

Tab 1

PROGRAM

FlushFest 2025:

- Hillsborough's largest music festival!
- 17 bands from around the world!
- 3 Stages across the weekend!
- Supporting clean water projects globally!
- Rocking since 2018!

Table of Contents

Alexandra Valladares	3
Busted Knuckle Blues Syndicate	4
Color and Light Choir	5
DJ Koshinga	6
Footnotes Tap Ensemble & the Patrick McGrew Quartet	7
Fledglings	8
Jen and David's O My Machine	9
Netinho Maranhão	10
Omar Ruiz Lopez hosts - Oldtime	11
Project Mastana	12
Red Kalyna	13
Allez les Bleus, with Sara Zaleta and Johnny Wall	14
Silent Films With Live Piano	15
Son de Carolina	16
Stephen Smith	17
Syn3	18
The Hillacasters	19

Alexandra Valladares

Eno River Brewing, Friday October 3 at 5:30

Viajeros Melodiosos' music is effusive, vibrant and multilingual. It is a sultry fusion of musical styles and hybrid rhythms from all over the world.

See them on Facebook

Busted Knuckle Blues Syndicate

Nash St Tavern, Saturday October 4 at 10:00

Drew Remaley drums, Mike Maness bass, Chase Driggers keys and Pat Logsdon guitar and vocals. Blues, Rock and Funk.

Color and Light Community Choir

Eno River Brewing, Saturday October 4 at 2:00

Based in Hillsborough, NC, CLCC is committed to bringing people of diverse musical and social backgrounds together through music and community service.

Do you sing? Join us! <https://www.colorandlightcc.com/>

DJ Koshinga

Nash St Tavern, Saturday October 4 at 3:00

Under the moniker Koshinga, Gareth Price has spun records right round baby in bars and clubs in Taiwan, Thailand, the UK, and the US.

Footnotes Tap Ensemble & The Patrick McGrew Quartet

Eno House, Friday October 3 at 7:00

Footnotes Tap Ensemble is a nonprofit professional tap dance company with a mission to promote, preserve, and perform this unique American art form through ensemble concerts, community performances, and tap workshops. Founded in 2002 by Robin Vail and Mimi Benjamin at the Ballet School of Chapel Hill, Footnotes has been tapping through the Triangle for more than 20 years. Learn more about the company at footnotestapsensemble.org

The Patrick McGrew Quartet is made of national and international performing artists who call the Triangle their home. Exploring sound through the styles of jazz, blues, and latin music, the band takes advantage of the freedom that comes with a small, close knit group of collaborators from a variety of backgrounds.

Fledglings

Nash St Tavern, Saturday October 4 at 8:30

In the fields surrounding an 1864 farmhouse, you can hear them. Textures & grooves travel worn floorboards, sinking into roots below, emerging through stoic oaks of 200 years. A mash-up of 60's and 70's groove, psychedelic rock, inspired surf, and Indie DIY. Thoughtfully orchestrated, rarely duplicated...we improvise a lot (!) Our goal is to remain familiar, never the same. Judy & Johnny.

Jen and David's O My Machine

Eno River Brewing, Saturday October 4 at 5:30

Jen and David, the duo behind O My Machine, bring a unique blend of storytelling and emotion to their original music. With soulful vocals leading the way, they navigate between acoustic and electric guitars, infusing their melodies with subtle sound effects and occasional drums.

When they're not lost in music, Jen and David find solace in family time and creative pursuits, including visual art. Their passion extends beyond music; together, they run a prosthetic clinic, where they craft prosthetic body parts for amputees. Follow @o_my_machine on Instagram to stay tuned to their musical journey.

Music:

Goldilocks

Netinho Maranhão

Eno River Brewing, Saturday October 4 at 8:30

Netinho Maranhão hails from the Northern Brazilian state of Maranhão, which is just southeast of the Amazon river basin. He grew up traveling across the wild North of Brazil - his father built wooden bridges for the TransAmazon highway. Along the way he learned the songs of Brazil's last frontier. He will be singing Samba, Reggae and MPB from Maranhão and beyond.

Music: https://youtu.be/-ERQEXz9gLM?si=84n-_PHiWUND5s3L

Omar Ruiz Lopez hosts - Oldtime

Eno River Brewing, Saturday October 4 at 2:30

Project Mastana

Eno River Brewing, Friday October 3 at 7:00

Mastana is: The sultry and evocative voice of Surabhi Shah; the international man of mystery guitarist John Medley; a really funkyed up person on Bass, Vasu Kilaru, jazzman and multi-instrumentalist Jeff Brown, violin virtuoso Tracy Feldman, and the much in demand beat master, the one and only, David Shore on drums.....and whatever happened to the Nauch girls?

Music:

Roop Tera

Piya Tu

Dam Maro Dam

Red Kalyna

Eno River Brewing, Saturday October 4 at 6:30

Forged in the changing realities and needs of the February 24, 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine, Red Kalyna is the musical creation of two US-Ukrainian and two US-Italian co-nationals, residing in Caswell and Alamance Counties North Carolina. Galyna Karpenski, Yanceyville, NC, and Iryna Tkachenko, Haw River, NC, were originally from Ukraine. Peggy Boswell & Loreins Vellani, Mebane, NC, reclaimed their Italian citizenship more than a decade ago through Loreins' family. Ukrainian national, Misha Shvets of Chapel Hill, NC, joined the ensemble in January 2023.

The members perform under the name Red Kalyna, a species of berry-producing tree (Viburnum opulus) native throughout North Africa and Europe, and a foundational element of Ukrainian national identity and culture. Iryna & Misha's love of Ukrainian music & culture is authentic & instinctual. As citizens of a founding European Union (EU) member nation, Peggy & Loreins realize that war in any nation bordering the EU is of critical concern to all people in Europe, as well as for peace on the planet. Sometimes joining these musicians is Greensboro's David Thompson, the spouse of a Ukrainian-American.

David, Iryna, Loreins & Peggy are also active members of the regionally-renowned, Alamance County-based ensemble Mebanesville.

Music:

Vil'na Ukrayina

Rushnyk

Allez les Bleus, with Sara Zaleta and Johnny Wall

Eno River Brewing, Saturday October 4 at 4:30

Traditional French Tunes from various time periods and styles.

Silent Films With Live Piano

Eno House, Friday October 3 at 8:30

In Order of Appearance:

Le Pecheur De Perles (the Pearl Diver) by the french director Ferdinand Zecca 1907 a visually stunning movie (8 minutes) that has the cast in a staged underwater setting. The music of Claude Debussy (along with a well known pop-tune) will accompany it.

Scarecrow 1920 - Buster Keaton (along with his father) in a 20 minute comedy with a Rube Goldberg type set - various pieces by period ragtime composers will compliment the movie.

The Mascot and the Devil's Ball by Vladislav Starevich 1933 35 minutes - This is stop motion like you have never seen before! It is the adventures of a little toy dog on a quest for an orange for the daughter of his creator. What starts out as a children's movie quickly develops into a horror movie so it is not recommended for young children. The music of Chopin along with Beethoven with improvisations will be used.

Son de Carolina

Eno River Brewing, Saturday October 4 at 7:30

Stephen Smith

Eno River Brewing, Saturday October 4 at 3:30

Pianist/Composer Stephen Smith is a native of North Carolina and composes in several genres of music including neo-classical, jazz, blues, and folk. He studied jazz piano and composition at Berklee College of Music, and classical piano and composition at City College of San Francisco. Stephen has four original music albums to his credit, including his 2022 album of original piano solos, 'Light of the Morning', which is available on Spotify, YouTube, Apple Music and other streaming websites. He was a featured artist at Irregardless Cafe in Raleigh for many years with a residency there for over a decade. For his solo piano shows he plays original piano solos, covers of popular music like the Beatles, James Taylor, and also some Blues, Jazz, and Celtic.

Music:

Celtic Dreams

Love Lives On

Syn3

Nash St Tavern, Saturday October 4 at 7:00

Synchronous in 3 (Syn3) is a newly-formed Triangle-based tribute to British Eighties rock. Listening to our live gigs will transport you back to your college days from Manchester to London to Dublin and beyond. All three musicians have a lifetime of experience in various musical genres, and we come together to share our collective love and respect for some badass rock and roll from across the pond. We play U2, The Police, The Cult, The Cranberries and a few other gems that you haven't heard live since you were falling down drunk at your frat house. Come. Celebrate. Dance like you mean it.

<https://www.syn3.rocks>

Music:

Driven to Tears

She Sells Sanctuary

Sunday Bloody Sunday

The Hillcasters

Eno River Brewing, Friday October 3 at 8:30

The Hillcasters are a local Hillsborough favorite. Playing classic rock n roll, classic country, and blues. From The Stones to Haggard they have their own special twist on the classics.

