- If the investor wishes to withdraw or cancel their investment before the specified time, they must complete the form provided by the company. If an investment is canceled midway through a lot, the company reserves the right to impose a penalty on the investor. This penalty will be calculated based on the amount invested and the losses incurred by the company in that lot due to the cancellation.
- If the investor has made investments in multiple lots, the company is obligated to provide the full profit share from all completed lots prior to the cancellation, in accordance with the stipulated terms. The investor will only be penalized for the prematurely canceled lot.
