In your own words, summarize the story (no spoilers!). Tell us why you liked it and who might enjoy the book.

The book is about a girl named Phoebe who was mad so she skipped rocks because she was mad at her friends. Phoebe heard a unicorn say ow. The unicorn was stuck looking at her beautiful reflection. She granted Phoebe one wish for helping her. First Phoebe wanted silly wishes but then wished for the unicorn's friendship. They had many adventures together.

I liked it because it was funny like one time she tried to teach the unicorn to play dolls.

You will like this book if you like fairy tales and comics.
