CCSS.ELA-Literacy.SL.11-12.5 Make strategic use of digital media (e.g., textual, graphical, audio, visual, and interactive elements) in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest.

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.SL.11-12.6 Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating a command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

Choosing a Topic

Choose a topic that you know and enjoy. Your speech will be more successful and easier to do if you use this criteria. Can't think of a topic? Use the list at the end of this packet.

Brainstorm: Write down some ideas below.

Test your topics: Go through this checklist to decide on your topic.

- Is it something you know how to do well?
- Is it something your audience would like to learn?
- Is it a process that can be done in the classroom?
- Is it a process that will result in a finished product?
- Is it something you can accomplish in the allotted time? (4-5 minutes)
- Is it something you can safely accomplish in the room?
- Is it something you can do legally in school? (no weapons, animals, alcohol or controlled substances).

Write your topic on the list at the back of the room.

List the steps chronologically-Leave space steps you forgot.
