

NSS TRAINING COLLEGE OTTAPALAM

LESSON PLAN BASED ON CONSTRUCTIVIST FORMAT

Name of the teacher	Arya Thankavelu	Name of the institution	IMTTC Kuzhalmannam
Paper	Perspectives on Education	Unit	Unit -3 Sociology- Etymological Meaning and Definition
Topic	Social structure & Social functions	Date
Strength	52	Duration	50 Minutes

Learning outcomes

- The learner will be able to acquire more knowledge about the concept of social structure and social functions
- The learner will be able to list out the major social functions
- The learner will be able to explain the concept if social structure
- The learner can generalize the meaning of social structure and social functions
- The learner will be able to point out the major elements of social structure

Ideas, facts and concepts

- Social structure is the particular arrangement of inter related institutions, agencies, and social patterns, as well as the statuses and roles which each person assumes in the group
- Social is an abstract phenomenon
- It is an external aspects of society
- Functionalism addresses the society as a whole in terms of functions of its constituent elements such as norms, customs, traditions, institutions.

- Social structure revolves around the action system.
- Social structure depends upon proper assignment of roles and statuses

Process and skills

- Observing
- Communicating
- Inferring

Values and attitudes

- Develops 'we feeling' attitude among the learners
- Develops democratic attitude towards society
- Develops unity in integrity among the learners

Learning Resources

- Video
- Power point presentation
- Text book
- Reading material

Learning strategies

- General discussion

Previous knowledge

- Society follows a structure to maintain stability
- Society has several functions to maintain integration and unity

Expected products <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● A paragraph on social structure and its functions ● List of the major elements of social structure ● Consolidated content about social functions
Learning process	Assessment
Introductory Activity – In order to capture the attention of pupil teacher shows some pictures about social structure, later conducts an open discussion on social structure. After that pupil develop an idea that social structure plays an important role in the society. [BB- SOCIAL STRUCTURE]	Question – Answers
Developmental Activity Activity 1- Teacher shows a video related to social structure and ask the students to sit in groups and list out the major elements of social structure and ask them to present it. Activity 2 Teacher shows a power point presentation related to social functions and asks the students to consolidate the contents given in PPT. Later teacher ask questions to clarify their doubts. Activity 3	List of major elements of social structure Consolidated content about social functions

Teacher initiates an open discussion and summarizes the important points of social structure and its functions in the society.

Codification

Teacher consolidate the important points with the help of PPT

Points to be codified

- Social structure is an arrangement of society
- Social structure is an abstract phenomenon
- Social structure enable the society to function in a harmonious manner
- Social arrangements are indispensable to society

Concluding Activity

Teacher asks the students to prepare a paragraph on social structure and its functions

Follow up Activity

“Education plays vital role in maintaining social structure in the society”. Comment this statement

