$489.77 in profit in the IHSA contest account; Checking account balance is $2,210.56; Savings account balance is $6,336.06.

Tracy motions and Jim seconds. Motion carried

General Music report - Erika Coffey

Lauri's son-in-law Apollo came over to do a presentation on trumpet after school today.

5th Grade Band - Erika Coffey

Youth parade coming up and working on checking in instruments

Recruitment went very well. All students who asked to check out instruments from the school are qualified for school instruments. 32 students Quinlan & Fabish rentals, 10 students requested school instruments, 12 students have their own instrument, 6 students looking for fall recruitment. Erika will be receiving a mega grant from the education foundation for $2000 for used instruments.

Jr. High Band Report - Lindsey Boyette

8th Grade promotion is on Monday

6-8th grade bands will play at the youth parade on June 2nd

Summer band camp. Lindsey is waiting for approval from building administration. Hoping to do August 9th-11th.

Jr. High Solo & Ensemble went very well. There were 100 events. Lindsey spent about $600 total between judge fees and medals. Lindsey is asking that HARMONY covers the $300 to cover the cost of judges for 2017. Michele moves that HARMONY pays the judge fees for the Jr. High for 2017. Tracy seconds. Motion carries.

Lindsey thinks that next year we will need to get more polos for performances.

Drama Report - Bob Mundis

Met last week. Theatre fest is January 5-7th, before coming back from Christmas Break.

There are 5 students interested in going. The all-state performance is Sweeney Todd.

Summer Plans

Rummage Sale - will be pushing this off until the fall
Amanda has also been looking

Murder Mystery

Anna has called at Starline or at Tammys. Both locations said that they would look into it.
Michele suggests that we have a meeting this summer specifically for the murder mystery. Will shoot an email off to set up a meeting.
