Information Collection and Use

The Application collects information when you download and use it. This may include:

- Device IP address
- Pages visited, time/date of visit, time spent
- Operating system used on your mobile device

The Application does not gather precise location information.

The Application does not use Artificial Intelligence (AI) technologies to process your data or provide features.

The Service Provider may use the information you provide to contact you with important information, required notices, and marketing promotions.

For a better experience, the Service Provider may require certain personally identifiable information, which will be retained and used as described in this Privacy Policy.

Third Party Access

Only aggregated, anonymized data may be transmitted to external services to improve the Application. The Service Provider may disclose information:

- As required by law
- To protect rights, safety, or investigate fraud
- To trusted service providers under strict confidentiality

Opt-Out Rights

You can stop all collection of information by uninstalling the Application.

Data Retention Policy

The Service Provider retains User Provided data while you use the Application and for a reasonable time thereafter. To request deletion of your data, please contact denjaswiatlowskipe5567@gmail.com

Children

The Application is not intended for children under 18. The Service Provider does not knowingly collect personal information from children. Parents and guardians are encouraged to monitor usage. If you believe a child has provided information, please contact denjaswiatlowskipe5567@gmail.com

Security

The Service Provider safeguards your information with physical, electronic, and procedural measures.

Changes

This Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time. Continued use of the Application constitutes acceptance of changes.

Your Consent

By using the Application, you consent to the processing of your information as described in this Privacy Policy.
