

NewGrounds Rebellion©

Concept:

The regular users of New Grounds are having a good time, uploading content and just chilling, when a mass-influx of Corrupted come in, and start down-voting, and clogging up the site in general. Tom Fulp is too busy to deal with all of 'em, so he holds a Mass Tournament to find the best fighter to help bring down the horde.

Now, being that this is the realm of New Grounds, there are some who join the down-voters, as they offer more pay/promise fortunes untold/etc. These new-found alliances cause even more problems for the regular users, and an all out war occurs.
