

SPECIALISTS IN STORYTELLING THROUGH VIDEOS
WE BRING OUT THE BEST IN YOUR BRAND STORY

Bordertown Films specialises in creating videos that look amazing and drive action for our clients.

Based on the Gold Coast, we travel frequently throughout Australia and internationally for shoots. We provide full scale video production services for projects from high-end TV and web commercials to small scale corporate videos.

Our services include: Concept Development, Script Writing, 4K Production Services and Post Production.

We work with you from start to end so you never have to stress about liaising with a whole bunch of different people to get your video done.

As a crack team of creative professionals, we have well over a decade of international and local experience in how to create the most resonant content.

We'd love to help you bring your ideas to life. Bordertown Films are frontiers where anything can happen. It's where cultures collide, adventures begin and stories are created. Being from border towns ourselves, the name reflects our personalities, drive and creative spirit.

Bordertown Films' core team is made up of Creative Director Dan Stevenson, Head Writer & Producer Jacqueline Lim, Cinematographer extraordinaire David Rusanow, plus a crack team of other creative professionals that we work with, usually until the wee hours of the morning.

We are one of the top video production companies in Queensland, offering commercial and corporate video production services.
