

In 1933 the SS army was established and the concentration camps were constructed. In 1933 Shet's brother went to a kibbutz to escape the Anti-semitism, which was a type of Jewish farming community. Eva was receiving a grade-school government provided education, but she had higher aspirations than just a high school education. Isak and Solomon were still working hard in their respective hometowns. It was probably around this time when Joseph Sher's sister Freida introduced him to his future wife, Rachel.

Isak Borenstein Later in life.