

Young Author Organization Student Spotlight Consent Form

By completing this form, I am giving the Young Author Organization my consent and permission for it to post the shareable viewing link to view my monthly prompt response on a Google Document (which will be linked on the Young Author Organization's website, youngauthor.org, under the "Student Spotlight" subtitle in my respective grade level). Furthermore, my response to the monthly prompt will be able to be seen publicly. The Young Author Organization will not take credit for my work, as my name (reported on this consent form) will be listed with the shareable link for anyone on the internet to view my response. The Young Author Organization reserves the right to choose not to post my shareable viewing link on the document that will be linked on youngauthor.org. The Young Author Organization may choose to take my shareable viewing link down from or post it on the Young Author Organization Student Spotlight document at any time (unless I have prior sent the Young Author Organization an email stating my requests to permanently withdraw from the public posting of my shareable viewing link). All fields of this consent form have been entirely filled out and sent to youngauthor.org@gmail.com in order for the Young Author Organization to post my work's shareable viewing link on the Young Author Organization Student Spotlight document. If any/all of the fields on this consent form have not been entirely filled out by the time that the Young Other Organization receives this consent form, the Young Author Organization will not post the shareable viewing link on its public document. The Young Author Organization is not liable for my work being used for any matters outside of the Young Author Organization posting my work's shareable viewing link on the Young Author Organization Student Spotlight document, which will then be posted on youngauthor.org. The Young Author Organization will only accept my work if it is in a view, not edit format. I understand what a shareable viewing link for anyone on the internet to view my response (view, not edit format) is. This consent form has the same terms, information, and constituents as the one the Young Author Organization has officially posted on its website, and I have not added or eliminated any terms, information, or constituents to/from it. My work is school-appropriate, and only I am responsible for all edits made to my writing before and after submitting its shareable link to the Young Author Organization. The monthly prompts I responded to may be from prior or current prompts. My response is not plagiarized.

I have read and I fully understand all of the provided information and have had the opportunity to ask questions. I understand that my participation is voluntary and that I am free to permanently withdraw at any time from my shareable viewing link being posted on the Young Author Organization Student Spotlight document on the Young Author Organization's website (by sending The Young Author Organization an email to youngauthor.org@gmail.com stating my requests), without giving a reason and without cost. I voluntarily agree to take part in all factors of this consent form. If I am under eighteen years of age, my parent(s)/guardian(s) have also read and fully understand all of the provided information and have had the opportunity to ask questions. They allow me to voluntarily agree to take part in all factors of this consent form.
