

Tasks of Mourning

After a death, friends and family face complicated emotions, and a new reality without the deceased. They must learn how to keep the person within their hearts, while moving forward in life. The tasks of mourning describe how to adjust to loss in a healthy way.

Tasks may be completed in any order.

Tasks may be revisited multiple times.

Tasks may be completed at any pace.

1 Accept the reality of the loss.

- Accept the loss both intellectually and emotionally.
- Recognize the significance of the loss.

2 Process the pain of grief.

- Name and make sense of your emotions.
- Let yourself feel these emotions, rather than trying to bury them.

3 Adjust to a world without your loved one.

- Make practical changes, such as taking over tasks your loved one used to complete.
- Adapt to a changing self-identity and worldview.

4 Remember your loved one while moving forward in life.

- Create a place for your loved one in your heart that leaves room for new relationships.
- Find a balance between remembering your loved one and moving forward.
