

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: January 8, 2026

Welcome to our app. Your privacy is a top priority for us. This Privacy Policy outlines how we collect, use, and safeguard your information when you use our mobile application and related services (the "Services").

1. Information We Collect

To provide and enhance our Services, we may collect the following types of information:

- Device Information: This includes your device model, operating system version, language and region settings, unique device identifiers (e.g., IDFA, GAID), IP address, and network status. This data helps us optimize performance and ensure security.
- Usage Data: We automatically collect information about your interactions with our Services, such as session duration, features used, and crash reports. This helps us understand player behavior and improve the game.

We do not require you to create a personal account, and we do not collect personal information like your name, email, or phone number unless you voluntarily provide it for support purposes.

2. How We Use Your Information

The information we collect is used to:

- Provide and Manage Services: To deliver core gameplay, save your progress, and ensure the app runs smoothly.
- Improve Our Services: To analyze usage data, identify and fix bugs, and enhance the user experience.
- Ensure Security: To protect our Services from fraud, abuse, and other illegal activities.
- Support Advertising: To deliver relevant ads and manage ad frequency. You can opt out of personalized advertising via your device settings.

3. Information Sharing

We do not sell your personal data. We may share anonymized or aggregated information with trusted third parties under the following circumstances:

- Service Providers: We partner with third-party companies for analytics, crash reporting, and advertising. These providers are contractually obligated to protect your data.
- Legal Compliance: We may disclose information if required by law or to protect the safety of our users and prevent fraud.

4. Data Security

We implement industry-standard security measures to protect your information from unauthorized access. We retain data only for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this policy.

5. Children's Privacy

Our Services are not intended for children under 13 (or the relevant age of consent in your jurisdiction). We do not knowingly collect personal data from children. If you believe we have done so, please contact us immediately.

6. Your Privacy Choices

You can manage your information in the following ways:

- Personalized Ads: Opt-out of interest-based advertising through your mobile device's settings.
- App Permissions: Manage app permissions in your device settings.
