Live Oaks Earth Day Clean Up

Our entire school worked together to collect debris from around our school property. We collected over 15 bags of trash! Our school grounds look stellar for Earth Day next week. Thank you to our wonderful school community for all of the help!

SBA/NGSS Testing:

Students in Grades 3-5, if your child will be out in the month of May for more than a day, please let your child's teacher and Kristine Gentile know.

The Milford Public Schools is excited to offer a summer enrichment experience for elementary school learners. Please click here to access more information about this opportunity.

From the Media Center

This year's 2025 winner for the March Madness Book Bracket is:

Yoshi's Big Swim by Mary Wagley Copp. We enjoyed reading all of the nominees and voting for our favorites. The books are available now for check out in the library. Thank you P.T.A. for generously donating the books. We truly appreciate your continued support in building literacy with our students.

Happy Reading!

From the CCC

Parents, we invite you to check out our weekly CCC Newsletter for fun and interesting places to visit with your family! If you're looking for ideas over spring break, visit the CCC webpage and click on the link titled "Activities for Everyone"—you'll find lots of options for all ages.

April 17, 2025

One highlight is the Stepping Stones Museum for Children in Norwalk, CT, hosting its Egg-traordinary Egg-stravaganza on Saturday, April 19, from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm. Enjoy egg hunts, hands-on activities, and a full day of fun! Learn more at www.steppingstonesmuseum.org/eggs.

Also, don't miss the Time Travelers KidStudio, a creative space for kids up to age 12 to explore local history and make crafts. Guided activities happen every Wednesday and Saturday!

And if you're looking ahead to summer, check out Camp Happiness—a Milford Recreation camp for residents with special needs. Open to children with an IEP entering kindergarten through 6th grade, the camp runs for six one-week sessions at Foran High School
