

Nellie Bube

Nelly Bube was born in 1949 in Karaganda. In 1969 she graduated from the Almaty Art College N. In. Gogol, renamed in 1991 to the Kazakh Pedagogical Institute Abay.

She worked in the publishing field from 1971-1991 and participated in international book fairs. Nelly has a diploma in illustrating children's books.

Since 1998, she has exhibited in the State Museum of Arts. A. Kasteyev and private galleries in Almaty. Nelly currently lives and works in Almaty. The main themes in the works of Nelly Bube include the life and culture of nomads, art and the petroglyphs of Kazakhstan, and cities and architectural monuments of Central Asia.

In 2000, the artist turned to illustrating the Bible and created thirty paintings, including forty depicting the parables of Jesus Christ.

One of the most major works is devoted to the culture of nomads. It is a panorama titled "Great Silk Way". The piece was inspired by and based on the book Ancient Trade Routes. The painting symbolizes the Silk Road as a diplomatic artery between separate cultural regions of Eurasia (China, India, Central Asia and the Roman Empire), as the path to peace, cooperation between peoples, and the exchange of cultural and spiritual values. In her works Bube, first and foremost, seeks to show the beauty of man and the world around us.

Instagram: nelli_bube

Kazakh Wedding
 Photo Print of Oil on Canvas
 11" x 17"

Many-Sided Asia (1)
 Photo Print of Oil on Canvas
 11" x 17"

Mosque
 Photo Print of Oil on Canvas
 11" x 17"

Walk Under the Moon
Photo Print of Oil on Canvas
11" x 17"

Portrait of a Girl
Photo Print of Oil on Canvas
11" x 17"

Parable of the Lost Sheep and Pearl

Photo Print of Oil on Canvas

11" x 17"

Parable of the Lost Sheep and Pearl

Photo Print of Oil on Canvas

11" x 17"

Travel

Photo Print of Oil on Canvas

11" x 17"

Lady

Photo Print of Oil on Canvas
11" x 17"

Eastern City

Photo Print of Oil on Canvas
11" x 17"

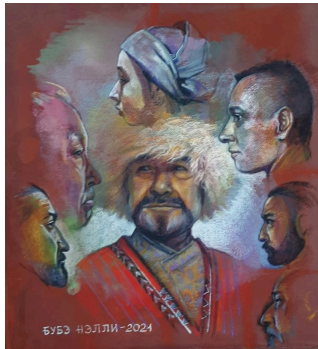

Bride

Photo Print of Oil on Canvas
11" x 17"

Mountain Goat
Photo Print of Oil on Canvas
11" x 17"

Many-Sided Asia (2)
Photo Print of Oil on Canvas
11" x 17"

Travel