

Resources for Organizing Activism

Collected by Caldwell Women Rise

Move On Organization: Democracy in Action MoveOn is the largest independent, progressive, digitally-connected organizing group in the United States. Launched in 1998, MoveOn pioneered online organizing and advocacy techniques that have become standard in politics, nonprofits, and industry in the U.S. and worldwide.	MoveOn Website
INDIVISIBLE Guide A guide created by congressional staffers filled with best practices for making Congress listen.	Website with links to download the guide
Resistance Manual The Resistance Manual is an open-source platform to harness the collective power of the people to resist the impact of a Trump presidency and to continue to make progress in our communities. The Resistance Manual is focused on presenting truthful and actionable information. All content is reviewed for accuracy and relevance before being posted.	Resistance Manual Homepage
Planning Guide for Action Organizers This six page guide walks organizers through the steps needed to plan an event, such as spreading the word, media, action, and follow up.	Planning Guide Google Doc