was at getting to be even closer to his idol. He took his cock into the bandages and past where the blood started to dry. He felt around and got an idea for where the bone splinters were as he reveling in the still warm depths of Knuckles insides. He pressed his body alongside his partner taking both hands to spread the echidna's lower cheeks apart. He gazed in awe beholding the red bumhole. He circled a finger around the edges delicately. He positioned his tip just past the bandages. Giddy like a schoolgirl he traced his nose along the path his finger took and inhaled beside the pucker forcefully. Aromas of crack sweat mixed with rubber and concrete permeated his sniffer. With a smile he gladly sunk his nose into the buttole. Ah its so tight he said nasally. I can only fit in a little bit. I'll try working it around in a rhythm. Like a tiny oil rig he started pumping his top half out as his lower half went in. The tightness of the bum contrasted with the warm looseness of the stub. He increased his pace as he noticed he could start sticking his nose in farther. The twin senasations further aroused him and he started going faster. When he was only moments away from ejaculating he slid his nose smoothly into Knuckles anus all the way to the bridge of his nose where it stuck. His dick quivered outside as his hands pushed on either ass cheek. He strained his neck back desperate for release that was not coming. Frantic he scrunched his face up and with a burst of effort came free. On cue he ejaculated all over the lower half of the dead body as his nose bled freely from sticking it in asshole.

"Oh that was fun" he said wiping his nose with a handkerchief. "I'm famished. How about we get something to eat?"

Snively walked through the door of Shoney's ™ with Knuckles draped over his arm. He had put a dress and bonnet on him that was originally going to take to goodwill for his aunt. He stepped up to the waiter and asked for a table for two for him and his wife. The waiter sat them down at an empty table and gave them some menus. He ordered biscuits and gravy with coffee for himself and the breakfast buffet for Knuckles. He helped Knuckles pick out a plate with pancakes, bacon, donut sticks, and cold strawberry jam. They took their seats back at the booth and Knuckles head fell face first into the strawberries jam. Snively called the waiter over and immediately berated him saying the food here was so bad his wife had fainted in shock. The waiter apologized profusely as Snively walked out in a huff carrying Knuckles in tow.

Meanwhile at School at the Theater storage room

Amy was getting frustrated. She couldn't find anybody when she came across a bank of computer servers. She smiled knowing what would improve her attitude. She swung the sludgehammer into the computers four times destroying all of it. Feeling better she moved back toward the hallway.

Meanwhile at the same time

Eggman's shield faded and Sonic was about to jump but it came back on. "Haha. Well played hedgehog. But I kept a redundant system for my shield in case of emergency in a separate location.

Sonic waited and hoped for one more miracle.

At the boys locker room

Tuck was at a loss. He did not know why Eggman would keep such high tech machinery in a locker room. He smelled trouble. There was only one thing to do. He whipped out his dick and added all his robot inches to it. "Dong laser fire" he said and he showered the computer in energy bolts. Having fully destroyed the equipment he stumbled to the door. "Wow that takes a lot out of you. Gotta recharge after this."

"What? That's impossible. There's no way you could've found both my secret places."

Eggman was frantic as his shield sputtered and died. Sonic took a deep breath and jumped high in the air over Eggman's pod.

"Goodbye Eggman" Sonic yelled.

"Um can we talk about this?" he asked. Sonic circled into a buzzsaw and cut into the machine with much grinding. Eggman threw his hands up but Sonic kept going and split open his stomach top to bottom. Sonic kept going through bones and muscles as Eggman sprayed everywhere. He couldn't escape as more body parts got sucked into Sonic's spinning screw attack. The last piece to go was his head as his brain tissue unravelled all over the mess of his pod. Sonic didn't stop until there was nothing left but metallic and bloody mist.

Sonic landed on the ground and fell to his hands and knees. He had finally beaten Eggman for the last time. His body shook with relief as his adrenaline washed out of him. He got up and headed to see his friends. Everyone found there way to the front entrance. They embraced each other being happy to see who survived. Still it was too late for the rest of the school.

Every other student was already dead from Eggman's final announcement. Logan amazingly survived and hyperventilated while waiting for a cab to take him to a hospital.

They felt bad for all the dead students so they moved them to the auditorium and placed them in the seats. After they brought in the last set of bodies the hooded figure was standing on the stage. "Hello Sonic. I'm glad we can finally meet again."

"Your voice sounds familiar but I don't recognize you" said Sonic.

"It has been a long time Sonic. Let me show you who I am." She took off her cloak and hood. Everyone gasped loudly. It was...

An abomination. From the body it looked like Rouge the Bat. She had the massive melons tanned, flesh platform shoes bat wings black stockings and pink shirt. But where her head should be was nothing but a robot vagina.

"Wait! I know that vagina...Bunny?"

"Yes Sonic it's me." The sideways lips moved in Bunny's tone.

"What happened to you?"

"It's kind of strange but I'll try to explain it if you want. Somehow my pussy stayed conscious even after I was killed by the robots in Not hole Village. When you had sex with my vagina before burying me it was the best thing ever. When the flood came through it dug up my remains. The next morning I was found by Rouge who was bored because Knuckles was gone playing poker. She thought I was a helmet. She pushed the button to expand my asshole and fit me over her head. Then she pushed it again and it clamped on her neck and attached to her spine column. That's why my body is a little different. Ever since then I've followed you from a distance helping you and waited for a chance to return."

Sonic ran to her and they kissed with passion. "I promise we'll make up for lost time real soon" said Sonic. How about right now? asked Bunny. "Okay" said Sonic. They pushed Scotty body out of the way because he was dead his dick broke off inside Edna. Rodriguez help Scotty find a seat while Sonic and Bunny make out on the center stage.

"Sonic I can't wait any longer. I want you to put your dick in my mouth." Sonic could not believe it. He was about to make love to Bunny when he thought would never see her again. Blood rushed to his lower body and he was ready to finish what he never got to complete so long ago with Bunni. With no obstacles in their way the duo decided to reenact the highlights of their six hour marathon session. No one else had any objections so they moved off stage to find an empty seat in the packed auditorium. Tails had a joystick in either hand and worked them really good because he was a pilot. Rodriguez had the best seat in the house down in front. Edward found a seat with Laura perched on his lap. She would move her butt around. She found out that keeping Edward nervous also kept him aroused. Irina sat down nearby and thought to herself. This is just like Tuesday nights in my home country. Except for the geese and the lumber mill.

Amy was having a good time pleasuring herself. She used both hands on herself while digging a foot into Rodriguez's armpit. He rolled with it because he did not want to get on her bad side. Everyone was ready to watch Sonic and Bunny capulate.

Sonic didn't hold her head down but he did trace the patterns of the metal frame of Bunny's vagina head. Five minutes into it Bunny began to pinch his balls with two fingers delicately. He was just about ready to fire and he moaned a warning. "I hope your ready cause here I cum." He came into Bunny's metal mouth and she kept swallowing him the whole time. She slid off of him and gulped a gallon of semen. Sonic got a look in his eye. "Hey Bunny you want to do that next?"

"Okay Sonic now I want you to put your dick between my tits." Then Bunny laid down and invited Sonic over for a titfuck. They kept getting hotter so they ripped off each other's shirts. Sonic's 747 boing crashed between her mountains and he rocked to and fro. And to and fro. And to and fro. To and fro.

"Wow Rouge kept real good standards for her body." Sonic noticed in the middle of his excitement.

"Yeah she really took pride in being sex slave" she said back. As he kept plowing her valley Bunny would blow hot air on his rod to further simulate him.

"How close are you know Sonic?" teased Bunny. Bunny thought of something she wanted to push Sonic even further to his limits. She rolled up a wing and rolled it inside her mouth to get it all sticky and wet. Then she brushed it against the tip of Sonic's penis at the reach of his thrusts. Sonic couldn't control himself and pinched a nipple to calm down. It bruised and turned purple so he pinched the other one so he wouldn't look weird.

"Keep going Sonic I'll rub my boobs with my hands." She mashed her hands into her orbs to tempt Sonic further.

"Okay I'll speed up then." He started to accelerate and was almost ready. "Here I go Bunny."

"Let it out all over me Sonic and make sure you spray all over me ok?"

Sonic came buckets after seven minutes. It got all onto her tits and stomach. then they changed positions. "Okay Sonic now you lie down. I've been waiting for this part." Sonic stretched out on the floor.

"Sure thing Bunny I'm ready for next part when you are." Bunny hopped up and landed square on Sonic cock that was already hard again.

"Oh yes Sonic I'm gonna put you inside me. Hey love I had an idea. This'll be a little different than the last time"

"What are you thinking about Bunny?" Sonic was curious.

"I'm gonna fly up and down on your cock with no hands" Instead of using her body Bunny lifted herself up and down by flapping her wings.

"Wow I didn't know you could do that Bunny. I can't stand how sexy you are I'm going to cum. Sonic gasped.

"Gonna show you all kind of fun things lover" and Bunny's robot lips twitched sideways kind of like a smile.

"That's ok Sonic go ahead and cum inside me" answered Bunny.

"OH Bunny" said Sonic.

"Oh Sonic" said Bunny.

Bunny came down one last time and stuck a toe in Sonic's asshole. Sonic screwed up and fired his load.

They embraced like lovers and began kissing each other. Sonic's tongue explored inside of Bunny's robot hole. Bunny didn't have a tongue but she would clamp onto Sonic in a steady rhythm. One time she did get a piece of his tongue in between her parts and it bled for a while. With a little gauze from the first aid kit he was as good as new. "Let's sit on each other face while we have a break." She squatted down as she ground ass on his mouth. She breathed heavy on his anus and felt around there with her fingers.

"Hoo that feels really weird Bunny. Don't stop keep going." Sonic was feeling really good from the sensation. He couldn't help it he had to relieve himself.

"Bunny that's so good I gonna piss." He started peeing from his dick and sucked it up from him after it landed on his legs. Meanwhile his tongue was getting a lot of Bunny's asshole.

"Ohh Sonic lick me a little deeper I'm going to cum from my ass" she cried in ecstasy. She orgasmed while Sonic tongue still in her and all her juices got over Sonic chest while he rubbed them in. She saw his dick start to sag a little bit and thought of something quick.

"Let me use my wings to get you hard again while I suck you out." She took both her wings and wrapped them around his cock to give him a wingjob. It made him real hard and he loved the feel of it. She put her mouth right onto Sonic's ass and vacuumed hard as she could.

"Hrmph fat cheeks with my Frilllugh" Sonic said with his tongue still in Bunny.

"Mrrrooom now feels mres?" replied Bunny still going full force on Sonic.

Bunny wondered if Sonic wanted to continue.

"Is there anything else you'd like to do Sonic? she asked.

"Yes I want to get another blowjob from you if that's okay" said Sonic. He really liked the first half of her robot orifice was vagina the the back half was her throat. She was happy Sonic still felt good so she tore into him passionately. Her head was a blur and Sonic felt like his shaft was vibrating.

"I'm feeling so good right now Bunny I'm getting as much pleasure as possible. Bunny I ready to cum." With one last burst Sonic cock lit up and went supersonic. It glowed yellow lighting up the inside of bunny's mouth. He jumped to his feet and lifted all of her up with her mouth still on his penis. He helped her rock up and down as they got ready to cum. They were both close and with one last push they both orgasmed at the same time. They smiled and helped each other up while everyone applauded. They turned back to the group.

"Well what do we do now?" asked Amy. Irina had an idea.

“Oh we should vote for a new student body president. I vote for Sonic. All in favor?”

Aye they said together.

“Sonic what is our first order of business?” asked Rodriguez. Sonic stopped and thought for two minutes then answered.

“We should honor the memory of our fallen students. Let’s send them off the best way we know how.” Everyone grabbed a dead partner and started working them to orgasm. They kept going until all 236 pussies and 179 dicks came to orgasm. After that they continued to have sex and go to the bathroom on each other until morning.
