Incident Report

This anomaly has been wandering the site for quite some time and so Epsilon-11 made a containment effort on it first in medbay where SSGT John Mello activated a reality anchor lowering its hume from 85 to 80 when this happened 4500 could now not summon birds like how they usually do. When 4500 walked away it slowly regained its powers and its hume rose back to 85. 4500 walked to a closet near HCZ CP where it has set up a bit of a base with a bookshelf (unknown what the books are). After a brief conversation, we convinced 4500 to look at HCZ temp CCs. On the way there 4500 stated that IA had given it that closet as a room. When we got to HCZ temp CCs we asked how we could make the temp CCs feel more “homie” and 4500 stated he didn't have any ideas because his home was in another dimension and couldn't be reconstructed in there. After 4500 seemed to realize what Epsilon-11 was attempting to do it vanished in a cloud of smoke.
