Request a workshop

Workshops can be scheduled in one of two ways:

1. Come to a workshop that the Glazer Center for Leadership & Service (Aztec Student Union, room 220) offers! A maximum of 20 students can attend each workshop due to seating capacity. All workshops will start on time. If you are late your seat may be given to someone on the waitlist
2. Request a workshop for your SDSU department or organization! Request your workshop a minimum of two weeks prior to your preferred date, knowing that some workshops take more time to schedule. Visit TINYURL.com/GlazerWorkshopRequest Questions? Email leadership.programs@sdsu.edu

Workshop Topics May Include:

Information Sessions

Overview of how to get involved with community service, the leadership certificate, and our signature Glazer Center for Leadership & Service programs! (30 min)

Leadership Theories

Required workshop for the Leadership Certificate: Attend this session to learn about past and present leadership theories. This comprehensive overview will help you put the pieces together to see which leadership theories you resonate with the most. (1 hour)

Values and Vision

Required workshop for the Leadership Certificate: What do you want for your life? What guides your decisions? Join this interactive session to identify your core leadership values and begin the process of crafting your leadership vision. (1 hour)

Time Management for Student Leaders

Self-selected workshop for the Leadership Certificate: This workshop will present you with the skills and practices necessary to be an effective and well-balanced student leader. This workshop is highly recommended for newly elected student organization leaders, freshman, or students in need of a time management “refresher.” (1 hour)

True Colors: Personality & Communication Styles Exercise and Conversations

Required workshop for the Leadership Certificate: Communication challenges are often the source of many issues facing leaders in today's student organizations. Personality differences are also the source of conflict and dysfunction. Learning to understand the different personalities and communication needs in your organization is an important leadership tool. (1 hour)

What Conflict Style Do You Lead With?

Required workshop for the Leadership Certificate: Take a self-assessment to discover your conflict style and learn tangible strategies on how to effectively navigate conflict so you can show up as a better leader and communicator! (1 hour)

Etiquette for Student Leaders

Self-Selected workshop for the Leadership Certificate: Learn best practices for navigating formal settings and building professional connections! We will review dressing for success, elevator pitches, networking and more! (1 hour)

Servant Leadership

Self-selected workshop for the Leadership Certificate: Learn how to enact the key attributes of the Servant Leadership Theory. This workshop will allow you to reflect on your own experiences and values to discover how you can lead with a service mindset!

Social Change & Leadership

Self-selected workshop for the Leadership Certificate: Learn how to enact the key attributes of the Social Change Model of Leadership. Participate in dialogue around strategies for enacting social change and advocacy in our everyday lives
