Introduction [12 pt. Arial Bold] The first section must be “Introduction” ;
[Typed in Bold, List-style with ABCs Alphabets]

[12 pt Times New Roman] Please explore in more words the background of your manuscript and your current research position among other research on related themes. You should discuss here your research’s relationship with other researches; literature review, especially on most relevant, newly academic works published in high reputation journals.

Please try to answer at least two questions: (1) why you believe that your research question is such an important to answer; and (2) how other scholars have or have not answered, or how you think your answer will give a contribution to the existing scholarship on the subject.

A detailed description of your methods in doing the research is not necessary to write down in this section, but if you think you have to do so, you may mention it slightly in one or two sentences. Then, for closing this introduction section, you should explore the flows of your discussion and the expected final results.

Discussion [12 pt. Arial Bold]

In this section you may discuss every aspect of the issue one by one. It is necessary to build argument and to provide original data discussed and compared to research and works of other scholars. The way to discuss an issue here is by combining the data and the discussion. So, it is not recommended to separate merely data description from the analysis on it.

The accuracy and completeness of the references is the responsibility of the author. References to personal letters, paper presented at meetings, and other unpublished material may be included. The format for citations in text for bibliographic references follows Chicago Manual of Style 17th Edition (full note).

[12 pt Times New Roman Bold Italic] Subsequent Pages

Right margins should be justified. Tables and figures should be incorporated in the text.

Table 1. Table captions should be placed above the table

Table	Header	Header 2	Header 3
Item 1	Aaa	Bbb	Ccc
Item 2	Ddd	Eee	Fff

[12 pt Times New Roman Bold Italic] Sections

Sections should be numbered. First level section headings should be in 13 point Arial, bold face with subsections in 13 point italic Times New Roman.

[12 pt. Arial Bold] Tables and Figures

Tables and figures should be incorporated in the text as close to the reference as possible and should be in a form suitable for publication when printed with a good quality laser printer. Figures will be printed in black and white and should be readily interpreted without the use of color. Tables and figures may extend across column.

Captions should be Times New Roman 10-point, centered. Tables and figures should be sequentially numbered in separate series. Captions for tables should be above the table. Captions for figures should be below the figure.
