

Andre Trenier (muralist) is a graduate of LaGuardia High School and the University of the Arts (Philadelphia, PA). He began painting murals in 2003 with a memorial for a close friend. He continued to do memorial walls around the Bronx for several years, finally perfecting his spray-painting techniques by painting large walls in Europe. In 2004, Mr. Trenier founded Tangible Thoughts, a creative collective initially known for customizing high-end fashion and sneakers. Since 2013, he has painted several dozen murals in the Bronx and Washington Heights areas alone.